Jerry D. McMorris

*Chairman, President &
Chief Executive Officer*

Yes, Jerry McMorris does involve himself in a business other than the Colorado Rockies, but that would have been tough to prove with his baseball involvement during the last off-season. In just his second full year in the director's chair of the Rockies' organization, the respect he has already amassed in baseball has placed him among the high profile owners in pro sports. He was forced to juggle two schedules during the winter, tending to the business of his family owned NW Transport Service, Inc. trucking firm, in addition to making countless trips to the eastern half of the country in an effort to get an agreement in the labor negotiations.

It should come as no surprise that Jerry was called upon for his expertise in collective bargaining, spending the majority of his life in a union environment with the trucking company. In 1959, at the age of 19, Jerry McMorris assumed the Presidency of Westway Motor Freight, Inc., a company that his family purchased, and at the time was operating three trucks between Denver and Golden, CO. Today NW has more than 12,000 equipment units and employs over 2,500 people in Colorado, with another 6,500 employees throughout the U.S. and Canada.

McMorris' involvement in baseball began as a minority owner of the upstart franchise awarded to Denver on July 5, 1991, but it escalated to full-time duty when he and partners Oren Benton and Charlie Monfort took the lead roles in ownership on January 26, 1993. Less than a month later, McMorris was in Tucson, AZ, watching the first group of Rockies gather at Hi Corbett Field.

When the Rockies took the field for the first time under the Arizona sun, even Jerry McMorris didn't realize what was about to occur. Beginning with the first exhibition game sellout, the only major league baseball franchise in the Rocky Mountain region would spend its first two years setting attendance records that will likely never be reached again.

Sure, the novelty of major league baseball in Colorado helped jump start the early season success at the gate in 1993, but when fans entered those gates of Mile High Stadium, they were immediately treated like family, something that is at the top of the Jerry McMorris priority list. He and his partners also made sure that General Manager Bob Gebhard was given the financial support that has made the Rockies one of the most successful expansion franchises in baseball history.

During the course of his leadership with the Rockies, McMorris has maintained the same calm demeanor on a daily basis regardless of the situation that arises. A "people" person by nature, Jerry and his wife, Mary, were easily spotted in Mile High Stadium, sitting behind the Rockies dugout, and while cheering on the club, often interacted with the thousands of fans who made the trek to the ballpark. A firm believer in doing what is right, he has ingrained that quality into every member of the Rockies' organization.

It was his foresight to make the suggestion and financial commitment that raised the capacity of Coors Field to its present 50,000 status, increasing the total number of seats by 7,000 from the originally voted size of the Rockies new home.

The baseball world did not take long to respect his abilities, aside from placing him prominently on the negotiating committee, he has also dealt with Congressional and Federal Legislation in regards to baseball.

A 1962 graduate of the University of Colorado School of Business, he is a former member of the Young Presidents' Organization, and is a member of the Chief Executives Organization and the World Business Council. In addition, he is a board member of the American Trucking Association and the Western Highway Institute. McMorris is a former Chairman of the Colorado State University Foundation, and currently serves on the CU Foundation Board of Directors. He is also on the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of the very successful National Western Stock Show. He was named the 1993 Colorado Business Leader of the Year, and was the 1992 Master Entrepreneur of the Year. He is also a member of the Institute of American Entrepreneurs. As if his activities and responsibilities are not enough, Jerry is also one of the most sought after public speakers in the region.

Jerry owns Timnath Farms and the Red Mountain and Belvoir Ranches, with his agricultural interests based in Northern Colorado and Wyoming. He and wife, Mary, have three children, Mike, Scott and Kelly. Jerry and Mary reside at Timnath Farms in Timnath, Colorado, and became grandparents for the first time last fall with the birth of Madeline on October 4, 1994, to Kelly and her husband Michael Dorvillier.

Bob Gebhard

Senior Vice President General Manager

The adjective "tireless" is often an overused term, however, there is no other way to describe the effort and dedication that Bob Gebhard has brought to the Colorado Rockies since his hiring in September, 1991.

The task at hand was a fantasy league baseball player's dream, but it was real life for Gebhard, who had to build a major league team, a minor league organization, and a scouting system from scratch, then be prepared to compete in the National League a mere 18 months after accepting the job. Sleep has never been a major facet of Geb's life, which is fortunate, because he spent many an evening waking up and writing notes on something else that was necessary to get the club ready for action.

Whatever formula he used must have worked, because in two short years, the Rockies have already established themselves as a ballclub to be reckoned with when they hit the field. History needs to date back only to July 28, 1994, when the Rockies completed play that day only one-half game removed from the top spot in the N.L. West. Unfortunately, that was also the day the club lost first baseman Andres Galarraga to a broken hand, and was not able to recover in the 13 games remaining in the season that ended so abruptly.

The injury to Galarraga had a twist of irony, because he was the first "name" player to agree to become a member of the Colorado Rockies, signing a pact the day before the 1992 expansion draft. Gebhard took a chance on the veteran first baseman, but his knowledge and risk paid off, and gave the Rockies instant credibility, as Galarraga became the first expansion player in history to win a batting title with his lofty .370 mark in 1993.

Taking a chance and making it pay off has been a trait in Gebhard's handling of this young franchise. It began three weeks before the signing of Galarraga, when he ended an extensive and exhaustive search and named Don Baylor the first manager in club history. In naming Baylor the skipper, Gebhard gave the role to someone who epitomized leadership in the clubhouse as a player, though at the time of his hiring had never managed before.

Gebhard also took chances with other talent, selecting Kevin Reimer in the expansion draft, only to trade him at the end of the day to Milwaukee for an outfielder named Dante Bichette. Geb also signed free agent pitcher Bruce Ruffin to a minor league contract, who last year emerged as the bullpen closer. All were rolls of the dice that paid immediate dividends for the Rockies.

Long before the expansion draft, Gebhard had to assemble a baseball staff whose expertise would cover every phase of the game. He then spent the entire 1992 baseball season fulfilling every fan's dream, paying a visit to every major league venue to scout all 26 established clubs in preparation for the expansion draft. The work seemed endless, but there was no quit in Gebhard as he persevered to attempt to put together the best possible team for the fans of Colorado.

Not quitting personified his playing days, as Gebhard parlayed average stuff for a pitcher into an 11-year career, that included three different stints in the big leagues. His leadership abilities were obvious to those in the Montreal organization, who named him a player/coach in their chain for 1974-75, then promoted him to Minor League Field Director and pitching coach for the next six years. He spent the 1982 season on the big league coaching staff, then served as Director of Minor League clubs through 1986 before joining the Minnesota Twins' front office, the same organization that had originally made Gebhard a 15th round draft choice in the first-ever June draft in 1965.

It was with the Twins that he experienced the ultimate in success, winning the World Series title in both the 1987 and 1991 seasons. Gebhard started with the Twins in '87 as the Director of Major League Personnel, then assumed the role of Vice President, Player Personnel the following year.

A native of Lamberton, MN, he earned 16 letters while playing four sports in high school, then took his athletic career on the road to the University of Iowa, where he co-captained the baseball team and also played basketball.

Gebhard and wife, Nancy, have three children, daughters, Angie and Jenny, and son, Casey, and reside in Littleton, CO.

Dick Balderson

Vice President/Player Personnel

The 1995 season is the 20th in major league baseball for Dick Balderson, who joined the Rockies in August, 1992, and last winter gained more responsibility, with his promotion to Vice President/Player Personnel. He initially joined the Rockies to serve as the farm director, organizing and staffing the various minor league outlets, while also procuring players for the system via minor league fee agency. In addition to those duties, he will now put some of his experience to work, by taking on a variety of major league responsibilities.

It will not be new territory for Balderson when working on the major league side of the fence, serving the Seattle Mariners as Vice President of Baseball Operations from October, 1985-1988. That was just one of the many hats he has donned in a prestigious career, working for four seasons in the Chicago Cubs' organization, starting in 1988 as their Director of Scouting, then two years later was named Vice President of Scouting and Player Development.

The 49-year old former minor league pitcher began his front office career as Assistant Farm Director of the Kansas City Royals in 1976. Four years later, he was promoted to Director of Minor League Operations, then to Director of Scouting and Player Development in 1981. After 10 seasons with the Royals, he headed to Seattle to begin his stint as V.P. of Baseball Operations.

Prior to his minor league pitching stint with the Kansas City organization, Balderson played collegiately for the Richmond Spiders. Last winter he was inducted to the Spiders Hall-of-Fame for his pitching prowess.

He and wife, Marcia, have two children, son, Brett (14), and daughter, Melissa (9).

Tony Siegle

Assistant General Manager

Tony Siegle was the most recent appointment by Bob Gebhard in the baseball department, taking over as Assistant General Manager on October 31, 1994. It was a hire that Gebhard has had experience in, marking his third at that position in as many years. The original Assistant G.M., Randy Smith, became General Manager of the San Diego Padres, then Walt Jocketty made the same move last year to the St. Louis Cardinals.

Siegle, 54, spent the last four seasons with San Francisco, most recently serving them as the Vice President, Baseball Administration and Operations. In his 30th season in a variety of roles in baseball, Tony's career began in scoreboard operations with the Houston Astros in 1965, then following a stint as an officer in the United States Navy, he joined the Phillies in 1969 as Director of Stadium Operations. He followed that a year later by joining Milwaukee in the minor league and scouting departments, the was named Farm Director for the Brewers for 1975-79.

He returned to Houston as Assistant to the General Manager from 1979-82, then rejoined the Phillies in '82 as Executive Assistant in Baseball Operations, and was promoted to Vice President of Baseball Administration in 1983. Siegle spent the majority of the 1989 season as Vice President of Player Personnel for San Diego, then was a special assignment scout for the Angels before going to work for the Giants.

Tony is a graduate of the University of Miami (FL). He and wife, Cynthia, have four children and are relocating to the Denver area this season.

Pat Daugherty

Director of Scouting

One of Bob Gebhard's original hires in the Baseball Department in 1992, Pat Daugherty's year is one of hotels and air travel, scouring both North and South America for potential members of the Rockies' organization. His first chore after climbing aboard in '92 was to assemble and organize a scouting staff to cover the U.S. and Latin America. While keeping and expanding the original staff, his role also includes the evaluation of amateur talent for the June and Rule V drafts.

In three June drafts, Daugherty and his staff have signed 100 of the 166 players selected. The Rockies inked 11 of the first 13 choices, and 24 of the top 30 picks. In 1992, the initial June draft in club history, Colorado was the only organization to sign its first 25 choices and put 40 of 50 under contract.

Daugherty joined the Rockies after six seasons as the Scouting Supervisor for the Montreal Expos. In 1990, he also served as manager of the Jamestown club in the New York-Penn League. It was not unusual for him to work two jobs at a time, because while coaching at Indian Hills Community College in Centerville, IA, for 17 years, he spent the last 10 of those seasons also working as a manager or coach in the Expos' chain. His professional baseball career began in 1972 as manager at Cocoa Beach in the Gulf Coast League. He remained on the field for both the Expos and Indian Hills C.C. until '81, when he was named Field Director of Player Development for Montreal.

His collegiate coaching career at Indian Hills began in 1965 after eight seasons as a high school coach in Iowa. He has a distinguished list of amateur baseball honors, including his induction into the Simpson College Hall of Fame, Iowa Coaches Hall of Fame and the National Junior College Hall of Fame.

Daugherty has a B.A. from Simpson College and earned his M.A. at Drake University. He and wife, JoAnn, have four children, daughters, Mary Beth, Ann and Peggy, and son, Mike.

Paul Ekins

Assistant Director of Player Personnel

Another original member of the Rockies' front office, Paul has already worn a variety of hats on the baseball side, but for the second straight year, he will be second in command in the Player Personnel phase of the operation. The 31-year old Georgia native is involved in the procurement of minor league players, administering a full compliment of minor league affiliates, which includes a club in the Dominican Summer League, and keeping all members of the baseball operations department informed on the progress of every affiliate on a daily basis.

Paul joined the Rockies in 1992 after a stint with the Atlanta Braves, most recently serving as the Assistant Director of Player Development. While with the Braves, he was involved with consecutive National League Championship clubs (1991-92), while assisting the man simply known as "The Hammer." Ekins first joined Atlanta's front office as the Assistant to the Director of Player Development and Scouting, working directly under home run king Hank Aaron.

Prior to joining the Braves staff in Atlanta, Ekins spent two seasons as the team trainer for the Burlington Braves in the Midwest League. It was not his first experience as a trainer, also working in that role at the University of Georgia and Florida A&M University.

Ekins received a B.S. from the University of Georgia in 1986, majoring in Biology. His graduate work at Florida A&M was in Sports Administration. He is single and resides in Denver.

Jay Darnell

Assistant Director of Scouting

In his second full season in the Scouting Department, Jay's responsibilities expand daily while working closely with Pat Daugherty, organizing the June Free Agent Draft, assisting in the supervision of all scouting personnel, and scouting free agent prospects in the Rocky Mountain region.

Darnell, 29, moved into this position in October, 1993, but had been with organization long before the first game was ever played in club history, joining the club in '92 as the administrator of spring training operations for the original spring camp in Tucson. His responsibilities were of a supervisory capacity over the renovation of Hi Corbett Field and the surrounding practice fields, and the daily operation of the Tucson facility. Upon completion of the exhibition season, he returned to Denver with the team and worked as the video coordinator during the regular season. His responsibilities in his current role also include the supervision of the video work done on the major league level, in addition to video scouting.

This is his seventh season in pro baseball, starting with the '88 season as administrative assistant with the first-year Colorado Springs Sky Sox. From there he joined the Montreal organization, serving as the Assistant General Manager of their West Palm Beach club in the Florida State League. He was also the coordinator of the Winter Instructional League in West Palm that included clubs from the Expos, Braves, Twins and Mets.

A 1983 graduate of Fairview High School in Boulder, he then played junior college baseball at Johnson County Community College in Overland Park, KS. He then returned to his native Boulder and completed his college education with a B.S. in Marketing from the University of Colorado in 1988. He and his wife, Jill, make their home in Littleton.

Peter Durso

Director of Team Travel

Now in his third decade in major league baseball, the 20-year veteran is in his 16th campaign of assembling the travel plans for a ballclub. It's not as simple as just taking care of the travel, his responsibilities vary from the securing of all airline commitments, arranging the ground transportation in each league city, insuring that hotel rooms are ready upon arrival, with keys waiting, and the dispensing of meal money to each player and staff member. He is also responsible for the players and staff ticket allotments both at home and on the road.

He also has the task of organizing travel plans and housing needs for players and staff during the six-week stay in Tucson for spring training.

The 44-year old baseball veteran started with the Montreal Expos in 1976, then changed provinces for three years to work for the Toronto Blue Jays, before returning to the Expos in 1980. He joined the Chicago Cubs as their Director of Travel in 1986, remaining there until making the move to Colorado after the 1992 season.

Raised in a sports environment, Peter's father, Joe Durso, is a longtime writer for the New York Times. Peter and his wife, Barbara, reside in Lakewood.

Mike Swanson

Director of Public Relations

Mike Swanson enters his 21st season in professional sports, joining the Rockies as Public Relations Director during the start-up period in March, 1992. Prior to moving to Colorado, Swanson was the researcher for ESPN's Major League Baseball coverage in 1991, working on the Sunday Night Baseball crew, and assisting on weekday telecasts. From 1984-90, he was on the Media Relations staff of the San Diego Padres, serving as the Director in '90. His baseball front office career began at age 19, when he worked for the Kansas City Royals from 1973-78.

A "number cruncher" in his early years, Swanson has had the good fortune to work virtually every major sporting event in the nation as a television statistician. He spent four seasons with the NFL team of Pat Summerall and John Madden, in addition to working NCAA and NBA basketball. His statistical career started in 1977, when he was offered a position as the booth statistician for Keith Jackson on ABC's College Football telecasts. He served ABC for five years, including several stints with the Monday Night Football crew, before heading to CBS, when they secured the NCAA Basketball package in 1981. All totaled, Swanson had the best seat in the house at six Final Fours, four Super Bowls, four NFC Championship Games, six Cotton Bowls and three NBA Championships. He has also done basketball and football work for Turner Sports.

Despite the experiences in the TV booth, baseball has been a first love for Swanson since his days at Municipal Stadium in the early '60's, when his mother worked for the old Kansas City A's. The 40-year old bachelor attended Longview Community College and the University of Kansas.

Business Officers

Hal Roth

Senior Vice President - Chief Financial Officer

Hal, who joined the Rockies in August, 1993, serves as the Chief Financial Officer and is responsible for overseeing the financial reporting, accounting, tax and treasury functions of the Rockies Baseball Club. He's kept quite busy, also working for Jerry McMorris as the Senior Vice President-Finance & Treasurer for NationsWay Transport Service, Inc.

Prior to joining the Rockies and NationsWay, Hal was a partner with the public accounting firm of Coopers & Lybrand, where he specialized in taxation. Roth holds a B.A. degree from Albion College, an M.B.A. and J.D. from the University of Denver, and LL.M (in Taxation) from New York University. He is also a C.P.A.

Hal and his wife, Connie, and sons, Reilly and Rory, reside in Englewood.

Clark Weaver

Senior Vice President - Corporate Counsel

Clark joined the Rockies in October, 1992, after working for the Hamilton Oil Corporation, when he then handled all of the legal affairs for a publicly-held energy company with its principal assets located in the United Kingdom sector of the North Sea.

A former quarterback at Stanford University, Weaver's responsibilities with the Rockies includes supervision of community relations, club involvement in its many charitable endeavors and publications, in addition to providing ownership with his legal expertise.

A 1969 graduate of the Colorado School of Law, and '64 graduate from Stanford in Political Science. Clark and his wife, Martha, have two daughters and reside in Denver.

David Glazier

Vice President - Sales and Marketing

David joined the Rockies in the sales and marketing department in August, 1991, and in a short time has watched his responsibilities grow to Vice President of Sales and Marketing. He oversees all aspects of sales and marketing functions of the Rockies, in addition to television advertising and corporate sponsorships. His responsibilities also encompass the broadcasting department, including the staffing of the television operation, and the Sony Jumbotron in Coors Field.

A former executive with WLWT-TV, the flagship station of the Cincinnati Reds, David has also worked in the American League office and for the Chicago White Sox.

He and wife, Julie, and daughters, Jennifer and Mallory, reside in Highlands Ranch.

Michael Kent

Vice President - Finance

Michael has been with the Rockies since January, 1992, moving to Colorado after serving as the Controller for the Philadelphia Phillies. He joined the Phils in 1982, after providing accounting services to small businesses for the firm of Deloitte Haskins and Sells.

With the Rockies, Kent is responsible for developing and implementing all controls for accounting, budgeting and operations. The 36-year old earned a B.S. degree in Accounting from Villanova (PA) University in Philadelphia.

Michael and his wife, Mary, and son, Jonathan, and daughter, Laura, reside in Highlands Ranch.

Keli McGregor

Vice President - Operations

Known in the Rocky Mountain region as a gridiron star, Keli joined the Rockies' front office in October, 1993, as Senior Director of Operations, but has quickly advanced to his current position. He returned to Colorado after a four-year stint as the Assistant Athletic Director at the University of Arkansas.

A 1984 graduate of Colorado State University in Fort Collins, McGregor was twice an All-American tight end for the Rams, then embarked on a NFL career that spanned three seasons with the Denver Broncos, Indianapolis Colts and Seattle Seahawks.

While at the University of Arkansas he assisted legendary Athletic Director and former football coach, Frank Broyles, who had Keli behind the development of the Bud Walton Arena in Fayetteville, which was the home of the NCAA Basketball Champions during its first-year of operation in 1993-94.

Those were responsibilities that will come in handy with the Rockies as they make the move into Coors Field, as McGregor will oversee the entire business end of the daily operation in the new ballpark.

Keli and his wife, Lori, and daughters, Jordan and Taylor, reside in Golden.

Sue Ann McClaren

Assistant Vice President - Ticket Operations

Sue Ann was named to her current position on January 17, 1995, thus becoming the first female officer in the brief history of the Rockies. She came to Colorado in October, 1992, after a 15-year career in varying roles with the St. Louis Cardinals.

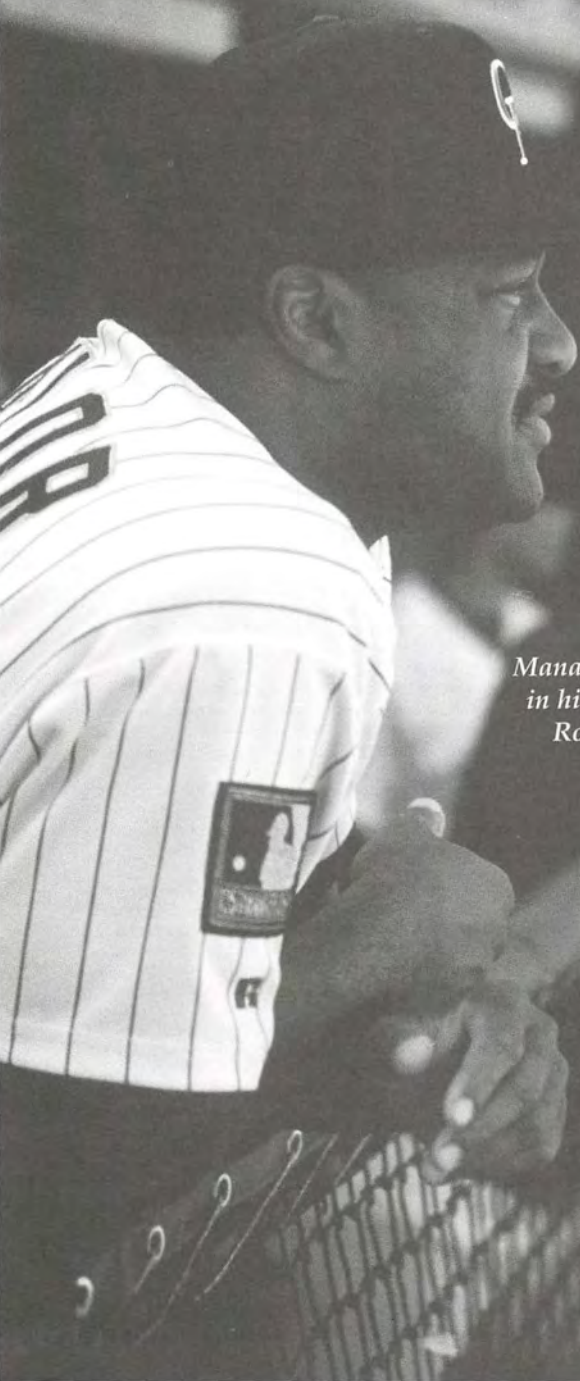

A 1977 graduate of William Woods College in Fulton, MO, McClaren joined the Redbirds immediately after college in the sales department. She gradually climbed the corporate ladder at Busch Stadium, holding roles from secretary to Director of Season Ticket Sales to the Director of Sales.

Her experience includes handling virtually every ticket need, as the Cardinals won three National League pennants, thus participating in the World Series in 1982, 1985 and 1987. She was also on board during the Redbirds' 100th anniversary.

Since joining the Rockies, her responsibilities encompass all phases of the ticket operations, including the original seat placement program in Mile High Stadium and the seat relocation process in Coor Field.

MANAGERIAL CAREER — 1994 SEASON: Don's second season at the helm saw his troops hang around the N.L. West race through the first 4 months of the campaign...the Rockies were just 1/2-game removed from the top spot after a bittersweet win in Candlestick Park on July 28...the club posted a 5-1 win over the Giants, but in the course of the victory, lost first baseman Andres Galarraga to a broken hand...in the final 13 games prior to the strike, the Rox finished with a 3-10 ledger...all totaled, the Rockies posted a 53-64 record and wound up 6 1/2 games behind the Dodgers when play was halted...during the '94 season, the Rockies became the fastest expansion team to reach the 100-win plateau in baseball history, hitting the century mark on June 22 with a 14-5 victory at home over Houston...it was the 233rd game in club history, 1/2 dozen games quicker than the Los Angeles Angels reached 100 wins...Baylor's '94 club achieved some remaining "firsts" that hadn't been accomplished during the first season of major league baseball in Colorado...included last year was the first and subsequent shutouts thrown by his pitching staff...the Rockies went 0-for-1993 in posting a shutout, but on April 14 in Philly, a trio of hurlers combined to blank the Phils for what was the first of 5 shutouts during the abbreviated season...in a two-day span in June, the Rockies brought an end to a pair of droughts that plagued them during the initial campaign...on June 12, the club posted its first-ever win in Cincinnati, taking a 3-2 decision in Riverfront Stadium, then the next night in Atlanta, the Rockies snapped their 16-game slide to the Braves, posting a 7-2 triumph to snap the year-plus dry spell...the skipper enters 1995 with an overall ledger of 120-159 for a .430 winning pct.

1993 SEASON: His first-ever test at the helm was purely that, a test of fortitude and patience, but in the end, his 1993 club would win more games than any previous National League expansion team and fall just 3 wins shy of the all-time record, winding up the year at 67-95...the club also won more home games (39) than 6 other major league clubs in 1993, a total that ranked 2nd on the all-time expansion list to the 1962 L.A. Angels, who won 46 home games...the eventual success was a laborious process that began in spring training, when 63 hopefuls attended the initial workout in Tucson...the true test of Baylor's patience showed in late-July, when the club was in the throes of a 13-game losing streak, but at the conclusion of that stretch, the Rockies would find themselves playing some of the best baseball in the majors...the streak was snapped on August 8 in San Diego, then the club reeled off 6 straight wins, including a record setting 4-game sweep of Los Angeles in Dodger Stadium...that sweep marked the first time in history that an expansion team took 4 in a row in an established club's park, while also giving the Rockies confidence in their abilities for the first time...after August 7, Baylor's bunch posted the 3rd best record in the league, going 31-21, trailing only Atlanta and Montreal in winning pct. in that span...in September, the Rockies won 17 games, the most in that month by any expansion team, and that total matched the most wins ever recorded in any month by a first-year expansion club...it wasn't easy in the early going for the rookie skipper, who would eventually use 136 different lineups through the course of the season, attempting to define a batting order and roles for his newly established club.

COACHING CAREER: Prior to being named manager of the Rockies on October 27, 1992, Baylor had served as a hitting coach for 3 years...his coaching career began in 1990, when he served for 2 seasons with the Milwaukee Brewers, then joined the St. Louis Cardinals for the 1992 season...he spent the 1989 season as a special assistant to the general manager for the Brewers, his first year after retiring as a player.

PLAYING CAREER: Baylor had a distinguished 19-year major league career, that concluded with 3 consecutive trips to the World Series from 1986-88...winning followed him throughout his career, as he played for 7 division champions with 5 different clubs...it all began in 1970, at the age of 21, when he appeared in 8 games for the Baltimore Orioles...by the summer of '72, he would be a mainstay in Earl Weaver's lineup through the 1975 season...prior to the start of the '76 season, Baylor was involved in one of the blockbuster trades of the '70s, going to the Oakland A's with Mike Torrez and Paul Mitchell in exchange for Reggie Jackson, Ken Holtzman and Bill Van Bommel...Baylor chose free agency after one season with the A's, but remained on the West coast, signing with the California Angels...if he wasn't already established, he would become one of the game's premier players while in Anaheim...his best overall campaign was 1979, when he earned the A.L. Most Valuable Player award, while the Angels won their first of 2 Western Division titles...he also garnered The Sporting News A.L. Player-of-the-Year award...he finished that season with a .296 average, 36 home runs, and a league leading 120 runs scored and 139 RBI...he remained with the Angels until signing as a free agent with the N.Y. Yankees prior to the '83 season...he remained in pinstripes until the spring of 1986, when he was dealt to the Boston Red Sox for designated hitter Mike Easler, and was the final piece of a successful puzzle that put the BoSox in the World Series that fall...they lost the Fall Classic in 7 games to the Mets, then on August 31, 1988, Baylor was traded for a player to be named to Minnesota, and he completed the climb to the pinnacle, winning the World Championship with the Twins...it was here that Bob Gebhard, who was an executive with the Twins at the time, had his first experience with Don Baylor and knew he would make an excellent big league manager someday...the Twins released Baylor in December, but 2 months later, he was signed by the Oakland Athletics, and to continue a trend, he went to the World Series with the A's, though they lost in 6 games to the Dodgers...during his playing career, Baylor accumulated 338 home runs, ranking 49th best on the all-time list, and 1,276 RBI, the 64th best total all time...he also has the distinction of being hit by more pitches in major league baseball history, taking it on the chin, shoulder, knee, ribs, etc., 267 times, shattering the A.L. record of 189, which was held by Minnie Minoso, and the N.L. mark of 243, originally held by Ron Hunt...Baylor had double figures in hit by pitches in 14 different seasons, including the A.L. single-season mark of 35 in 1986.

PERSONAL: Don Edward Baylor...he and wife, Becky, make their off-season home in LaQuinta, CA...he has a son, Don, Jr., who was a 1994 graduate of Georgetown University in a ceremony that Don, Sr., was able to attend on May 28...a native of Austin, TX, Baylor was a standout high school baseball and football player at Stephen F. Austin H.S., but then-University of Texas football coach, Darrell Royal, made Baylor's athletic choice for him...the veteran coach would not let the young athlete play both sports at U.T., so Baylor decided to sign a professional contract with the Baltimore Orioles in 1967, which turned into a prosperous move for the sport of baseball...he did attend Miami-Dade Junior College (FL), and Blinn Junior College (TX)...when not in uniform, Baylor is one of the more active community representatives of baseball...while playing for the Angels, he established the "65 Roses Club," a charitable organization to assist the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation...for the last 16 years, he has hosted an annual golf tournament in Southern California to raise money for the foundation, putting nearly a quarter of a million dollars in the coffers over the last 2 years and raising the all time total to well over $6 million...Baylor was the 1985 recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award, symbolic of the player who best exemplified the qualities of the late Pittsburgh outfielder, both on and off the field...he also does charitable work in the Denver area for the Ronald McDonald House, and has spent a portion of each off-season as a member of the Winter Caravan.

36 Larry Bearnarth

Pitching Coach

Ht: 6-2

Wt: 220

Age: 53 (Turns 54 on September 11)

Born: September 11, 1940 in New York, NY

Residence: Seminole, FL

COACHING CAREER: One of the originals of the coaching staff, "Bear" is in his third season as the leader of the pitching corps...his '94 staff gradually lowered its ERA from the inaugural season, posting a 5.15 mark in the 2nd season compared to 5.41 in the initial campaign...last year's mound group did get off the shutout schneid, posting 5 blankings during the course of the abbreviated season...his initial year on the field with the Rockies was a combination of frustration and gratification, as 36 pitchers reported to Tucson for the opening of spring training...from that group 11 were selected to represent the first staff in club history, but before the 1993 season concluded, a total of 25 hurlers would see game action, including 15 different starters, while a total of 18 pitchers posted at least one win...as the year progressed and previously undefined roles took shape, more victories and a lower ERA came with more frequency...for example, the bullpen entered the All-Star break with a 7.18 ERA, but the relievers recorded a 4.36 mark over the second half of the year, including a 2.58 relief ERA during August...all totaled, the bullpen posted 30 wins, which tied Bear's old club, the Montreal Expos, for tops in the National League.

Prior to the Rockies inaugural year of game action, Larry spent the 1992 season scouting the majors as special assistant to Bob Gebhard, assisting in the preparation for the MLB Expansion Draft...when not scouting, Larry instructed the newest members of the Rockies' organization who were selected when the club participated in its first June free agent draft...he was named major league pitching coach on October 29, 1992, two days after Don Baylor was chosen as the first manager in club history...regarded as one of the top pitching instructors in the game, Bearnarth joined Colorado after a 20-year stint in the Montreal organization (1972-91), the last 7 seasons with the major league club...his most satisfying campaign with the Expos came in 1990, when his staff won the N.L. ERA title (3.37), ranking 2nd only to the A.L. Champion Oakland A's...while the then "Nasty Boys" in Cincinnati were gaining the national exposure, Bear's pitching staff quietly tied the Reds with 50 saves, led the N.L. in lowest opponents batting average (.245) and fewest wild pitches (27)...this all came after 3 of the 5 starters from '89 had left via free agency, as he worked with 22 different pitchers in 1990, including 9 rookies...his '88 staff established a Montreal club record with a 3.08 ERA...the 1987 corps won the Rolaids bullpen of the year honors with a 29-14 mark and 50 saves...his first opportunity to coach on the big league level was 1976, when at the age of 35 he was the Expos' pitching coach...excluding that season, he served as their minor league pitching instructor, 1972-75 and 1977...Bearnarth worked as a manager in the organization from 1978-81, then returned to minor league pitching coach duties (1982-84).

PLAYING CAREER: Bear had a 10-year professional pitching career before being hired by Montreal on December 1, 1971...he spent 9 seasons in the New York Mets' organization (1962-70) and his final year was with the Milwaukee Brewers (1971)...he totaled a 13-21 career record in 173 big league games.

PERSONAL: Lawrence Donald (Larry) Bearnarth...he and wife, Barbara, have four children, daughters Karin and Kristin, and sons Larry and Rik...Bearnarth is a 1958 graduate of St. Peter's H.S. in Staten Island, NY, and a '62 grad from St. John's University where he played college baseball, including a stint for the legendary basketball coach Lou Carnasecca, who also served as a junior varsity baseball coach...an English literature major, he once authored a story for the winter leagues for Sport Magazine.

Ron Hassey

Third Base Coach

Ht: 6-2

Wt: 205

Age: 42

Born: February 27, 1953 in Tucson, AZ

Residence: Tucson, AZ

COACHING CAREER: An original member of Don Baylor's coaching staff, Ron is working in his third different role in as many seasons...the '95 season is his first full-time stint at the 3rd base coach, though he did serve that role for a large portion of 1994 due to an injury to Don Zimmer... "Hass" opened the 1993 season stationed at 1st base, then at mid-year, moved into the dugout to assist manager Don Baylor...he continued the role of bench coach last year until he was summoned to 3rd base with the injury to Zimmer...Hassey's responsibilities also include working with the catchers, and compiling the hitting and defensive charts that are used during the course of games.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER: Joining the Rockies staff was his first coaching stint after a 14-year playing career that ended after the 1991 season...he spent the 1992 season working as an advance scout for the New York Yankees, one of the 6 different major league clubs that he played for during his career...he retired as a player following the 1991 season, closing out a major league career that began in 1978 with the Cleveland Indians...he is the only catcher in major league history to catch 2 perfect games...Hass was behind the plate on May 15, 1981, when Cleveland's Len Barker was perfect against the Toronto Blue Jays, then in his final active season, he called the pitches for Dennis Martinez when the then-Expo hurler retired all 27 Los Angeles batters he faced on July 28, 1991 in Dodger Stadium...during his playing career, Ron's longest stint with one club was from 1978-84 as a member of the Indians, originally signing with them in 1976...he also logged major league time with both the Chicago Cubs and White Sox, the Yankees, Oakland and the Expos...with Oakland, Hassey made consecutive visits to the World Series (1988-89), teaming with Don Baylor in 1988...Ron was 2-for-8 in the '88 series against the Dodgers, but due to unusual circumstances, did not get an AB vs. the Giants in '89...throughout that season, he was Bob Welch's designated catcher, with Welch going 16-7 when Hassey was calling signals...he was slated to be behind the plate for Game #3 of the Fall Classic, however, the Bay area earthquake cancelled that opportunity...he was involved in one of the bigger trades during the 1984 season, that sent Hassey, Rick Sutcliffe and George Frazier to the Cubs from Cleveland in exchange for Mel Hall, Joe Carter, Don Schulze and Darryl Banks, June 13...that trade helped propel the Cubs to their first Eastern Division title.

PERSONAL: Ronald William (Ron) Hassey...he and wife, Jennifer, have a son, Brad, and two daughters, Kimberly and Dana...they reside in his native Tucson, AZ, making for an easy spring training commute to Hi Corbett Field, where the Rockies train...Hassey was a 1972 graduate of Tucson High School, then remained in town to attend the University of Arizona, where he enjoyed a stellar collegiate career, while earning a degree in Public Administration...an All-American, he was a member of the 1976 squad that won the national championship...he also played on the 1974 and '75 USA teams and participated in the 1976 Pan American Games...his father, Bill, was an outfielder in the N.Y. Yankees' organization from 1949-52.

Base Coach

Ht: 6-1

Wt: 200

Age: 48 (Turns 49 on December 15)

Born: December 15, 1946 in Pittsburgh, PA

Residence: Houston, TX

MANAGERIAL/COACHING EXPERIENCE: Art joins the Rockies after spending his first year out of uniform in '94, working for the Los Angeles Dodgers as their major league advance scout...it marked his first season off the field since he broke in as a professional player in 1971 with Salem of the Carolina League...after completing his playing career in '85, Art immediately joined the Texas Rangers coaching staff, working in a variety of roles over a 4-year span, including both 1st and 3rd base coach and as the hitting instructor...he then moved downstate and joined the managerial ranks by taking over the reigns of the Houston Astros in 1989...Howe had a 5-year run as the skipper of the Astros, posting the 2nd highest win total in franchise history with 392 victories, 2nd only to Bill Virdon's 544 triumphs which were achieved in 8 seasons...Art had a pair of 3rd place finishes during his stint at the helm of the Astros...he was named as a coach on manager Lou Piniella's staff for the 1991 All-Star Game played in Toronto...his managerial work has not been limited to major league baseball, as Howe spent this past winter managing Azucareros del Este, an expansion team in the Dominican Republic that made it to the Caribbean World Series...he also managed for 4 winters in Puerto Rico, working while still an active player in 1979, 1980 and 1982 in Bayamon, and in 1985 in Ponce...he was named the league's Manager-of-the-Year for the '80 season.

PLAYING CAREER: The former infielder had a major league career that spanned better than 10 seasons with Pittsburgh, Houston and St. Louis...his major league debut came as a member of the Pirates in 1974, but his stint there last just 2 seasons before he was traded to the Astros in January, 1976, for infielder Tommy Helms...Howe made his mark with Houston, playing for 7 seasons under the Dome, with his best season the '81 campaign, hitting .296 in 103 games, including a National League Player-of-the-Month award for his .460 effort during May...he established a club record in 1981 with a 23-game hitting streak...Art was a member of Houston's first-ever division winner in 1980, collecting a homer, 2 singles and 4 RBI in the one-game playoff at Dodger Stadium as the Astros posted a 7-1 win to decide the title...he missed the entire '83 campaign due to surgery on his left ankle and right elbow, then wound up his playing career playing 93 games over the following 2 seasons with St. Louis.

PERSONAL: Arthur Henry (Art) Howe, Jr...he and wife, Betty, have three children, daughters, Stephanie and Gretchen, and son, Matthew...Art was a football and baseball star at Shaler (PA) High School, then traveled to the Rocky Mountains, attending the University of Wyoming in Laramie...while picking up his B.S. in Business Administration, Howe played for 4 years on the Cowboys' baseball team, and had a season as a quarterback for the football team until a back injury put a halt to his gridiron career...upon his graduation from Wyoming, Art was employed as a computer programmer for the Westinghouse Corporation when a friend convinced him to attend a Pirates' tryout camp...he wound up signing a free agent contract with the club in August, 1970, at the age of 23.

37 Rick Mathews

Bullpen Coach

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 210

Age: 47 (Turns 48 on October 9)

Born: October 9, 1947 in Centerville, IA

Residence: Centerville, IA

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE: Rick has returned to the Rockies bullpen coaching position after working as the organization's minor league coordinator of instruction during '94... a veteran of various roles during his baseball career, Mathews joined the Rockies' chain during the summer of '92 as the pitching coach at Mesa of the Arizona Rookie League...he was then slated to work in Bend the following season, but wound up coaching in the major league bullpen during a large portion of the inaugural season...his professional field duty has included managerial stints in the Kansas City organization, with stops in Charleston (1981), Ft. Myers (1982-83), Memphis (1984) and Eugene (1987)...between his Memphis and Eugene managing experiences, Mathews was the Assistant Director of Player Development for Kansas City, then following his stint in Eugene he assisted the Royals for 3 seasons as a traveling minor league instructor...his pro experience dates back to the early '70's, when he was a part-time scout for the Royals (1971-74) and Phillies (1974-77).

AMATEUR EXPERIENCE: After completing a collegiate pitching career at Drake University in 1969, Rick immediately went into coaching, working as the head man on the high school level for 7 years, beginning with a 5-year stint at Eddyville H.S., then moved on to Marshalltown for a couple of seasons...from there, he went to the junior college level, working for 5 seasons at Iowa Western JUCO, and in that span being honored a trio of times as the District Coach-of-the-Year...following the '80 season, Mathews went into professional work, but returned to JUCO coaching in 1987, working for 6 seasons at Indian Hills Community College in his hometown of Centerville, IA, the same institution that current Rockies' Scouting Director Pat Daugherty spent 17 years of his coaching life.

PERSONAL: Rick R. Mathews...he and wife, Mary Louise, have a son, Jonathan, and a daughter, Sarah, and make their home in Centerville, IA...Rick was a 1965 graduate of Centerville High School, then attended Indian Hills J.C., a school he would coach for 6 years later in his career...he followed that by attending and pitching for Drake University, earning a B.A. in 1969...he later earned a master's degree from Northeast Missouri State University...last summer, Mathews had the opportunity to manage his son on the field in Bend (OR), taking over the reigns temporarily for Rudy Jaramillo, who was on a medical leave...the Rockies had made Jonathan Mathews a draft choice last June and assigned him to their Northwest League club.

23 Don Zimmer

Bench Coach

Ht: 5-7

Wt: 195

Age: 64

Born: January 17, 1931 in Cincinnati, OH

Residence: Treasure Island, FL

MANAGERIAL/COACHING EXPERIENCE: In his 47th year of professional baseball, Don Zimmer returns to the bench to assist manager Don Baylor during the games, the same position he accepted when he joined the Rockies original coaching staff in 1993...he worked for half of the initial year on the bench, then at mid-season was moved to his old familiar spot at 3rd base...he was slated to coach the entire '94 season at 3rd, but an arm injury put him back in the bench role for nearly a month before returning to 3rd...his pro career has included 35 in the major league season, 13 of which have come as a manager...one of Baylor's wishes when he was named manager of the Rockies, was to have a veteran baseball man assisting him, and he found that person with the hiring of Zim... prior to joining the Rockies, Zimmer served as a coach for the Boston Red Sox in 1992, the same club he managed from 1977-79...while at the helm in Boston during the late-70's, his clubs posted 3 straight 90+ win seasons...he followed that by managing at both Texas (1981-82) and the Chicago Cubs (1988-91), with coaching stops in between with the Yankees (1983 and 1986), the Cubs (1984-86) and San Francisco (1987)...he was the third base coach in the N.L.C.S. for both Chicago in '84 and the Giants in '87, and was there for the BoSox in the '75 World Series...he held coaching jobs at Montreal (1971) and San Diego (1972), and also managed the Padres for 2 seasons...his '89 Cubs team earned him N.L. Manager-of-the-Year honors by the BBWAA (23 of 24 first place votes).

PLAYING CAREER: An infielder by trade during his playing days, Zim's career began in the Dodger system in 1949...in 1953, he was leading the American Association in homers (23) and RBI (63) at St. Paul when he was hit in the head by a pitch thrown Jim Kirk of Columbus on July 7, forcing Zimmer to miss the remainder of the season...his big league career started in 1954, and was a 12-year stint that included stops with the Dodgers, Cubs, Mets, Reds and Washington Senators... Zimmer was the Dodgers starting second baseman in the deciding game of the 1955 World Series, won by Johnny Podres, 2-0 over the Yankees...he missed the second half of the '56 season, when he was again hit by a pitch, this time fracturing his cheekbone...he added new meaning to the term "utility player," playing second, third, shortstop, the outfield and even catching 35 games during his career...last year was not his first taste of expansion baseball, as Zimmer was drafted by the Mets in 1961 and was their opening day third baseman in 1962...his playing career ended in Japan in 1966 with the Toei Flyers...in 1960, his first game with the Cubs, Zimmer homered off Don Drysdale before 67,500 fans in the L.A. Coliseum...his first major league at bat in 1954 was a triple off Philly's Curt Simmons, and his first American League at bat in 1963 was a 2-run homer for the Senators...all totaled, he played in 1,095 major league games, hitting .235 with 91 homers.

PERSONAL: Donald William (Don) Zimmer...he and wife, Soot, have two children, son, Thomas, and daughter, Donna...Don and Soot were married at home plate in Elmira, NY, on August 16, 1951...he and former Kansas City and Chicago Cub manager Jim Frey, attended Western Hills High School together in Cincinnati, playing on the same baseball and basketball squads...Zim managed the MLB All-Star team that traveled Japan after the 1990 season...known for his aggressive style as a base coach, Zimmer demonstrated those traits as a player, when in 1950 he swiped home plate 10 times while playing for Hornell of the Pennsylvania-Ohio-New York League.

Behind The Seams

Dave Cilladi

Head Athletic Trainer

Dave is in his third year as the Rockies head man in the training room, and with assistant Tom Probst, they have been exceptional at getting the "walking wounded" back on the playing field during the first two seasons in Colorado. The move into Coors Field will only enhance his training regimen, with the addition of an underwater rehab pool to go with a variety of whirlpools and a spa. Cilladi's knowledge of underwater rehabilitation expedited

Andres Galarraga's return to the lineup on a couple of occasions in 1993, as he won the N.L. batting title despite a hamstring tear and knee ligament damage.

Dave joined the Rockies from the Chicago Cubs, where he had worked on the major league level since 1986. He began in their chain in 1985 at Peoria, the Class A affiliate. He was a 1984 graduate of Penn State University, serving as trainer for the Nittany Lions' football, basketball and gymnastics teams.

Twice his work has taken him overseas, traveling to Holland and the Czech Republic with Major League Baseball International to assist with a series of clinics involving current major league managers and coaches prior to the '94 season, 10 years after touring Europe as athletic trainer for the Athletes in Action basketball team.

Cilladi is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, the Illinois Athletic Trainers Association and the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Association. He is single and resides in Lakewood.

Tom Probst

Assistant Athletic Trainer

T.P. was one of the original training hires in the organization, spending the 1992 campaign working with the initial June mini-camp, then heading to Bend (OR) as the trainer of the first organized team in franchise history. The spring of '94 will be an exciting one for Probst, as several members of that original draft are on the 40-man roster for the first time. Since that Rockies' debut in the Northwest League, Tom has been the assistant in the major league training room since the club's inception.

The '92 season marked a return to professional baseball training for T.P., who originally spent five seasons in the Montreal organization beginning in 1981. He followed that with three years as Chief Physical Therapist of the Sports Medicine department at Bethesda Memorial Hospital in Boynton Beach, FL.

A native of Minnesota, he attended Brainerd High School, then earned a degree in Physical Education from Mankato State University in 1981. In '88, he received a B.S. in Physical Therapy from Florida International University in Miami.

Tom and wife, Gina, had their first child just prior to spring training with the arrival of son, Daniel Warren in January. The family resides in Littleton.

Dan McGinn

Equipment Manager

Just when you think that it might become routine in the equipment business, a year like 1995 comes along, when Dan not only has to prepare for the major league season, but the early arrival in spring training of all minor leaguers. It was a similar scenario to the first season in '93, when the Rockies suited up 63 hopefuls to make the first squad in club history. "Chico" spent nine seasons in with Minnesota as assistant equipment manager.

His responsibilities include ordering every piece of equipment, contacting all players regarding individual needs in shoes, bats and uniform sizes. McGinn is also in charge of making sure all equipment and luggage is packed and transported properly to spring training, as well as to every N.L. city during the regular season. He also assembles an equipment room staff that includes an assistant and the bat boys who work every home game, in addition to providing clean uniforms every time the club takes the field, and making sure the players are properly fed after each contest.

His life will continue to be busy, but more convenient with the move to Coors Field, with all equipment within easy reach in the many storage areas provided in the new structure, compared to two seasons at Mile High Stadium, where space was very limited.

A 28-year old Minnesota native, Dan was a 2-year basketball letterman at Minnetonka High School. He and wife, Jane, reside in Englewood, CO.

Mark Wilbert

Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

Mark joined the Rockies on a full-time basis on November 1, 1994, after assisting the training staff on an at home only basis prior to his promotion. His duties are expanded for the '95 season with spring training and road duty added.

The 32-year old Wilbert will have the luxury of one of the most modern weight and training facilities in major league baseball with the club move to Coors Field.

Mark spent seven years with the Air Force as a strength and conditioning program director, primarily serving the Lowry and Buckley AFB populations. He graduated from the University of Kentucky in 1985 with a B.S. in Biology, then earned an M.S. in Exercise Physiology from Chapman University in 1992. Mark and wife, Marta, make their home in Aurora.

Dr. Wayne Gersoff

Orthopedic Surgeon

Dr. Wayne Gersoff has been with the Rockies since the beginning as one of the two specific physicians to tend to the ballclub, his role including that of orthopedic surgery. No stranger to athletic medicine, he and Dr. Andy Motz operate the Colorado Orthopedic and Sports Clinic at Rose Medical Center.

An avid sports fan, when not assisting the Rockies, Dr. Gersoff hooked up over the winter with the Grizzlies hockey team, Denver's entry into the International Hockey League. It's not his first work with pucks, also working with the U.S. Olympic Ice Hockey and Ski Jumping teams, as well as being the medical director for the Colorado Winter Games.

Dr. Gersoff is a graduate of State University of New York and Yale's New Haven Hospital. He and wife, Mimi, celebrated the birth of their first child last year, daughter, Anya, on March 15.

Dr. Allen Schreiber

Internist

Dr. Schreiber is also an original member of the Rockies' medical team, splitting time with Dr. Gersoff between spring training and all home games. He has a wealth of internal medicine knowledge, currently the Assistant Clinical Professor of the Department of Medicine, Division of Gastroenterology at the University of Colorado Medical School.

When not assisting the Rockies, Dr. Schreiber can be found at "Big Mac" tending to the Denver Nuggets' medical needs as their team physician, and this past winter, joined Dr. Gersoff working with the Denver Grizzlies hockey club.

He graduated Cum Laude in 1973 from Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, MD, then graduated from New York Medical College in 1976, earning the Sam Spiegel Award as Valedictorian, and the David Spiro Award for excellence in Pathology.

Dr. Schreiber and wife, Lisa, have a son, David, and daughters, Jillian and Arielle.

Todd Maulding

Bullpen Catcher

To fans who have followed the National League, the name of Todd Maulding might actually ring a bell, though he has never taken a swing or caught a pitch in a major league game. Hired over the winter as the Rockies bullpen catcher, replacing Mike Shepard, Maulding continues the role he performed for the Los Angeles Dodgers from 1983 through last year.

A 1983 graduate of Lakewood (CA) High School, he was hired immediately as a 17-year old by the Dodgers, and has been in the bullpen with some of the best hurlers in baseball over the years. He was fortunate enough to be in the pen with a trio of N.L. West division winning clubs, including the World Champion Dodgers of 1988.

The 30-year old Maulding has purchased a house in Parker, where he and fiancé, Misty, plan on residing after their marriage this November.

49 Juan Acevedo

Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 195 B/T: R/R
Age: 24 (Turns 25 on May 5)
Born: May 5, 1970 in Juarez, MX
Residence: Carpentersville, IL
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a 14th round selection in the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: Juan made a giant step in establishing himself in the organization, serving as the ace of the staff at New Haven (AA)...he led the Eastern League in wins and ERA, posting a 17-6 ledger with a 2.37 ERA...both totals were the best among all AAA and AA hurlers for 1994...his 161 strikeouts were 3rd best in the league, while tied for the top spot among starters by holding the opposition to a .219 overall average...for his efforts, Juan was named the Eastern League Pitcher-of-the-Year and Rookie-of-the-Year, and was voted the top righthanded pitcher in AA in the Topps/National Association Awards...the year didn't begin as if he was going to set the league on fire, posting a 1-3 mark through his first 6 starts...he then put together a 9-game winning streak (10 starts) that ran from May 15 through July 2...he was particularly dominant during a 3-start stretch from June 11-22, where he did not allow a run in 25.0 innings, with just 11 hits and 5 walks, while fanning 31 in that span...overall in the 9-game win skein, Acevedo had a 1.98 ERA, giving up 16 ER in 72.2 frames, with just 15 walks and 67 K's...with a little offensive help, he easily could have put together a 17-game winning streak, with both losses coming in games where he surrendered just one run...in fact, in a 3-game stretch (July 7-19), he gave up only 2 earned runs in 23.0 innings for a 0.78 ERA while losing 2 of the 3 games...Juan was involved in the decision in 23 of his 26 starts, including his last 16 trips to the hill, going 13-3 with 5 complete games.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—Juan's 2nd season as a pro, he spent the entire year at Central Valley, posting a 9-8 record with a 4.40 ERA...he was not used exclusively as a starter, making 7 relief appearances for the Class A Rockies...he fanned 107 men in 118.2 innings for an excellent 8.1 strikeout per 9-inning ratio. 1992—After signing as part of the first draft class in club history, Acevedo had a short-lived stay with the Bend (OR) club in the Northwest League...he appeared in just one game in relief, then was assigned to Visalia, which was the Twins' California League club, but the Rockies had an agreement to help supply talent...he was used exclusively as a starter, going 3-4 in 12 games, with a complete game and 5.43 ERA.

PERSONAL: Juan Carlos Acevedo...a native of Juarez, MX, he now resides in Carpentersville, IL...he was a 1988 graduate of Dundee-Crown High School in Carpentersville where he lettered in baseball...Juan then attended Parkland Community College, where after a season of JUCO baseball, he was drafted and signed by the Rockies.

Age: 23 (Turns 24 on December 8)
Born: December 8, 1971 in Mt. Vernon, NY
Residence: Mt. Vernon, NY
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a 10th round selection in the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: Drafted and signed as a starter, Garvin made the switch to the bullpen at mid-season in '94 and it proved beneficial...he started the year in Central Valley, his 2nd straight season with the California League club...he was 3-8 through 13 starts and in the throes of a 7-game losing streak, when he was moved to the bullpen, where his numbers improved greatly...after 5 uneventful relief appearances, Garvin went through a 14-game stretch in which he recorded 2 wins and 8 saves (June 29-July 27), posting a 1.13 ERA in that span, with just 2 earned runs in 16.0 innings...Alston was scored upon in just 4 of the 24 relief appearances he made for the Class A Rockies...the lanky righthander was promoted to AA for the conclusion of the season, making 4 relief appearances for New Haven...he held the opposition at bay in his first 3 trips to the hill, accounting for 3.0 innings, but was tagged for 6 earned runs in his final appearance at Albany to jump his final ERA to 12.46.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—Garvin's first taste of the California League resulted in a 5-9 ledger in 25 outings (24 starts) with Central Valley...he topped the staff in starts, while ranking 3rd in innings pitched (117.0). 1992—His first season as a pro, Alston was a member of the Rockies' charter club in Bend (OR), posting a 5-4 mark and 3.95 ERA in 14 games (12 starts) for the Northwest League Rockies...he had a 9.0 strikeout to 9-inning ratio, fanning exactly 73 men in as many innings of work.

PERSONAL: Garvin James Alston...he is single and resides in his native Mt. Vernon, NY...he was a 1989 graduate of Mt. Vernon High School, lettering in baseball...he then headed south, earning a Criminal Justice degree at Florida International University in Miami, FL...he had a tough "off-season" assignment, pitching for the Maui Stingrays in the Hawaiian Winter League, playing with several other minor league teammates while being managed by current Rockies' Minor League Coordinator Gene Glynn...Garvin's cousin, Dell Alston, logged some major league time in the late-70's with the Yankees, Oakland's and Cleveland Indians.

Age: 22 (Turns 23 on July 20)

Born: July 20, 1972 in Puerto Cabello, VZ

Residence: Puerto Cabello, VZ

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired with pitcher Rod Pedraza from the Montreal Expos in exchange for infielder Freddie Benavides, January 7, 1994.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: His first year in the Rockies' organization was spent in New Haven (AA), where he compiled an 8-9 ledger in 27 games (24 starts), posting a 3.48 ERA...a durable hurler, Ivan pitched into the 7th inning in 17 of his 24 starts, including a streak of 11 in a row (May 11-July 3)...on 9 occasions, he made it into the 8th frame...he had back-to-back outings in mid-June, blanking the opposition each time out, working 7.0 innings of 3-hit ball vs. Reading, followed by an 8.0 inning stint at Trenton, surrendering just 2 hits...his strikeout high of 6 occurred in a trio of outings...both of his complete games resulted in hard-luck defeats, each 7-inning affairs as part of a doubleheader...the opposition had just a .223 batting average vs. Ivan which ranked 6th lowest among all AA & AAA starters.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—The year began at Burlington of the Midwest League, where he did not get past the 4th inning in any of his first 3 starts, but then tossed a 7.0 inning complete game at South Bend on May 5, while fanning 9 for his first pro win...in his remaining starts, he fanned 7 or more hitters on 9 occasions, including a season-best 10 K's on June 15...he posted a 1.80 ERA during July, going 2-1 in 5 starts, allowing 7 ER in 35.0 IP...he finished the year with 4 starts at West Palm Beach, going 0-3 against Florida State League competition. 1992—Did not play in the U.S., but worked out with the Expos' Venezuelan Baseball Academy, because his eligibility in the Dominican League had expired...he did participate in the Florida Instructional League, where he was impressive enough to earn a spot on the Expos' 40-man roster...pitched at Magallanes of the Venezuelan Winter League, splitting time between starting and relief. 1991—1st year as a pitcher after originally signing as a 1st baseman, and led the Dominican League in ERA (1.91) and was tied for 1st in complete games (3). 1990—Final year as a position player, he matched his .241 average of the previous season, while leading the Dominican League in walks received (52). 1989—Signed with the Expos as a 1st baseman, hitting .241 in 25 games in the Dominican League.

PERSONAL: Ivan Jose Arteaga...he is single and makes his off-season home in his native Puerto Cabello, VZ...he was raised a fan of his current teammate and former Expo, Andres Galarraga...Arteaga was signed as a non-drafted free agent on May 11, 1989.

31 Roger Bailey

Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 180 B/T: R/R
Age: 24 (Turns 25 on October 3)
Born: October 3, 1970 in Chattahoochee, FL
Residence: Tallahassee, FL
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as the 3rd round selection of the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: Roger's first stint on the AA level was wins and losses in segments that ended up leveling his record at 9-9 in 25 games (24 starts)...the breakdown began with a 2-5 ledger through his first 9 starts, but he leveled that out with a 5-2 stretch over the next 9 trips to the hill...he slipped under the even mark with consecutive losses, but closed the year with a pair of wins to put the finishing touch on a .500 campaign...included in his 5-2 stretch was a 3-game winning streak in which he posted a 0.73 ERA, giving up just 2 earned runs over 24.2 innings, with 12 hits, 4 walks and 23 strikeouts...that included a 1-hit performance at home, a 5-0 win over Reading on July 13, walking only 1 and fanning 8...after losing the 2 straight to fall to 7-9, Roger rebounded by giving up just 4 earned runs in his final 30.0 frames of the year for a 1.20 ERA, going 2-0...Bailey's final win came in his lone relief performance as a professional, working an inning on September 4 in a win over Albany...his 159.0 innings ranked 2nd on the club to Juan Acevedo, while his 112 K's were 4th best...he fanned at least 8 hitters in a game on 4 occasions, including consecutive starts on July 6 & 13...Roger surrendered 8 home runs in his first 15 mound appearances, covering 90.1 IP for a homer allowed every 6.0 innings, but he was not taken deep in his last 10 appearances, a span of 68.2 innings.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—Was a non-roster invitee to the Rockies first major league camp in Tuscon but eventually landed in Central Valley, spending the entire season with the Class A club working exclusively as a starter...the season started late for Bailey, who was out until May 6 with a second degree sprain of his right elbow, an injury that had occurred in spring training...once he was able to work, he made 22 starts, going 4-7 with a 4.84 ERA. 1992—Another of the class of '92 draftees who's professional career kicked off in Bend (OR), as Roger posted a 5-2 mark in 11 starts...he lost his first 2 pro decisions, covering 4 starts, but ended the year on a 5-game winning streak that lowered his final ERA to 2.20, good for 4th best in the Northwest League...his season ended with 3 consecutive 8-inning performances, giving up just 12 hits and 2 earned runs for a 0.75 ERA, fanning 25 in that span.

PERSONAL: Charles Roger (Roger) Bailey...he and wife, Andrea, make their off-season home in his native Chattahoochee, FL...Roger was a 3-sport letterman at Chattahoochee High School, excelling in baseball, basketball and football...his senior season witnessed an 11-2 ledger and 1.09 ERA with 170 K's in 80.0 innings and earned him all-state honors and a scholarship to Florida State University...in 3 seasons for the Seminoles, Bailey was 35-8 with a 3.21 career ERA, including a freshman record of 9-1.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a 7th round selection in the 1992 June Free Agent Draft

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: Jason's 2nd full season of AAA action, he batted .286 in 125 games at Colorado Springs, a 19-point increase over his initial season in the PCL in '93...he earned a spot in the AAA All-Star Game that was played in Nashville, taking the spot of Trenidad Hubbard, who had been moved to the major league roster...Bates had a consistent year at the plate, only once going more than 2 consecutive games without collecting a hit...his best production of the year came just after his All-Star appearance, putting together a 13-game hitting streak (July 17-29) where he batted .510 (26-for-51), raising his season average from .270 to .305...the skein was halted with an 0-for-4 on July 30 vs. Vancouver, but the following day he picked up 3 hits to peak his season mark at .306...he had a pair of 4-hit games on the year, but his best production day took place on June 20 at home vs. Edmonton, going 4-for-5 with a double, 2 homers and 4 RBI...the switch-hitting Bates made the most of Sky Sox Stadium, hitting .326 at home compared to a road mark of .248...not surprising, the month of his 13-game hitting streak was his best overall month, batting .394 in July (37-for-94)...he had more opportunities and was more successful from the left side of the plate, hitting .295 (103-for-349), while posting a .257 mark (28-for-109) as a righthanded hitter...he was also strong when leading off an inning, batting .337 (31-for-92) to jumpstart a frame.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—It was a strange beginning to a solid year for the second year pro from the University of Arizona...not originally on the list of invitees to spring training, Bates seized an opportunity due to early injuries in spring training, and was asked to report to Tucson prior to the opening of minor league camp...he parlayed that invitation into a .304 exhibition average, with an on-base pct. of .467 in 10 games...his excellent spring prompted a AAA assignment in lieu of the original plan, which was a ticket to Central Valley...it was a rollercoaster ride at the plate, as he hit above the .300 mark in April, June and August, but in May and July, his average was closer to .200...he closed the year by batting .330 in August, with 14 RBI...all totaled, Bates hit .267 in 122 games, playing 112 of those at shortstop, and 7 contests at 2nd base...Bates led the PCL in being hit by pitches with 10, a stat that did not go unnoticed by big league manager Don Baylor, who holds the all-time major league mark with 267 plunkings. 1992—Signed from the Rockies original June draft group, Bates had a solid year at Bend, OR, hitting .286 in 70 games, while working as the everyday shortstop...he led all Northwest League shortstops in fielding and earned a spot on the All-Star squad.

PERSONAL: Jason Charles Bates...he was a 1989 graduate of Esperanza H.S. in Anaheim, CA, then played collegiately at the University of Arizona in Tucson, just a couple of miles from the spring training site of the Rockies...he spent last winter playing for Sun Cities in the Arizona Fall League, hitting .247 in 41 games, with 3 homers and 11 RBI, while playing predominately at 3rd base.

Outfielder

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 235 B/T: R/R
Age: 31 (Turns 32 on November 18)
Born: November 18, 1963 in West Palm Beach, FL
Residence: Palm Beach Gardens, FL
M.L. Service: 5 years, 92 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Milwaukee Brewers in exchange for Kevin Reimer, November 17, 1992.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: His 2nd straight solid season as a National Leaguer, establishing career bests in homers (27) and RBI (95)...he led the majors in games played (116) and at bats (484), while finishing tied for 2nd in the N.L. in hits (147), ranked 3rd in RBI, multi-hit games (44) and total bases (265), tied for 3rd in extra-base hits (62), finished 5th in doubles (33) and tied for 7th in homers, and led the Rockies with a career-high 21 stolen bases...his 4-game explosion out of the All-Star break earned him N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors, going 12-for-19 (.632) with 2 doubles, 2 homers, 12 RBI and a 1.053 slugging pct...oddly enough, the hot streak came after on the heels of his worst slump in a Rockies' uniform, going into the break in an 0-for-17 slide...he was Colorado's lone representative in the Midsummer Classic, and picked up a single in his only at bat in the game, "unofficially" breaking him out of the extended 0'fer...he surrounded the 0-for-17 with 4-hit games, July 6 at Chicago, then going 4-for-4 in St. Louis in the first game after the break...it was at home vs. the Cardinals on July 17 that he established a career-high and club record with 6 RBI, including a grand slam off Rick Sutcliffe, his 2nd slam of the season (3rd career)...his first bases juiced homer of '94 occurred on June 27 at home off the Padres' Pedro Martinez...Bichette was named the Rockie-of-the-Month for June, compiling a .359 mark with 10 doubles, 7 homers and 26 RBI...that month concluded with a 10-game hitting streak in which he posted a .457 average (21-for-46) with 4 doubles, 4 homers and 13 RBI...he established a career-high with a 16-game streak that began after an Opening Day 0'fer...he hit .412 (28-for-68) with 8 doubles, 7 homers and 18 RBI in what tied for 5th best streak in the league during the campaign...included in that stretch was a 2-run homer in Philly off Roger Mason that spoiled the defending N.L. champs home opener at The Vet...defensively, Dante tied for 3rd in the N.L. with 10 outfield assists, the 4th time he has totaled double-digits in his career.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—His first N.L. season, Dante established career bests in batting (.310), runs (93), hits (167), doubles (43), triples (5), homers (21) and RBI (89)...a fractured hand on Sept. 15 (hit by Houston's Doug Jones) kept him out of the lineup for the final 21 games of the year, but he still finished 3rd in the league in doubles, 4th in extra-base hits (69) and 6th in slugging pct. (.526)...the injury did not prevent Bichette from establishing an expansion record for runs in a season, pinch running and scoring in the final home game finishing with 93 runs...he was voted Rockie-of-the-Month for July, hitting .324 (33-for-102) with 7 homers, 28 runs scored and 21 RBI in 26 games...he wrapped up July with 5 HR's and 11 RBI in the last 11 games, adding 6 doubles for an .872 slugging pct. (41 total bases in 47 at bats)...he posted back-to-back 4-hit games on June 12 & 13 in Mile High vs. Houston, including 7 consecutive hits...his longest hitting streak was a 10-gamer

(July 28-August 6), hitting .432 (16-for-37)...he had a game-winning homer at Philly off Roger Mason in the 13th inning on August 23...with one swing of the bat Bichette achieved a trio of "firsts" for the Rockies, driving in and scoring the first run, while hitting the first homer in club history, a 7th inning solo shot off the Mets' Bret Saberhagen on April 7 in Shea...just 2 days earlier in the first game in club history, he was the first Rockies to get hit with a pitch, when he was nailed by Doc Gooden in the 3rd inning...defensively, he finished 3rd in the N.L. with 14 outfield assists. 1992—Completed his 2nd season with the Brewers setting then-career highs in average, hits and doubles, all of which were re-established in 1993 with the Rockies...was hitting as high as .326 on August 2 before a late-season tailspin dropped his average...hit over .300 in each of the first 4 months of the season, his best being June, batting at a .338 clip (26-for-77) with 10 doubles and 19 RBI...hit just 5 home runs compared to 15 in 1990 and 1991...had 4 hits in a game on 3 occasions, tying his previous career high...tied a Milwaukee club record, scoring 4 runs in a game on June 28 at Baltimore...hit .346 with 2 outs and a runner on 3rd. 1991—Was with the Angels in spring training, but was traded to Milwaukee on March 14 for designated hitter Dave Parker...was the Brewers Opening Day right-fielder in Texas...hit 15 home runs for the 2nd consecutive season...was named the A.L. Player-of-the-Week for the final week of the regular season...he finished the year with a career-best 12-game hitting streak...had a career-high 5 RBI on June 6 vs. Oakland, the same day of his only career grand slam...went 5-for-10 (.500) with 11 RBI when batting with the bases loaded...defensively, led the Brewers with 14 outfield assists. 1990—Played in 109 games for the Angels, setting a then-personal best in home runs (15)...despite part-time play, ranked 5th in the A.L. in outfield assists with 12...had a 2-homer game on July 14 at Toronto...established career-best with 4 hits on Sept. 6 at NY. 1989—Hit .388 in spring training with 4 homers and 17 RBI to earn spot in the Opening Day lineup...received the Angels' Fred Haney Memorial Award for outstanding rookie in spring training...hit first big league homer on April 9 off Seattle's Steve Trout...optioned to Edmonton (AAA) on June 19 after 39 games...totaled 48 major league games, but still ranked 2nd on club to Devon White in outfield assists with 6. 1988—Opened the season at Edmonton and established defensive trademark with PCL leading 22 outfield assists...hit .267 in 132 games at Edmonton, then was recalled to the Angels on Sept. 5...first major league hit came Sept. 7 off Kansas City's Floyd Bannister. 1987—Spent entire season at Edmonton, hitting .300, but missed 2 months with fractured finger on right hand. 1986—Split the season between Palm Springs (A) and Midland (AA)...was named to the mid-season California League All-Star team, then was promoted to Midland on June 23...named co-winner, with pitcher Willie Fraser, of the Kenny Myers Award, given annually to the best minor league player in the Angels' chain.

PERSONAL: Alphonse Dante Bichette...he and wife, Marianna, have a son, Dante, Jr., and reside in Palm Beach Gardens, FL, and was an '82 grad of Jupiter (FL) H.S...played baseball at Palm Beach Junior College, leading his club to the state tournament...a 17th round pick in the 1984 June draft, he began his pro career as a third baseman...he and Marianna have donated thousands of tickets to area youth groups over their two seasons here, including the Denver Fire Department...in addition, the couple worked with the Denver "Just Say No" organization, a charity that focuses on keeping youths off drugs.

John Burke

Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-4

Wt: 215

B/T: S/R

Age: 25

Born: February 9, 1970 in Durango, CO

Residence: Highlands Ranch, CO

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a first round selection of the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: It would overstate a fact to say that John wants to put the '94 season behind him and go forward...coming off a season where he was selected by Baseball America as the top prospect in the California League in '93, disaster hit in spring training '94 when Burke ran into control problems during the exhibition season...to compound the problem, John suffered from right shoulder tendinitis that kept him in Arizona with extended spring, while his teammates headed north...he eventually arrived in Colorado Springs but didn't join the active roster until June 22...he made 8 appearances for the Sky Sox, walking 22 men in 11.0 innings of work...in mid-August, Burke was sent to Asheville (A) and overcame his hurdle by dominating when he hit the hill there...he appeared in 4 games, totaling 17.0 innings, allowing only 2 earned runs on 5 hits and 5 walks while fanning 16 men for a 1.06 ERA...he then had a brief stint with Sun Cities in the Arizona Fall League, but appeared in just 3 games.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—John's year began in Central Valley (A), where he went a deceptive 7-8...despite the sub-.500 record, he tied for 2nd in the California League in ERA (3.18) and ranked 3rd in K's (114), though he left for AAA with a month remaining in the season...his work with the Class-A Rockies did not go unnoticed, earning a spot on the league All-Star team, and was selected by Baseball America as the top prospect in the California League...his best strikeout stretch was in consecutive starts against Bakersfield, totaling 23 in the back-to-back outings...his AAA debut at Vancouver on July 30, resulted in a win over the Canadians, as Burke went 6.0 scoreless innings allowing just 2 hits and a walk with 8 K's...he followed that with 7.0 innings of 4-hit, 1-run work at Colorado Springs vs. Tucson, though he was not involved in the decision. 1992—It was a storybook beginning for the young righthander, drafted by his hometown major league club in the first round of the 1992 June draft, but it took a while for the story to unfold...Burke was sidelined for the first few weeks of his pro career with a sore pitching arm, but he managed 10 starts at Bend (OR), going 2-0 with a 2.41 ERA...a home run in his pro debut on July 3, was the only tally he surrendered in his first 18.0 innings of work, a span of 5 starts...he was limited to just 5.0 innings in any outing to protect the arm.

PERSONAL: John C. Burke...he and wife, Elizabeth, reside in Highlands Ranch, CO...the first-ever choice in the June draft, Burke played collegiately at the University of Florida, where he left as the all-time strikeout leader with 305 in 260.1 innings...he was originally selected in the first round of the 1991 draft by Houston, but declined to sign and returned to the Gators...he was a 1989 graduate of Cherry Creek High School in Englewood, CO.

26 Ellis Burks

Outfielder

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 205 B/T: R/R
 Age: 30 (Turns 31 on September 11)
 Born: September 11, 1964 in Vicksburg, MS
 Residence: Denver, CO
 M.L. Service: 7 years, 117 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, November 30, 1993.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: A combination of achievement and disappointment best describes his first year in the National League after 7-year career in the Junior Circuit...Ellis made a great first impression, homering in his first trip to the plate in the season opener at Mile High Stadium off the Phils' Curt Schilling...he wound up hitting safely in his first 14 N.L. games, batting .453 (24-for-53) with 3 doubles, 2 triples, 6 homers, 14 RBI, 17 runs scored and a .925 slugging pct., falling just a game shy of his career-best hitting streak...Burks finished April with a .413 mark (33-for-80), with 9 homers, 17 RBI and 24 RBI in earning N.L. Player-of-the-Month honors...he became the 2nd player in club history to achieve the award, with Andres Galarraga winning twice during the '93 season...Burks put his name in the Rockies' record book by delivering the first inside-the-park home run in club annals on April 15 off the Expos' Jeff Fassero...2 days later, Ellis ended a 10-inning affair with Montreal with a game-ending homer off Gil Heredia...his season-high of 4 hits occurred on April 25 at St. Louis, which included a game-winning homer off Tom Urban and snapped a 6-6 tie...his season came to a screeching halt on May 17, when a check swing vs. the Dodgers caused a severe left wrist sprain that forced the hand to be immobilized for 2 months...at the time of the injury, Ellis led the league with a .738 slugging pct., and ranked 3rd in hitting with a .354 mark...after missing 70 games and playing in a 2-game rehab stint at Colorado Springs, he returned to action on July 31 in San Francisco, entering the game as a pinch hitter...the next night in Houston he homered in the 8th inning off Mike Hampton in his first start after coming off the D.L...Burks' injury never properly healed, and after the official cancellation of the '94 season, he had surgery to fuse two bones in his wrist on Sept. 20, spending the entire off-season with his wrist in a cast.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—Served mainly as the rightfielder for the A.L. West champion White Sox, hitting .275 in 146 games...finished 3rd on the club with 74 RBI, while his 17 homers ranked 4th best, despite not homering in the regular season after August 31...had a 10-game hitting streak in late-August, hitting .389 (14-for-36) in that span...was much stronger in the first half, hitting .295 with 11 homers and 45 RBI at the All-Star break...collected career grand slams #7 & #8, taking Kenny Rogers deep in Arlington Stadium on May 16, then hitting one with the bases juiced on June 26 off Seattle's Erik Hanson...the homer in Texas on May 16 was the 100th roundtripper of his career and gave him 6 RBI in a game for the 2nd time in his career...he batted .304 in 6 games of the A.L.C.S., with a homer and 3 RBI...the home run came in game #5 at Toronto...upon joining Colorado, his 3 major league teams have been both Sox and the Rox. 1992—Final year with the Red Sox was cut short after a season-ending back injury put the skids on the year on June 24 at Detroit...he hit .255 with 8 homers and 30 RBI in 66 games, which included 62 starts in center-field...was a .310 hitter during the first 11 games in May...hit his 6th career grand slam on May 20 vs. Seattle, a game-winning blast off Mike Schooler, snapping a 2 1/2 year absence from the bases loaded homer. 1991—Tied his career best with a 15-game hitting streak from May 7-26...had 6 home runs during June, including 3 in a 2-game span at Seattle on June 10-11...missed some playing time in May with a right hamstring injury, then tendinitis in both knees limited his time in July...appeared sparingly in last 23 games after a bulging disc was discovered in his back. 1990—Was ranked among the A.L. Top 10 in 7 different offensive categories...selected to the A.L. All-Star team, but missed the game with a hamstring pull...named the A.L. Player-of-the-Week on Sept. 3...played in a career-high 152 games, including 143 starts in centerfield...led the BoSox in homers with a career-best 21, while batting in 6 different spots in the batting order...tied a major league record by homering twice in the 4th inning on August 27 at Chicago...had a career-high 62 extra-base hits...won his 1st Rawlings Gold Glove for defensive excellence, was named to the Silver Slugger team, and named an outfielder on The Sporting News All-Star team. 1989—Became the 1st Red Sox player to swipe 20 or more bases in 3 straight seasons since Tommy Harper (1972-74)...he did so despite missing 63 games due to injuries to both shoulders...season ended when a collision in Oakland caused a moderate shoulder separation on Sept. 6...at the time of the collision, he had tied his career best with a 15-game hitting streak...hit 5th career grand slam on August 27 vs. Detroit. 1988—Led the Red Sox with 25 stolen bases and posted a career-high 92 RBI...hit a pair of grand slams (June 15 vs. New York and July 27 at Texas)...drove in 4 runs on 5 occasions, and had a 5-RBI contest on July 17 vs. Kansas City...established his career-best hitting streak at 15 games (May 22-June 7)...season started late (April 12), due to arthroscopic surgery in spring training to remove bone chips in his right ankle...started 139 games, all in centerfield...was a member of the Major League All-Star team that toured Japan, hitting 2 homers during the visit. 1987—Started the year at Pawtucket (AAA), but after just 11 games was recalled on April 29...made major league debut the next day in Seattle...had a "career" game on June 10 at Baltimore, going 3-for-4 with 2 homers, including a grand slam and 7 RBI...homered 7 times in June, then followed that by hitting .319 in July...swiped a club best 27 bases, the most by a Boston rookie since Tris Speaker stole 35 in 1909...was the first Boston rookie and 3rd Red Sox player overall to hit 20 homers and steal 20 bases in the same season...tied a major league rookie mark with 2 grand slams (May 25 vs. Cleveland and June 10 at Baltimore)...was named to the Baseball Digest and Topps All-Rookie teams. 1986—Spent the entire year at New Britain (AA), leading the team in homers (14), runs (70), AB's (462) and total bases (194)...swiped 31 bases and was the starting centerfielder in the Eastern League All-Star Game. 1985—First taste of AA ball, batted .254 at New Britain, tying for 2nd in the Eastern League with 25 doubles. 1984—Began to show the capability of hitting grand slams, with 2 of his 6 homers coming with the bases juiced while playing for Winter Haven...led the club with 29 stolen bases. 1983—Was Boston's 1st pick in the 1st round (20th player overall) of the now-defunct January Free Agent Draft...started pro career in Elmira, scoring 30 runs in 52 games.

PERSONAL: Ellis Rena Burks...he and wife, Dori, have two daughters, Carissa Renee (4-20-89) and Elisha Rae (10-27-91), had their first son last year, Christopher Ellis (6-24-94)...Ellis played for a year at Ranger (Texas) Junior College, earning All-State honors as an outfielder...he attended Everman (Texas) High School, earning All-Region honors as both a shortstop and pitcher during his senior season...born in Vicksburg, MS, and raised in Texas, he and Dori made the move to the Rocky Mountain region shortly after signing with the Rockies, purchasing a home in Cherry Hills.

M.L. Service: 79 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the sixth pick in the third round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Chicago Cubs, November 17, 1992.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: Pedro did not log any big league time during the '94 season, mainly due to a trio of injuries that limited him to just 33 games with Colorado Springs...his overall numbers were impressive, hitting .350 with 11 doubles, 4 homers and 24 RBI, going hitless in just 5 of the 33 games he participated in...his first injury was tendinitis in his right wrist that sidelined him from May 7-26...around that injury, he strung together an 11-game hitting streak (April 27-June 2), hitting .390 (16-for-41) with 3 homers and 10 RBI...Pedro returned to the D.L. from June 8-August 5 with an injury to his other wrist, then in his first game back on August 6, a bad hop ended his season, fracturing his eye socket.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—The final cut in spring training, he spent the first 2 months of the year with Colorado Springs, hitting .301 through 46 games, with 7 homers and 30 RBI...he was recalled on 3 different occasions during the campaign...Castellano's first big league hit occurred on June 1 in a start against the Pirates, a double off Bob Walk in Mile High Stadium...Pedro used a 7-game span during his 2nd recall of the year to collect his first 3 big league homers, the initial roundtripper a 2-run shot in Denver off Atlanta's John Smoltz, followed by solo blasts at Cincinnati (Jose Rijo) and at Los Angeles (Tom Candiotti)...while with the Sky Sox he had several outstanding offensive outbursts, including a 9-game hitting streak in May in which he batted .559 (19-for-34) with 13 RBI...he also had a 12-game hitting streak in late-June, which included a stretch in which he hit safely in 19 of 20 games at a .403 clip. 1992—Split the season between Iowa (AAA) and Charlotte (AA), working mainly at 3rd base...the year began in AAA, where he batted .248 in 74 games...went to Charlotte in mid-July, but hit just .224 in 45 games...did play 11 games at shortstop while in AA...he missed 10 games after contracting the chicken pox. 1991—Was the Cubs' Minor League Player-of-the-Year, earning the MVP honors in the Carolina League...batted .303 with 25 doubles, 10 homers and a league leading 87 RBI...ranked 4th in the league in average, tied for 3rd in hits (139), on-base pct. (.397) and slugging pct. (.436)...he was named to both the mid-season and post-season All-Star squads, and the Topps/National Association Class A All-Star team...wrapped up '91 by playing in 7 games at Charlotte. 1990—Hit .276 in 117 games at Peoria (A), tying for 8th in the league in doubles (27)...ended the season with 19 games at Winston-Salem, hitting .197. 1989—Was a .311 hitter during his first pro season at Wytheville...tied for the Appalachian League lead in runs scored (55), ranked 2nd in total bases (128) and walks (46), earning a spot on the post-season All-Star squad.

PERSONAL: Pedro Orlando Castellano (Arrieta)...he is single and makes his off-season home in Lara, VZ...he was a 1987 graduate of Jose Dominguez High School...he spent the winter playing for Zulia in his native Venezuela...he was originally signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Cubs, April 14, 1988.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the seventh pick in the second round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Atlanta Braves, November 17, 1992.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: Opened the season with the big league club, but appeared in just 9 games through May 8, going 1-for-10 at the plate, and was optioned to Colorado Springs...Vinny hit .244 in 22 games for the Sky Sox and was recalled to the majors on June 4 for the remainder of the season...his offensive production improved greatly during his 2nd stint, hitting .350 (42-for-120) after the recall...his first 2 homers of the year came in back-to-back AB's in Cincinnati, clobbering a Hector Carrasco pitch in the 8th inning on June 10 for his first of the year, then followed that with a 1st inning shot off Kevin Jarvis the next night...Castilla was a .371 hitter in June (23-for-62) driving in 12 during the month...he batted .374 from the time of his recall through August 4, which brought his season mark to .350 with a week to go before the abrupt end to the season...Vinny proved his versatility defensively, making 13 starts at shortstop, 12 at second base, 6 at third base and a pair at first base...his first major league appearance at second base took place on April 15 vs. Montreal, and his professional debut at first base occurred on July 29 at San Francisco, the night after Andres Galarraga suffered a broken hand.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—His first full year of big league duty he shared the shortstop duties with Freddie Benavides...Vinny made his mark with a 12-game hitting streak in mid-May, a club record streak at the time, only to have his playing time halted with an ankle sprain on May 19...prior to the injury, he established a club record with 2 triples vs. Florida on April 25, then 2 nights later hit his first major league homer, a solo shot at home against Chicago's Dan Plesac...after returning from the disabled list, Castilla combined with Danny Sheaffer to set another club standard, as each posted 5 RBI in a 15-5 win at home over the Reds...Vinny also set a club record with 10 total bases, and tied club marks with 4 runs scored and 2 homers...through July, all 18 of his RBI had come in Mile High Stadium, then on August 2, he hit a 2-run homer in Cincinnati off Tim Lincecum, starting a stretch in which 11 of his last 12 RBI for the year came on the road...all totaled, he was a .305 hitter in Denver, compared to a .206 mark on the road...Castilla finished the year tied for 8th in the N.L. with 7 triples, with 6 of those triples coming in his first 42 games. 1992—Hit .252 in 127 games for Richmond with 29 doubles, 7 homers and 44 RBI...started the year slowly at the plate, hitting as low as .205 in mid-June, but gradually raised his average, batting .297 over the last 2 months with 14 doubles and 27 runs scored...he was a .320 hitter in August (32-for-100)...hit safely in 15 of the last 16 games of the year at a .407 clip (24-for-59) with 11 runs scored...appeared in 9 games in September for Atlanta, hitting .250 (4-for-16) with a double and RBI...it was his 2nd straight September recall to the big leagues. 1991—Performed on 3 levels during the year beginning at Greenville (AA)...he batted .270 in 66 games for the AA Braves, with 7 homers and 44 RBI...was then promoted to AAA and hit .225 in 67 games for Richmond, again hitting 7 homers while driving in 36...made major league debut in September, appearing in 12 games, going 1-for-5 with a run scored. 1990—His contract was purchased on March 19 from Saltillo of the Mexican League...made his United States professional debut with Sumter (A), hitting .268 in 93 games and earning a spot in the South Atlantic League All-Star Game...was promoted to Greenville, and hit .235 in 46 games...combining the 2 leagues, he totaled 13 homers and 69 RBI in 140 games.

MEXICAN LEAGUE: Played for 3 seasons in the Mexican League, his best year coming at Saltillo in 1989, hitting .307 in 128 games with 25 doubles, 13 triples, 10 homers and 58 RBI...teamed in 1988-89 with fellow Rockies' mate Armando Reynoso.

PERSONAL: Vinicio Soria (Vinny) Castilla...he was married during the off-season to Denver resident, Samantha Owen, and they make their winter home in Oaxaca, MX...he is a 1985 graduate of Carlos Gracida Institute, earning baseball M.V.P. honors...he then attended Benito Suarez University...Vinny spent a brief period of time in the Arizona Fall Instructional League during the off season to get work at third base, then played the hot corner during a portion of his Mexican Winter League season.

4 Craig Counsell

Infielder

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 177 B/T: L/R
 Age: 24 (Turns 25 on August 21)
 Born: August 21, 1970 in South Bend, IN Residence: Whitefish Bay, WI
 M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as the 11th round selection of the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: For the 2nd straight minor league season, Craig finished with a .280 average but the '94 season literally got off on the wrong foot, when he suffered a fractured right foot after fouling a ball off in spring training...the injury was nothing new for the infielder, who had a similar injury cut short his initial pro season in Bend in 1992...this time Counsell was unavailable until mid-May, making his '94 debut with the AA club in New Haven on May 13...after posting 0'fers in his first 2 games of the year, Craig went on a tear, hitting safely in 37 of the next 44 games at a .325 clip (52-for-160)...included in that stretch was a season-high 11-game hitting streak in which he posted a .429 mark (15-for-35), also putting together a pair of 7-gamers in that 44-game stretch...his regular season average peaked at .325 after play on June 25, when Counsell went 4-for-6 in a 13-inning loss at home to Binghamton...June was his best month at the plate, hitting .331 (39-for-118) with a pair of homers and 17 RBI...as July wound down, Craig once again found himself headed to the D.L., suffering a broken nose in a game at home on July 29 vs. Albany...he attempted to come back from the injury a week later, getting a hit in his only plate appearance on August 6, but ended up missing most of that month, not returning to the lineup until August 29...the lefthanded hitting infielder spent the majority of time playing at shortstop, but also had a handful of starts and 2nd base after returning from his late-season injury.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—Craig spent the entire campaign at Central Valley (A), hitting .280 in 131 games for the California League club...he led the club with 26 doubles and ranked 2nd in hits (132). 1992—Another original from the first draft class of '92 for the Rockies, Craig's season at Bend (OR) came to a halt quickly, when after just 18 games he suffered a broken right instep after fouling a ball off the foot...drafted as a shortstop out of Notre Dame, Counsell opened the season as the 2nd baseman, a position that had been foreign to him prior to turning pro.

PERSONAL: Craig John Counsell...he is single and makes his off-season home in Whitefish Bay, WI...he was a 1988 graduate of Whitefish Bay High School, then made the trek to South Bend, IN, where he played collegiately for the University of Notre Dame for 4 seasons...while excelling on the field, he graduated in 1992 with a degree in Accounting...his father, John, played professionally in the Minnesota chain in the mid-60's, then later worked in the front office of the Milwaukee Brewers.

44 Marvin Freeman

Pitcher

Ht: 6-7 Wt: 222 B/T: R/R
 Age: 32
 Born: April 10, 1963 in Chicago, IL
 Residence: Country Club Hills, IL
 M.L. Service: 5 years, 146 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, October 29, 1993.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: A career year for the free agent signee, as he led the National League in winning percentage with an .833 mark, posting a 10-2 ledger, the 2nd best winning pct. in the majors to Chicago's Jason Bere (.857)...Marvin was signed and slated as a middle to late reliever, but injuries in spring training to scheduled starters put him in the starting rotation...used exclusively as a starter during the first 6 years of his career, Freeman became a reliever in mid-1990, and had remained in that role until the '94 season with the Rockies...his 2.80 ERA fell just 4.1 innings shy of qualifying for league recognition when the season ended, as he totaled 112.2 frames in 19 outings (18 starts)...Free's first win came in his only bullpen work of the year, working 4.0 innings in relief of the injured Armando Reynoso on April 20 vs. Florida, and posting the 16-6 triumph...he followed that with back-to-back wins at St. Louis and at Chicago...he tied a career-high with 7 strikeouts on May 13 in the Astrodome, but wound up on the short end of a 4-2 decision...after that outing, Freeman put together a 4-game winning streak that spanned 6 starts, posting a 3.09 ERA in that stretch (16 ER in 46.2 IP)...during the 6-game stretch, he once again tied his career high with 7 K's, but again did not post a "W", getting a no decision vs. the Mets on June 8...the final win of the streak took place on June 18 at Dodger Stadium, a 9-3 triumph in which he also made a statement with the bat...entering his 2nd at bat in that game, he was 1-for-20 at the plate on the year, and a career 6-for-61 (.098), with no career RBI, but changed that with a home run to right-centerfield off Ramon Martinez...following a tough 4-2 loss at Florida on July 9, he closed the year by winning 3 straight decisions (4 starts), giving up just 5 ER in 27.2 IP for a 1.63 ERA...for a hurler who had spent the majority of his last 4 seasons in a relief role, his control was outstanding, as Freeman walked just 23 men in 112.2 innings, a 1.8 per 9-inning ratio...he did not allow a walk in 6 of his 18 starts, and gave up just one free pass in 7 other starting assignments...of the 10 home runs he surrendered, 8 came with the bases empty.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—Working in relief for Atlanta, he made 11 appearances before being forced to the 15-day disabled list on June 4 with a right bicep strain...on July 9, he was transferred to the emergency 60-day D.L. and not recalled from his rehab stint until August 6...wound up with a 2-0 road record and 0.00 ERA, pitching in 11 games away from Atlanta covering 13.2 IP...one of his road victories took place in Mile High Stadium, May 7, working 3.1 frames of relief against the Rockies, allowing 2 hits with a pair of K's, taking a 13-5 decision. 1992—Won 1 more game (7), than his previous big league total entering the season...started strong, allowing 2 earned runs in 11.1 IP from April 10-28, a 1.59 ERA in 9-game span...struggled over next 10 outings, then was diagnosed with tendinitis in right shoulder, forcing stint on disabled list...after August 2, was touched for just 3 ER in final 23.1 IP of work for a 1.16 ERA covering 24 outings...appeared in 3 games of the N.L.C.S. vs. Pittsburgh, allowing 6 earned in 3.2 innings...did not appear in World Series. 1991—1st full year of big league duty, posting a 3.00 ERA in 34 games while working in middle relief...best stretch was from May 22-August 3, allowing 5 ER in 33.2 IP for a 1.34 ERA...lone win was July 16 vs. Chicago with an inning of relief...was placed on D.L. for remainder of year on August 22, suffering from bulging disc in lower back...had successful surgery on August 31. 1990—Pitched for 4 different clubs during course of season, including the Phillies and Braves in the majors, while getting first taste of full-time relief duty...started the year at Scranton-Wilkes Barre (AAA) for Phils, going 2-4 in 7 games before May 16 recall to Philly...earned 1st major league save on May 24 vs. Braves, almost 2 months to the day he would be traded to Atlanta...appeared in 16 games for Phillies, then was dealt on July 23 for relief pitcher Joe Boever...began Braves' portion of career at Richmond (AAA), going 2-3 in 7 games, then was promoted for good on Sept. 1...posted 1-0 mark with Atlanta, allowing just 3 ER and 7 hits over 15.2 IP, limiting the opposition to a .130 average in 9 games. 1989—Appeared in just 6 games all year, 5 at Scranton, and 1 for the Phillies...made 2 starts at Scranton in April, then was promoted to Phils...pitched 3.0 innings in an April 24 start at Houston, then left game with inflamed right shoulder due to strained quadriceps muscle...was placed on D.L. for duration of the season the next day, but did make a trio of rehab starts in August for Scranton. 1988—Split the year between Maine (AAA) and Philly...was 5-5 in 18 games (14 starts) at Maine, including a 7.0 inning no-hitter at Richmond on July 28...was out 32 days (June 13-July 14) with a strained right shoulder...made 11 starts for Phillies after being recalled on August 8, going 2-3. 1987—Strained right shoulder surfaced, forcing stint on D.L. at Reading (AA) on July 2...prior to being sent to AA, struggled through 0-7 ledger in 10 starts at Maine...after resting shoulder, was 3-3 in 9 starts at Reading. 1986—Earned the Paul Owens Award, given annually to the top minor league pitcher in the Phils' chain...led Reading in wins (13), starts (27), IP (163.0) and K's (113)...start total tied for 1st in Eastern League, while wins ranked 2nd and K's were 3rd...big league debut was on Sept. 16 vs. Pittsburgh, a 3.0 inning stint with no decision...notched 1st M.L. win and the birth of only child on Sept. 21...while working 7.0 innings in New York, allowing just a hit and an earned run in victory, his wife, Arnetta, was giving birth to their daughter, Paris. 1985—Split the year between Clearwater (A) and Reading...was 6-5 in A-ball, with 3 shutouts...was not as successful at AA, going 1-7 in 11 starts. 1984—Signed with the Phils as the 2nd pick in the 2nd round of the June draft, and reported to Bend (OR), going 8-5 in 15 starts.

PERSONAL: Marvin Freeman...he and wife, Arnetta, have a daughter, Paris (9-21-86), who was born on the night of his first major league win...Marvin was a 1981 graduate of Chicago Vocational High School...while attending high school, he was employed by the John Norwood Lee violin bow-making company, handshaping and finishing concert quality violin bows...following his prep career in Chicago, Freeman was selected by Montreal in the 9th round of the June draft, however, he chose to attend Jackson (MS) State University...last season, Marvin and Arnetta donated their time to the Lupus Foundation of Colorado, including the taping of a Public Service Announcement.

14 Andres Galarraga

Infielder

Ht: 6-3

Wt: 235

B/T: R/R

Age: 33 (Turns 34 on June 18)

Born: June 18, 1961 in Caracas, VZ

Residence: Caracas, VZ

M.L. Service: 9 years, 5 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, November 16, 1992.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: The "Big Cat" may not have duplicated the .370 average that shocked baseball the previous year, but he did put some outstanding numbers on the board before another injury brought his season to an even earlier end than the other players...in just 103 games, he established a career best with 31 home runs, 2 better than in 1988 total with Montreal...his season came to a halt on July 28 in San Francisco, when he suffered a fractured right hand when he was hit by a Dave Burba pitch...after a win that day, the Rockies had edged to 1 1/2-game behind the division leading Dodgers, but following the injury to Galarraga, finished the year by winning just 3 of the last 13 games...despite the injury, Andres finished 5th in the N.L. in homers, tied for 5th in multi-hit games (41), ranked 7th in RBI (85), slugging pct. (.592) and total bases (247), and ranked 9th in extra-base hits (52)...his season began with 3 hits, including a homer off Curt Schilling on April 4 in Denver, the first of 6 straight games he would hit safely in at the outset of the season, batting .407 (11-for-27) with 4 homers and 11 RBI...his first of 2 grand slams on the season provided the margin of victory over Montreal on April 16, a 7th inning shot off Mel Rojas to snap a 3-3 tie...his 2nd slam of '94, 5th career, occurred on May 30 at New York, a 6th inning blast off Mike Maddux in a 12-2 win...on 4 occasions he pounded a pair of homers in a game, upping his career total of 2-homer games to 7...Galarraga had a pair of 8-game hitting streaks, the best coming from July 10-20, hitting .389 (14-for-36) with 4 homers and 6 RBI...his best days included a 2-homer, 5-RBI contest on April 20 vs. Florida, and a 4-hit affair at Atlanta in the Rockies first win ever over the Braves on June 13.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—An extraordinary year as he became the first expansion player and first Venezuelan to win a batting title...his .370 average tied Tony Gwynn's 1987 mark as the highest in the N.L. since 1948, when Stan Musial batted .376 for the Cardinals...Galarraga's average was the highest by a righthanded hitter in the majors since 1939, when Joe DiMaggio hit .381, and the highest by a righty in the N.L. since Joe "Ducky" Medwick hit .374 in 1937...he led the league in multiple-hit games (56), despite missing 41 contests due to a pair of injuries...he finished 2nd in slugging (.602) and 6th in on-base pct. (.403), though he walked just 24 times, with half of those intentional...he went 2 consecutive games without a hit on only 5 occasions, and just once did he go more than 2 games...he was named the first All-Star Game representative in club history, hitting .391 at the time of the break...he was twice the N.L. Player-of-the-Month (June & September), the only 2-time winner in the league in 1993...Galarraga overcame 2 different disabling injuries and still managed to collect enough plate appearances to qualify...he opened the year by hitting .412 in April (35-for-85) with 4 homers and 25 RBI, then was hitting .395 on May 9, when he suffered a slightly torn right hamstring...after missing 17 games, he batted .494 (42-for-85), while hitting safely in 21 of the next 23 games, raising his season mark to .427 by June 23...during that stretch, he posted back-to-back 4-hit games on June 14-15 vs. Los Angeles, collecting a club record 9 straight hits over 3 games, falling just 1 hit shy of the N.L. record...he also homered in 3 consecutive games from June 12-14...he wound up with a .420 average in June (42-for-100), with 6 homers and 21 RBI in earning the vote of the national media for the first of his 2 league monthly honors...Galarraga was hitting .400 as late as July 5...his second trip to the D.L. was caused by a 2nd degree sprain of his right knee on July 24 and shelved the first baseman for 24 games...Galarraga returned to the lineup on August 21 and played for the remainder of the year sporting a knee brace...his offensive production picked up again in September, batting .361 during the final month, with 5 homers, 19 runs scored and 23 driven in to earn his 2nd league monthly honor...he was also a 3-time winner of the Rockie-of-the-Month award...he ranked 4th in the N.L. in RBI ratio, driving in a run every 4.8 at bats...based on the estimated home runs distances his 22 homers had an average distance of 418 feet, the best in the majors, with the longest a 473-foot blast on July 6 in Mile High off Florida's Charlie Hough...Galarraga had arthroscopic surgery performed on his right knee on October 6, 1992—After 13 seasons in the Montreal organization, he was traded on November 25, 1991, to the St. Louis Cardinals in exchange for pitcher Ken Hill...began the '92 year as the Opening Day first baseman for the Redbirds, however, suffered a broken right wrist when he was hit by a pitch in the 2nd game of the year (April 7)...he spent 44 days on the D.L., then had an 11-game rehab assignment in Louisville before returning to regular duty on May 22...despite returning to the lineup, his bat was slow coming around, hitting just .189 through July 19, however, from that point the season turned around...hit safely in 9 of 10 games at a .425 clip (17-for-40), with 7 runs scored, 3 homers and 8 RBI...closed the season hitting .301 (47-for-156) in the final 45 games, with 8 homers and 29 RBI to raise his season average 45 points...known as the "Big Cat" for his defensive prowess, he committed just 3 errors during that 45-game stretch. 1991—Started the season slowly, then once the bat began to turn around, an injury incapacitated him for the entire month of June...was hitting .184 through the first 2 weeks of the season, but went on a month-long tear that raised his season average 105 points to .289...batted .342 (26-for-76) during the hot streak, but then was sidelined for 36 games with a left knee injury that required being scoped below the kneecap on June 8...finished the season strong, compiling a slugging pct. of .459 with 13 RBI after Sept. 1...of his last 19 hits, 9 went for extra bases, including 5 home runs...defensively, he had a 34-game errorless streak during the year. 1990—Hit at least 20 home runs for the 3rd straight season, while driving in 87 runs...hit 2nd career grand slam on August 21 vs. New York...earned his second consecutive Gold Glove with a career-best .993 fielding pct. 1989—Though the average tailed off from previous seasons (.257), still strong in run production, hitting 23 homers and driving in 87...hit first career grand slam on August 27 at San Francisco...had 10-game hitting streak in mid-July, batting .395 in that span...excelled defensively, earning the first of 2 consecutive Gold Gloves. 1988—Led the N.L. in hits (184) and doubles (42), while batting a then-career best .305, while earning his first trip to the All-Star Game...named All-Star 1st baseman by both Baseball America and USA Today...finished in the league's Top 10 in 12 different offensive categories...was named N.L. Player-of-the-Week on 3 different occasions, including back-to-back weeks (May 23-June 5)...had only career 5-hit game on July 2 vs. Atlanta...of his 29 homers, 20 came before the All-Star break...18 of his HR's either tied the game or gave Montreal the lead...became the 2nd Montreal player ever to post consecutive 90-RBI seasons (Rusty Staub, 1970-71). 1987—Started the year hitting in the #3 spot in the batting order, but after being moved to the #5 spot on May 2, hit safely in 16 of 17 games at a .426 clip (26-for-61), including a .672 slugging pct., and career-high 14-game hitting streak. 1986—Hampered by injuries during his rookie season, still managed a .271 mark in 105 games...pulled muscles in right rib cage kept him on the disabled list from July 10-August 19...hit safely in 18 of 19 games after returning from the injury. 1985—First season on the AAA level, named the American Association Rookie-of-the-Year, hitting .269 with 25 homers and 87 RBI for Indianapolis...he was such a threat at the plate, he even drew a bases-empty intentional walk during the year...was recalled to Montreal on August 23, and collected first major league hit the next day of L.A.'s Rick Honeycutt...hit first big league homer on Sept. 21 at St. Louis, then hit second 2 days later at Wrigley Field. 1984—Earned Southern League M.V.P. honors with .289 average, 27 homers and 87 RBI at Jacksonville. 1983—Batted .289 at West Palm Beach in 104 games, missing 25 games due to bearing. 1982—Connected for double figures in home runs (14) for first time as a pro...finished with .281 mark at West Palm Beach. 1981—Appeared in 47 games at Jamestown (A), hitting .260. 1980—Second year at Calgary (Rookie), hitting .263, 49 points better than previous season there. 1979—Signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Expos' organization on January 19...made professional debut at age 18 with West Palm Beach, playing in 7 games before dropping down to Calgary, where he batted .214 in 42 games.

PERSONAL: Andres Jose Galarraga...he and wife, Eneyda, have two daughters, Andria (12-27-85), and Katherine (8-16-91), and reside in Caracas, VZ...he attended Enrique Ferni H.S. in Caracas...Andres and Eneyda work very closely with the Hispanic community of Denver...he was honored by the Denver Athletic Club as their Athlete-of-the-Year for his batting title performance during the Rockies' inaugural season.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the tenth pick in the first round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Chicago Cubs, November 17, 1992.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: Joe posted his 2nd highest career average, hitting .276 in 93 games...he opened the season with a bang, going 3-for-3 in the season lid lifter vs. the Phillies, and finished the 3-game opening series with a .583 mark (7-for-12)...he followed that a week later by tying a club record by scoring 4 times in the April 11 win to spoil Philly's home opener...manager Don Baylor positioned Girardi in various spots in the batting order, using him in the 2nd, 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th slots during the season...Joe tied individual career bests on June 18 at Los Angeles, getting 4 hits while driving in a trio...once again, his season was interrupted by injury, as he missed the first 15 days after the All-Star break with inflammation in his left patellar tendon...though no time is appropriate for injury, this one came in the midst of Girardi's best overall production at the plate...around the time away, he hit safely in 11 of 12 games (July 5-August 1), at a .391 clip (18-for-46), which included a season-high 7-game hitting streak...his first day off the D.L. was July 26 in San Diego and he celebrated his return to the lineup with a homer off Scott Sanders in his first at bat back, giving Joe a career-high 4 homers on the year...behind the plate, he tossed 33% of the runners who attempted to steal (27 of 81), which included a stretch during the first 3 weeks of May when he zapped 8 of 15 (53%).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—Hit a career best .290 in 86 games, despite missing 60 contests at mid-season due to left hand surgery...the injury originally occurred on September 20, 1992, while he was a Chicago Cub, but then was reinjured during a game with the Rockies on June 4 at Philly, eventually requiring the removal of his hamate bone...Girardi returned to the lineup in August, and found himself in the #2 spot in the batting order...he batted .324 (45-for-139) in 37 games in the 2nd slot, scoring 22 times and driving in 12...his ability to move runners was evidenced with 12 sacrifice bunts, tying for 5th best in the league among non-pitchers...he closed the year by batting .317 over the final 2 months, scoring 21 runs and driving in 14...his longest hitting streak of the year was a 7-gamer from April 24-May 1, which began with his first career 4-hit game (April 24 vs. Florida)...he batted .344 (11-for-32) during the streak...fittingly, his 1st home run with the Rockies took place in Wrigley Field, his former home field, taking a Jose Guzman pitch out to right-center on May 4...defensively, Girardi finished the year 23-for-76 (30%) throwing out base thieves, but had a stretch from Sept. 11-18, tossing out 6 straight...he ended the year by throwing out 8 of the last 12 who attempted to run. 1992—Batted .270 in 91 games for the Cubs, including 86 games behind the plate (70 starts)...best offensive stretch was May 1-13, when he batted .458 (11-for-24) with 9 walks...batted .325 during a career-high 11-game hitting streak from July 17-August 10...went 5-for-10 in a pinch hitting role...only home run of the year was May 8 off Cincy's Jose Rijo, Girardi's first since June 10, 1990...behind the plate, he tossed out 38.4% of the runners attempting to steal (28 of 73)...finished the year with a .991 fielding pct., committing 4 errors in 424 total chances...season came to an abrupt end on Sept. 20, when he broke the hamate bone in his left hand. 1991—Appeared in only 21 games for the Cubs, missing the majority of the season with a lower back strain...made 3 starts before going on disabled list on April 17...remained on the D.L. until August 6, including a rehab assignment to Iowa from July 23-August 6...in first game back with the Cubs on August 7, suffered broken nose in home plate collision with Philly's John Kruk...made 18 appearances (11 starts) after being activated, going 8-for-38 (.211)...first-ever pinch hitting appearance was a success, a 2-run single vs. St. Louis on Oct. 5, 1990—Hit .270 in 133 games as Cubs' regular catcher...lone home run came June 10 off current teammate Bruce Ruffin, then pitching for the Phillies...hit .476 in a 13-game stretch from July 3-22, (20-for-42)...stole 8 bases, the most by a Cubs' catcher since Gabby Hartnett's 10 in 1924...pegged 33% of the runners attempting to steal (38-for-114)...ranked 2nd among N.L. catchers with 61 assists. 1989—First rookie to start on Opening Day for the Cubs since Randy Hundley in 1966...singled in first major league at bat off Philly's Floyd Youmans...had 6 hits in first 12 at bats...was optioned to Iowa on May 1 and recalled June 13, playing 32 games at AAA, his first-ever stop at that level...while at Iowa, hit for the cycle on June 6 vs. Toledo...upon his return, hit first big league homer on June 29 in San Francisco off Jeff Brantley...tossed out 38% of the runners attempting to steal (21-of-56)...was named to Baseball Digest's rookie All-Star squad. 1988—Hit .272 at Pittsfield (AA), but had season cut short after separating left shoulder in a home plate collision on August 7...led all Eastern League catchers in caught-stealing pct., throwing out 47% (55-of-117)...led league catchers in fielding pct. (.992), putouts (448), assists (76) and total chances (528), committing only 4 errors...played in Eastern League All-Star game. 1987—Hit .280 in 99 games at Winston-Salem, with professional best 8 homers and 46 RBI...was selected to both the mid-season and post-season Carolina League All-Star squads...threw out 44% of potential base thieves (53-of-121), 2nd best in the league...led league catchers in total chances (661), putouts (569) and assists (74). 1986—Signed as a 5th round choice out of Northwestern University...made pro debut in hometown of Peoria in the Midwest League, hitting .309 in 68 games, highest among league catchers.

PERSONAL: Joseph Elliott Girardi...he and wife, Kim, reside in Lake Forest, IL...Joe graduated with a degree in Industrial Engineering from Northwestern in 1986...he was twice named all-Big Ten, and earned academic all-America honor three times...he graduated from Spalding Institute in Peoria in 1982, earning all-state honors in baseball...Joe and Kim have been extremely active in the Denver Community, including work with Children's Hospital, and Kim's work with various charities by enlisting the assistance of other players wives, and last year participated in the ticket donation program.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the sixth pick in the second round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Chicago Cubs, November 17, 1992.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: Ryan spent his 2nd straight full season at Colorado Springs and put up very similar numbers...he posted 2 more wins, going 10-10, but the ERA finished at 6.13, compared to a 6.15 mark in '93, while he once again made 28 starts...his win total and starts led the Sky Sox staff, while his 163.0 innings finished 3rd in the PCL...he had a 5-game winning streak, covering 8 starts, from April 22-May 27, posting a 2.88 ERA in that span, allowing just 16 ER in 50.0 IP...included in that stretch was a 2-hit shutout at home over Las Vegas on May 7...in 6 starts during the month of May, Ryan went 4-0 with a 2.82 ERA (12 ER in 38.1 IP)...twice he fanned a season best 7 hitters, but in each contest Hawblitzel wound up with the loss...most of his success was in the rarified air at Sky Sox Stadium, going 7-2 with a 4.50 ERA at home, compared to a 3-8 road ledger, with a 7.55 ERA.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—His first season on the AAA level, he spent the entire campaign with Colorado Springs, making 29 appearances, all but one coming in a starting role, going 8-13...he led the staff in starts, innings pitched (165.1), and tied for 2nd in wins...his best outing of the year resulted in a loss, bringing a whole new meaning to the term "heartbreaker"...at Vancouver on July 27, Hawblitzel retired the first 18 men he faced, had a no-hitter through 9.0 innings and entered the 10th deadlocked in a 0-0 game...the Canadians picked up a run on 2 hits in the 10th for a 1-0 win...Ryan was involved in a pair of combined shutouts, his 1st AAA start at Portland on April 11, working 6.0 scoreless innings in a win, then at Las Vegas on May 17, tossing 6.2 frames of scoreless ball. 1992—Made 28 starts for Charlotte (AA) of the Southern League, going 12-8 with a 3.76 ERA...after dropping his first start, went on a 4-game winning streak...best month was July, going 3-1 with a 2.75 ERA in 5 starts...made 14 starts both at home and on the road with similar ERA's, 3.74 and 3.78, respectively, however, was 8-2 in Charlotte and 4-6 away from home...best outing was June 2 vs. Carolina, a 2-hit shutout, facing 2 men over the minimum. 1991—Had a superb year at Winston-Salem (A), leading the Carolina League in wins (15) and winning pct. (.882), losing only twice in 20 starts...fanned 103 hitters in 134.0 innings and posted a 2.42 ERA, good for 2nd best in the league...was the starting pitcher in the Carolina League All-Star Game...finished the year making 5 starts at Charlotte, going 1-2 with a 3.21 ERA. 1990—Signed as the Cubs' 2nd round choice in the June draft...finished 2nd in the NY-Penn League in starts (14).

PERSONAL: Ryan Wade Hawblitzel...he is single and resides in Palm Springs, FL...Ryan graduated in 1990 from John I. Leonard High School in Ft. Lauderdale, lettering in baseball and playing on a trio of championship teams...he was selected to be on the Florida Athletic Coaches All-Star team.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the third pick in the first round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Milwaukee Brewers, November 17, 1992.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: After posting his best season as a professional in 1993, Darren struggled through most of the '94 campaign, suffering from several bouts of inflammation in his right elbow...he made 29 appearances with the Rockies, going 0-3 with 3 saves...he opened the year in the same role that '93 ended, that of the stopper, but rescued just 3 of his first 7 opportunities, suffering a trio of losses in that stretch and was moved into the set-up role...he did have some flashbacks to his strong '93 performance, going a 5-game stretch (April 8-17) with 6.0 straight scoreless innings, giving up just one hit in that span...Darren recorded his first save on April 11 at Philly, spoiling the Phils home opener by preserving an 8-7 win...he earned the save in dramatic fashion before a gathering of 58,627 at The Vet, fanning John Kruk and Dave Hollins with the tying run at 2nd base to end the contest...just 3 nights later he was the final cog in a history making win, finishing off the Phils in the 9th inning to preserve the first shutout in club history, 5-0, after David Nied went 7.0 frames, and Bruce Ruffin pitched the 8th...Holmes earned saves in consecutive appearances on April 25 at St. Louis and April 29 at Chicago, working the final frame to hold one-run leads in each contest...as the calendar turned to May, so did Darren's luck, as he was tagged for 6 ER in a 4-inning stretch from May 4-9, eventually leading to his option to AAA on May 17...he appeared in 4 games for the Sky Sox in an attempt to rekindle the magic that had occurred during his brief stint in the minors the previous season...though the results weren't as impressive as the '93 season, he did post a 3.14 ERA in 14 games after his May 28 recall, but then began to run into health problems...he went through stretches of inactivity due an inflamed right elbow and eventually landed on the D.L. in late-July that lasted through the end of the abbreviated season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—Served in the "stopper" role, and like the '94 season, he started slowly, but did recover to have an excellent 2nd half, winding up tied for 9th in the N.L. in saves with 25 (29 opportunities)...he earned the first save in club history on April 23 in Denver vs. the Marlins...season began with just 2 saves through 9 outings, and he was optioned to AAA on May 5 with a 17.19 ERA...he was dominant while performing for the Sky Sox, appearing in 3 games (2 starts), allowing no earned runs with a hit, walk and 9 K's in 8.2 innings...he returned to the majors 12 days after his option and was outstanding the rest of the way, posting a 2.43 ERA in his last 53 outings, with a 3-1 mark and 23 saves...he earned Rockie-of-the-Month honors for August, with saves in 9 consecutive outings, while allowing an earned run in his 1st and last outing of the month for a 1.35 ERA, with 12 K's...he closed the year by not allowing an earned run in his last 11 games, a span of 13.2 consecutive scoreless innings...Darren combined the final 2 months of '93 for a 2-0 record and 15 saves with a 1.32 ERA (4 ER in 27.1 IP), including 15 K's...after starting the year going 3-for-6 in save situations, Holmes finished by making good on 22 of the last 23 tries...was most impressive on the road, allowing opposing hitters just a .185 average (20-for-108). 1992—Split the first 2 months sharing time between Milwaukee and Denver (AAA), before settling with the Brewers on May 29 for the remainder of the year...during a pair of stints with the Zephyrs, he earned 7 saves in 12 appearances, allowing 2 ER in 13.0 innings for a 1.38 ERA...with the Brewers, he compiled a 4-4 mark, with 6 saves and a 2.55 ERA in 41 relief outings...he worked in a set-up role for the majority of the season, at times serving as a closer...only 6 of 35 inherited runners crossed the plate when he was on the mound (17%), tops among Milwaukee relievers...3 of his 6 saves came in the final 2 weeks of the season while the Brewers were chasing division leading Toronto...allowed only 1 earned run in the last 2 months, covering 17 outings and 20.2 IP for a 0.44 ERA...his post All-Star break numbers included a 2-1 record in 21 appearances, with all 6 of his saves and a 1.93 ERA. 1991—Made just 1 relief appearance with Denver before being recalled on April 12 due to an injury to Ron Robinson...had an impressive A.L. debut 2 days later, striking out 6 in a 3.0 inning stint at Toronto...a month later, May 16, he earned his first major league save with 4.0 innings of relief at Minnesota...was disabled in July (hamstring), then slowed to previous form, allowing 17 earned runs in next 11.2 innings (8 games) as his season ERA rose to 5.79 by August 6...he finished strong by allowing 1 earned run in his last 15.2 innings (9 games) for a 0.57 ERA. 1990—Spent the majority of the season in Albuquerque (AAA) of the PCL, making 56 relief appearances, going 12-2 with 13 saves and a 3.11 ERA, fanning 99 men in 93.2 innings...it was the first time since 1985 that he had been used exclusively as a reliever...outstanding minor league season earned a September promotion to the Dodgers, where he made 14 relief appearances...made major league debut on Sept. 1 at Montreal, with 2.0 scoreless innings...was traded on December 20 to the Brewers in exchange for catcher Bert Heffernan. 1989—Splitting the season between San Antonio (AA) and Albuquerque, used mainly as a starter...he was 5-8 with a 3.83 ERA for San Antonio in 17 games (16 starts), earning a save in his lone relief appearance...after moving to AAA, posted a 1-4 mark and 7.45 ERA in 9 games (8 starts). 1988—Spent most of the year with San Luis Potosi (Mexican League), going 9-9 in 23 games (all starts) with a 4.64 ERA...he posted the first 100+ strikeout season of his career...finished the year with one start at Albuquerque. 1987—Pitched for the third straight season at Vero Beach, going 6-4 with a 4.52 ERA in 19 starts. 1986—Made just 11 appearances (10 starts) for Vero Beach, going 3-6 with a 2.92 ERA, he fanned 59 hitters in 64.2 innings. 1985—Had 33 outings for Vero Beach, all in relief, going 4-3 with a 3.11 ERA and 2 saves. 1984—Selected 16th in the June free agent draft by the Dodgers and assigned to Great Falls...went 2-5 with a 6.65 ERA in 18 games (6 starts).

PERSONAL: Darren Lee Holmes...he and wife, Kathy, have two daughters, Courtney (5-8-89) and their newest arrival, Hayleigh Nicole (12-16-94) and make their home in Fletcher, NC...he was a 1984 graduate of T.C. Robertson H.S., participating in baseball, football and wrestling...he was named Wester, NC, Male Athlete of the Year in 1983.

12 Mike Kingery

Outfielder

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 185

B/T: L/L

Age: 34

Born: March 29, 1961 in St. James, MN

Residence: Atwater, MN

M.L. Service: 5 years, 54 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, December 3, 1993.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: A year of opportunity taken by the veteran outfielder, who made the club as a non-roster invitee in spring training, then took advantage of playing time that was afforded by another's misfortune...the Rockies were Kingery's 5th major league stop in a 15-year professional career, and after Ellis Burks went down in early May with a wrist injury, Mike seized the moment to establish career bests in batting (.349), runs (56), hits (105), doubles (27) and triples (8)...his triple total tied for 3rd best in the N.L., while he ranked 4th in sacrifice flies with 8...the strike cost him an opportunity to appear in the league rankings, as he fell 17 plate appearances shy of recognition...he was named the Rockie-of-the-Month for July, hitting .333 (32-for-96) with 21 runs scored, 7 doubles, 2 triples, 2 homers and 12 RBI...he opened that month with a season-high 8-game hitting streak, batting at a .417 clip (15-for-36) with 6 doubles...he had an extraordinary run with doubles in June, posting 2-base hits in 5 consecutive games from June 7-11, and winding up with 17 doubles in a 21-game stretch from June 7-July 3...Kingery broke a long dinger dry spell on May 27 at Montreal, when he homered off Mel Rojas for his first N.L. roundtripper, and first in the majors since August 5, 1989, while playing for Seattle...just 3 days later in New York, he took lefty Eric Hillman deep for his first home run off a southpaw since August 22, 1987, also with the Mariners off Baltimore's Jack O'Connor...Kingery's 2-run, 7th inning homer at Florida on July 9 ruined Pat Rapp's bid for a no-hitter...Mike had the third 4-hit game of his career on August 1 at Houston, leading Colorado to an 8-3 win over the Astros...it was his first 4-hit effort since September 23, 1986, when as a member of the K.C. Royals, the Atwater, MN, native accomplished the feat on "Mike Kingery Day" at the Metrodome in Minneapolis...Kingery was a .380 hitter under the lights in '94, while posting a .406 mark on artificial surfaces...he was used by manager Don Baylor in 6 different spots in the order.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Mike has had a career of ultimate consistency, entering the '95 season with mirror images of home/road totals...he has batted .273 lifetime whether at home or away, going 192-for-704 in each place, with 9 homers at home and 10 on the road, and 71 home RBI compared to 84 road RBI. 1993—His first full year back in the minor leagues since 1985, Kingery played for the same club in '93 that he had in '85, the Omaha Royals...the veteran outfielder batted .263 in 116 games for the Royals, with 10 homers and 41 RBI...by hitting .323 and .312 in May and June, respectively, his season average peaked at .287, but a .205 month of July brought his season mark down...he closed the year by hitting safely in 9 of the last 10 games, including a season-best 8-game hitting streak...during that stretch, Kingery had his best single game of the year, hitting a pair of homers in the first game of a doubleheader at home vs. New Orleans, driving in 3...he played 106 games defensively, playing all 3 outfield positions with regularity. 1992—Kingery made the Opening Day roster of the Oakland A's, but went just 3-for-28 (.107) in 12 games and was outrighted to Tacoma, spending the remainder of the year on the AAA roster...he finished 14th in the PCL in hitting with a .306 mark...1991—He worked the other side of the bay, spending the majority of the season with San Francisco, used primarily as a pinch hitter or late-inning defensive replacement...he had 110 at bats in 91 games, but led the Giants' pinch hitters in at bats (44), hits (11), RBI (7) and walks (8)...he was released by the Giants on October 6, but signed by the A's on December 12. 1990—Kingery refused an outright assignment from Seattle to Calgary, therefore became a free agent and signed a AAA contract with the Giants' affiliate in Phoenix...his contract was purchased by the big club on May 29, and he proved it was the right move, by going 7-for-13 with 7 RBI in his first 10 games with the Giants...had a career-best 10-game hitting streak (Sept. 19-October 1), despite getting just 1 or 2 at bats in 5 of the 10 games. 1989—Mike had a couple of brief stints with the Mariners, the first time in July when Ken Griffey, Jr. was placed on the disabled list...he was also a September recall after the PCL playoffs. 1988—He began the season platooning in centerfield with the Mariners, but was outrighted to Calgary on July 15...he was recalled again in September. 1987—His first full year of major league duty with Seattle, as he batted .280 in 120 games for the M's... Kingery posted a team-high 15 outfield assists...he hit his lone career grand slam off California's Kirk McCaskill on August 2 at the Big A. 1986—He opened the campaign on the Omaha roster, hitting .332 through 79 games, then received his first call to the big leagues on July 7, reporting to Kansas City after 6 1/2 years in the minors...he debuted with a 2-for-4 performance vs. Baltimore... Kingery's first big league homer came off Cleveland's Ken Schrom on July 18...he had a pair of 4-hit games, including a 4-for-5 performance on Sept. 23 in the Metrodome, on "Mike Kingery Day"...he was traded to Seattle as part of a 5-player deal on December 10.

PERSONAL: Michael Scott (Mike) Kingery...he and wife, Christy, have four daughters, Rachel (6-11-83), Anna (11-19-86), Michelle (7-21-90), and Rebekah (12-3-92) and make their off-season home in his native Atwater, MN...he was raised in Atwater, where his family has run the Atwater Bowling Center for 33 years...Mike was a 4-sport letterman at Atwater High School, graduating in 1979, then was signed that August by the Royals as a non-drafted free agent...he earned an Associate's Degree from Willmar (MN) Community College, and has also attended St. Cloud State University.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the seventh pick in the third round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Minnesota Twins, November 17, 1992.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: Curtis opened the season on the AAA level, but did earn a mid-season promotion to the majors for the second straight year...his recall to the Rockies occurred on June 29, after compiling a 3.09 mark in 16 starts for Colorado Springs...his first start in the majors was the next night in St. Louis, as he was staked to an early 6-0 lead, but gave 5 of the runs back by the 5th inning and wound up with a no decision, as the Rockies eventually dropped a 9-7 contest...his next start was in Wrigley Field on July 6, and Leskanic worked 5.1 frames in a 7-1 win over the Cubs, his lone big league win of the year...his next 5 appearances came in a relief role, then made his last start on August 5 vs. the Dodgers, losing a 5-4 decision...he was optioned back to AAA on August 9 prior to the MLB strike, completing the year with the Sky Sox...he finished the AAA season with a sub-.500 ledger, going 5-7 in 21 starts, but did have the 3rd lowest ERA in the PCL at 3.31...he started the first game of the playoffs for Colorado Springs, going 5.0 innings against Albuquerque, and though he did not post a decision, it was the only game the Sky Sox won in the series.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—Started the season on loan to a AA club in Wichita, but eventually made his way to the majors for a pair of stints...since the Rox did not have a AA club in '93, Curtis made 7 starts for Wichita, going 3-2 with a 3.45 ERA, then was promoted to Colorado Springs on May 20...a little over a month later, he was making his 1st of 2 stops with the big league club...his major league debut came on June 27 at San Francisco, going 7.0 innings allowing 5 runs (4 earned), on 7 hits and 3 walks in a 5-0 loss to Bill Swift...Curtis posted his 1st big league win on July 8 vs. Florida in Mile High, going 6.2 innings allowing a hit, a run and 2 walks with a season-high 5 K's in a 3-2 victory, with the lone hit coming off the bat of opposing starter Pat Rapp...after 6 straight starts, he went to the bullpen for 7 outings before being optioned back to AAA...he was recalled to the Rockies on Sept. 3 and managed 2 starts before shoulder tightness limited his work the remainder of the season. 1992—Was traded at the close of spring training with Oscar Munoz from the Cleveland organization to Minnesota in exchange for Paul Sorrento...made 23 starts (26 outings) for Orlando (AA), before being promoted to Portland (AAA) to finish the year...while at Orlando, he led the staff in K's (126) and innings pitched (152.2), while his win total (9) ranked 2nd best...after winning first 2 decisions, he went into tailspin of 6 consecutive losses...came back in 2nd half to post victories in 5 of last 6 decisions...finished season with Portland, going 1-2 in 5 outings (3 starts)...while playing at Orlando, he teamed with Jayhawk Owens. 1991—Pitched at Kinston (A) and was tied with Ryan Hawblitzel for the Carolina League lead in victories with 15, the most of any hurler in the Cleveland chain...he was 2nd in the loop in starts (28) and 8th overall in ERA (2.79), fanning 163 batters in 174.1 innings...again finished season strong with wins in 6 of last 7 decisions. 1990—Began pro career with Kinston, going 6-5 in 14 starts, including wins in last 4 outings...in season finale, walked none and fanned 14 in win over Peninsula.

PERSONAL: Curtis John Leskanic...during his month-long stint with the Rockies last summer, he and wife, Susan, became the parents of their first child, Brandon Joseph, born on June 18 in Denver...Curtis graduated from Steel Valley (PA) H.S. in 1986, then pitched at Louisiana State University, where he earned all SEC honors...he was originally an 8th round selection of Cleveland in the 1989 June draft.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: Kevin spent the entire season with Canton-Akron, working exclusively as a reliever for the first time in his career...it was a tale of 2 seasons for the southpaw, who had been tagged with a 6.45 ERA over his first 14 games, giving up 16 earned runs and 22 hits in 21.1 innings at the outset...he was disabled for a week during this stretch in mid-April, with a left elbow strain...his last outing in May resulted in a 5 earned run, 2.1 inning performance, but his entire season turned around after the change in months...from June through the remainder of the year, Kevin made 25 appearances, allowing only 2 earned runs on 23 hits in 43.0 innings for a 0.42 ERA, posting a 3-1 mark and his lone save in that span...from July 9-August 15, he appeared in 10 games, not allowing an earned in those 23.2 innings of action...his final numbers included a 2.52 ERA in 39 games, with the opposing hitters managing just a .200 average...the lefty was toughest on righthanded hitters, holding their collective average to just .185, allowing 29 hits in 157 at bats...as was the case during the '92 season at Columbus, he remained stingy with the long ball, giving up just 3 home runs in his 64.1 innings of action, including just one in the last 43.0 frames...after the regular season, he teamed with some of his newest clubhouse mates, playing in the Arizona Fall League for Sun Cities, going 1-0 with a 5.79 ERA in 8 relief appearances, working under the tutelage of Rockies' minor league pitching coach Billy Champion, who served Sun Cities in that capacity.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—Appeared in 31 games at Kinston (A), making 20 starts, but also collecting 3 saves out of 11 relief stints...he posted by far his highest pro strikeout total, fanning 105 hitters in 124.2 innings, easily surpassing his 84 K's in 113.1 frames the previous year...upon conclusion of the regular season, Kevin pitched for the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League, appearing in 10 games in relief. 1992—He posted the 3rd best ERA among Indians' minor leaguers with a 2.94 mark, working in 19 games, 18 as a starter for Columbus (GA)...he allowed one run or less in 10 of his 18 starts...he excelled at keeping the ball in the yard, allowing only one home run in 113.1 innings. 1991—Kevin's first year as a pro began in Watertown, where he was used mainly as a starter, appearing in 13 games, starting 11.

PERSONAL: Kevin Howard Logsdon...he and wife, Gina, took their wedding vows just prior to spring training on February 3 in Cleveland...they make their off-season residence in Baker City, OR, where Kevin was a 1989 graduate of Baker High School, lettering in baseball, basketball and football...he played collegiately for a season at Lewis and Clark State College in Lewiston, ID, the same school that produced current Rockies' reliever Steve Reed...Logsdon then played a season at Linn Benton Community College in Albany, OR, before being drafted by Cleveland as their 5th round pick of the 1991 June free agent draft.

1991 Signed by the Cleveland Indians as a 5th round selection in the June Free Agent Draft.

1994 Selected by the Colorado Rockies in the Rule V draft, December 5.

2 Quinton McCracken*Outfielder*Ht: 5-7Wt: 170B/T: S/RAge: 25Born: March 16, 1970 in Wilmington, NCResidence: Southport, NCM.L. Service: NoneHOW OBTAINED: Signed as a 25th round selection in the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: Quinton was a non-roster invitee to spring training, thanks to his performance of '93, being named the Rockies' Minor League Player-of-the-Year...he was the everyday centerfielder at New Haven (AA), hitting .278 while leading the Ravens in games (136), at bats (544), runs scored (94), hits (151), doubles (27) and stolen bases (36)...his season started slowly at the plate, hitting just .236 on May 15, but then hit safely in 10 of the next 11 games at a .364 clip (16-for-44)..."Q" really took off when the calendar turned to June, going 2-for-4 on the 1st, which was the startling point for a 21-game hitting streak that lasted through June 19 and raised his season mark to .270...during the extended stretch, he averaged .292, with just 5 of the 21 games being multi-hit affairs...he had a shorter, but more potent streak in mid-July, hitting safely in 10 in a row at a .487 clip (19-for-39) with 7 of those contests containing multi-hit efforts...from June 1 through July 19, the switch-hitting outfielder hit safely in 42 of 47 games at a .307 clip (61-for-199) to peak his season average at .284...though his season mark tailed a little, Quinton still had one more streak in him in August, batting .378 (14-for-37) in a 9-gamer, while scoring a run in 10 consecutive contests...he was a .287 hitter from the right side of the plate, while batting .273 as a lefthanded hitter.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—Was named the Rockies' Minor League Player-of-the-Year, playing both the outfield and 2nd base for Central Valley (A), while hitting .292 in 127 games...he led the California League in sacrifice bunts with 12...he also swiped 60 bases in 79 attempts, the most thefts in the Rockies' organization in '93...his season average was hovering in the .220's, before a 9-game hitting streak began on June 10, in which he batted .405...from that point, only twice did McCracken go 2 consecutive games without collecting at least one hit...he finished the campaign red hot with a 13-game hitting streak, batting .389 (21-for-54), with 12 runs scored and 9 driven in...he played 82 games in the outfield for the Rockies, 28 at 2nd base and also served as the DH when necessary. 1992—The 711th player taken in the 1992 June draft, McCracken reported to Bend (OR), hitting .280 in 67 games, while swiping 18 bases...he was getting limited playing time during the early portion of the season, but an injury to regular 2nd baseman Craig Counsell, gave McCracken the opportunity to show his wares...his season average was standing at .212, when he decided to begin switch-hitting...he went on a 2-week tear, batting .531 and earning consecutive Northwest League Player-of-the-Week honors.

PERSONAL: Quinton Antoine McCracken...he makes his off-season home in Southport, NC...a 1988 graduate of South Brunswick High School (NC), he lettered in baseball, basketball, football and track, winning a state title in baseball during his senior season...“Q” then took his baseball and football skills down “Tobacco Road” playing both sports at Duke University in Durham, NC...he was a defensive back during the fall and 2nd baseman in the spring...the '89 Blue Devil gridiron squad won the ACC championship...while playing both sports, he majored in Political Science/History and earned his degree in the 4 years he attended Duke...for the 2nd straight year, Quinton joined some of his minor league teammates in the Hawaiian Islands, playing for the Maui Stingrays in the Hawaii Winter League.

Age: 23

Born: April 14, 1972 in Hato Mayor, DR

Residence: Hato Mayor, DR

M.L. Service: 144 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the second pick in the second round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Los Angeles Dodgers, November 17, 1992.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: Roberto opened the season as the Rockies' everyday second baseman, but was optioned to AAA on June 4, where he played for the remainder of the season...he appeared in 38 games on the major league level, starting 33 at second, compiling a .241 mark with 4 homers and 14 RBI...his season began with a 5-game hitting streak, going 7-for-20 (.350)...from April 23-May 11, Mejia hit safely in 11 of 13 contests at a .365 pace (15-for-41) with 5 doubles, all 4 of his homers and 8 RBI...of his 4 home runs, 3 came in a 4-game stretch from April 28-May 3...his option to AAA came after an 11-game slide from May 13-30, in which Roberto hit just .143 (4-for-28)...with Colorado Springs, he was a .283 hitter in 73 games, with 24 doubles, 2 triples, 6 homers and 37 RBI.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—Had never appeared above Class A level prior to '93, but parlayed a strong spring training showing to open the regular season in AAA, and eventually earn the major league starting 2nd base job...he batted .299 in 77 games for the Sky Sox, hitting 14 homers while driving in 48...those figures earned him a spot on the AAA All-Star squad that competed in Albuquerque...after that game, he made his major league debut on July 15 in Chicago...Mejia's 1st big league hit was the next afternoon, a double off the Cubs' Jose Guzman...of his 1st 11 hits, 8 went for extra bases (4 doubles, 3 triples and a homer)...the homer came on July 23 in Denver off St. Louis' Allen Watson, while also setting a career-best with 4 RBI...opened August with a 1-for-17 slide, which included 10 strikeouts, and 5 coming in one game on August 9 in L.A...the next night in Dodger Stadium, he snapped out of it with his 1st career 4-hit game...Mejia homered off Atlanta's Tom Glavine in his final at bat of the season. 1992—Spent his second season as a pro playing in Vero Beach of the Florida State League (Class A)...a rollercoaster year at the plate that started strong with a .357 mark in the opening month (25-for-70) with 7 doubles and 11 runs scored...May was a different story, batting just .190 in 11 games (8-for-42)...he rallied in June again, hitting .288 before tailing off over the last 2 months. 1991—First taste as a professional came at Great Falls in the Pioneer League (Rookie)...in 23 games, he posted a .262 average with a pair of homers and 14 RBI.

PERSONAL: Roberto Antonio Mejia (Diaz)...he is single and resides in his native Hato Mayor, D.R....he signed as a non-drafted free agent with the L.A. Dodgers on November 21, 1988, and spent the next 2 seasons playing for Santo Domingo in the Dominican League...he has attended Colegio Adventista in his homeland.

43 Mike Muñoz

Lefthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 200 B/T: L/L
 Age: 29 (Turns 30 on July 12)
 Born: July 12, 1965 in Baldwin Park, CA
 Residence: South Lake, TX
 M.L. Service: 2 years, 150 days

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: Mike spent the entire season with the Rockies, tying for 4th in the majors in appearances with 57...he posted one more victory (4), than he had totaled in 6 previous stints on the major league level...things started slowly for Muñoz, giving up 7 earned runs in his first 11.2 innings of the year, but the turnaround was dramatic, as he went on a 23-game tear from May 20-June 29, in which he allowed only 2 earned runs in 21.2 innings for a 0.83 ERA, thus lowering his season ERA from 5.40 to 2.43...he closed that hot streak with an 8-game, 8-inning scoreless stretch in which he gave up just 3 hits, while posting a pair of wins...his lone save came on June 7 vs. the Mets, working the last inning of a 10-8 Rockies' win in Mile High...Mike entered 8 different bases loaded situations and on 5 occasions escaped the jam unscathed...the opposition compiled an overall average of .223, and he was consistent against both sides of the plate, holding righthanded hitters to a .221 mark and lefties to a .225 average...Muñoz gave up 3 home runs on the year, but went through a 32-game stretch in which he did not surrender a roundtripper, spanning 28.0 innings from May 20-July 15.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—He began the year with Detroit, working out of the Tigers' bullpen 8 times, then after refusing an outright to the minors, he declared free agency and signed a minor league contract with the Rockies on May 14...in 40 relief appearances for Colorado Springs, he earned 3 saves with a 1.67 ERA...he was purchased by the big league club on August 22, and earned a win just a couple of hours after his arrival in Denver, taking a victory over the Mets...his lone defeat with the Rockies was on Sept. 12 at Pittsburgh, giving up a 9th inning, game-winning homer to Al Martin, the only roundtripper he surrendered in 21 appearances with Colorado. 1992—First full season of major league duty, he made 65 appearances for the Tigers, pitching in mostly one-batter faced situations...was outstanding vs. lefthanded hitters, allowing just 14 hits in 73 at bats (.192)...surrendered just 4 earned runs after June 22, a span of 23.2 innings in 38 games for a 1.52 ERA...earned 1st major league victory at Toronto on June 18...knocked 1st big league save at Texas on August 15...surrendered 3 homers on the year, the last 2 coming in one game on June 10 vs. Cleveland...stranded 31 of 42 inherited runners. 1991—Started the year at Toledo (AAA), giving up just 1 earned run in 22.2 innings, a span of 12 games to open the year...earned recall to majors on June 18, making 6 relief appearances for the Tigers...he was returned to Toledo on July 16. 1990—Began the year with Albuquerque, but was purchased by the big league club just 5 days into the season...made 8 relief appearances for the L.A. Dodgers, then was returned to AAA on May 11...appeared in 49 games for Albuquerque, then was traded to Detroit on September 30 in exchange for pitcher Mike Wilkins. 1989—Was the top lefthander used in the Albuquerque bullpen, making a club-high 60 appearances...went 5-1 with a 2.04 ERA in his last 39 outings of the year...gave up just 2 homers during entire AAA season, but oddly enough, the 1st major league batter he faced, Jeff Richardson, homered on September 6 in Cincinnati. 1988—Excelled at San Antonio (AA), appearing in 56 games, going 7-2 with 14 saves and a 1.00 ERA...save total ranked tied for 4th in Texas League...had a stretch of 27.0 consecutive scoreless innings at mid-season, and was named to the T.L. All-Star squad...selected by Baseball America as the 7th best prospect in the league. 1987—Had 1st taste in relief, after opening the year with 12 starts for Bakersfield...gave up just 5 earned runs in last 39.2 innings of work (1.13 ERA). 1986—Pro debut was with Great Falls, going 4-4 in 14 starts.

PERSONAL: Michael Anthony Muñoz...he and wife, Lee Ann, have a daughter, Kailey Ann (10-9-91)...Mike is a graduate of L.A.'s Bishop Amat High School, earning All-City honors as a junior and senior...he then attended Cal Poly Pomona, where he was named 1st team NCAA Division II All-America...during his junior season, Muñoz won his last 10 decisions as Cal Poly Pomona finished 2nd in the Division II World Series.

THE MEN WITH THE GOLD GLOVES

Although the Rockies have not had a Gold Glove winner in their two years of existence, four players with the ballclub have earned the honor with other teams. The Rockies' newest addition, Larry Walker, was the most recent honored for defensive excellence, winning back-to-back awards for his work with Montreal in 1992-93. The winners include:

Player	Club	Year
*Harold Reynolds	Seattle Mariners	1988 - 90
Andres Galarraga	Montreal Expos	1989 - 90
Ellis Burks	Boston Red Sox	1990
Larry Walker	Montreal Expos	1992 - 93

* Non-roster invitee to spring training '95.

17 David Nied

Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-2

Wt: 185

B/T: R/R

Age: 26 (Turns 27 on December 22)

Born: December 22, 1968 in Dallas, TX

Residence: Denver, CO

M.L. Service: 1 year, 165 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the first pick in the first round of the major league expansion draft from the Atlanta Braves, November 17, 1992.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: A gratifying season both on and off the field for the young righthander, who finished 2nd on the club with 9 wins, 4 more than his rookie season of '93...David was able to keep focused on the field despite the off-field distraction of he and wife, Malissa, having a baby boy 4 months premature...for the 2nd straight season, Nied was part of Rockies' history, this year being involved in the first shutout in club history...surviving a 1st inning bases loaded jam, he threw 7.0 scoreless innings on April 14 in Philadelphia then gave the ball to Bruce Ruffin and Darren Holmes, who snapped Colorado's string of 169 games without blanking the opposition...less than a month later on May 8 (Mother's Day) in San Diego, David tossed 8.0 scoreless innings, then watched from the dugout in the 9th, as Mike Kingery drew a bases loaded walk to push in the only run of the game...after 7 & 8-inning stints in games that ended as shutouts, he went the distance on June 21 vs. Houston in Mile High Stadium the first-ever complete-game shutout in club history, and the Rockies' first-ever blanking of the opposition in Denver, scattering 4 hits and a walk with 4 K's in an 8-0 win over Darryl Kile...that shutout began a career-best 4-game winning streak, covering 5 starts, in which he surrendered 11 runs in 35.0 innings for a 2.83 ERA in that span, including a pair of complete games...the only no decision in that stretch was on July 6 at St. Louis, when he fanned a season-high 6 men...all of this success on the field occurred while Malissa and newly-born son, Tanner David, were residing in New York City over a 2-month period while young Tanner was slowly gaining enough weight to make the trek to his new home in Denver...Tanner was born on June 4 in New York, over 4 months prior to his expected due date, yet he did gain enough weight and strength to make the move to Denver on October 8.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—His career with the Rockies began as the first player taken in the 1992 expansion draft, and the "firsts" continued into the inaugural season of the club...Nied was the first hurler in a spring training game, then was named to start the first regular season game in club history, April 5 against the Mets in Shea Stadium...the long awaited initial game for the Rockies resulted in a 3-0 loss to Doc Gooden, where Nied went 5.0 innings allowing 6 hits and 2 runs...his next start was a 9-5 win over the Expos in Mile High Stadium, a triumph that started a 3-game winning streak...the middle victory in the stretch was his first major league complete game on April 15, avenging his Opening Day loss to Gooden, 5-3...the streak concluded with an 11-2 win in St. Louis on April 21, where he carried a shutout into the 8th inning before surrendering a 2-run homer to Ray Lankford...things went south after that win, as Nied dropped 6 straight decisions over a 7-start stretch...he was named to start an exhibition game at Colorado Springs on June 3, an opportunity to get in some work, but it turned into a disastrous afternoon when he suffered a slight tear in his ulnar collateral ligament which required over 2 months of rest...91 days after the injury, Nied made the first of 4 minor league rehab starts on August 19...his first post-injury start in the majors took place on Sept. 12 in Pittsburgh, a 3.2 inning stint allowing a run and 4 hits...the 6-game losing streak that had been alive since prior to the injury was snapped the next time out, Sept. 17 in Mile High Stadium, going 5.0 shutout innings in earning a 12-3 win over the Dodgers, the same night the Rockies broke the 4,000,000 mark and the MLB all-time season attendance record...he followed that win with a 2nd straight outing of 5.0 shutout innings, this time vs. San Diego...the streak continued to 14.0 consecutive scoreless innings before losing a 6-4 decision at Candlestick Park on Sept. 28...Nied's first appearance in a Colorado uniform was March 6 in Tucson, when he worked 3.0 frames in the exhibition opener vs. San Francisco, posting a 7-2 win over the Giants. 1992—First action on the AAA level, he led the International League in both wins (14) and strikeouts (159) while pitching at Richmond...tied for the league lead in complete games (7), including a pair of shutouts...his 2.84 ERA ranked 4th best in the loop, while the opposition managed a .233 average against...won 10 of 13 decisions by June 28...he allowed only 1 ER in first 19.0 IP of the year with 22 K's...had back-to-back starts, July 25 and July 30, combining for no runs on 4 hits and 5 walks with 16 K's in 17.0 IP...his minor league work resulted in a promotion to Atlanta in late-August, helping the Braves clinch their 2nd straight N.L. West crown...was a member of the 25-man post-season roster, but did not appear...went a 3-0 with a 1.17 ERA in 6 outings (2 starts) with Atlanta, while opponents hit .130. 1991—Opened the year at Class A Durham, going 8-3 in 13 games (12 starts) with a 1.56 ERA, fanning 77 hitters in 80.2 innings, while allowing just 46 hits, 14 earned runs and 23 walks...opposing hitters managed a .162 average while he pitched for Durham...he was then promoted to Greenville (AA), where he won 7 of 10 decisions with a 2.41 ERA in 15 starts...struck out 101 hitters and walked only 20 in 89.2 innings in AA...all totaled in '91, had 178 K's in 170.1 innings. 1990—For the second straight season, he opened at Durham (Carolina League), only to finish at Burlington (Midwest League)...at Durham, he was 1-1 with a 3.83 ERA in 10 starts...he then went to Burlington, going 5-3 in 10 games (9 starts). 1989—Began the season at Durham, going 5-2, but with a 6.63 ERA and an opposing batting average of .303 in 12 starts prompting a move to Burlington...he was 5-6 in 13 games (12 starts) in the Midwest League, fanning 73 hitters in 80.0 innings of work with a 3.83 ERA. 1988—First pro season was with Sumter in the South Atlantic League...he made 27 starts, going 12-9 with a 3.76 ERA, leading the staff in wins and K's, striking out 133 men in 165.1 innings.

PERSONAL: David Glen Nied...he and wife, Malissa, have a son, Tanner David (6-4-94), and make their year round home in Denver...a Texas native, David was an '87 graduate of Duncanville High School, earning all-state honors in both baseball and football...he quarterbacked during his prep gridiron career which included handing the football off to current Pittsburgh Steeler running back Barry Foster...Nied was Atlanta's 14th choice in the 1987 June free agent draft.

47 Omar Olivares

Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-1

Wt: 193

B/T: R/R

Age: 27 (Turns 28 on July 6)

Born: July 6, 1967 in Mayaguez, Puerto Rico

Residence: Ballwin, MO

M.L. Service: 3 year, 93 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, April 8, 1995.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: After spending both the 1992-93 seasons on the major league roster, Omar opened the 1994 campaign at Louisville (AAA)...he made 9 starts for the Redbirds, going 2-1 with a 4.37 ERA, which was a bit inflated due to a pair of tough outings...in that stretch, he missed nearly 3 weeks with a pulled groin but was solid in his final 3 starts prior to a promotion to St. Louis, going 2-0 with a 1.35 ERA in that stretch (3 ER in 20.0 IP)...he was recalled by the big league club on June 10, making his first start the next day at Philly, earning a win with 6.2 innings of work, scattering 7 hits and 4 runs...he followed that with a stretch of no decisions, covering 4 starts, interrupted by his only save of the year, fanning Dante Bichette for the last out of a game at Busch Stadium to preserve a 9-7 Redbird win...in the 4 no decisions, he had an opportunity for victory twice after leaving the game, but the bullpen failed to hold advantage...on July 3 in St. Louis, he gave up just 2 runs on 4 hits over 7.0 innings against the Rockies, retiring 17 of the last 20 men he faced, as Colorado scored 3 times after his departure to post the win...during the 4 ND's, Olivares had a 3.29 ERA, surrendering 10 earned runs in 27.1 innings...he snapped a 2-game slide on July 21 vs. Atlanta, going the distance for just the 2nd time in his big league career in a 6-3 win on a 3-hitter, retiring the last 21 men he faced, not allowing a hit after the 2nd inning...his season ended with a 12-4 win on August 10 at Florida, scattering 9 hits over 7.0 frames, while helping himself with his 3rd career homer.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—Omar worked the majority of the season out of the bullpen, making 49 relief appearances in 58 total outings...he was jockeyed between the pen and starting through the first month, working 6 in relief, then making a start, which he won over Atlanta and Greg Maddux on April 25, a 7-3 decision...then went back to the pen for 2 outings, before making 5 straight starts, then returned to the relief role for 41 consecutive appearances...he did not start again until September 25, winning his 5th decision of the year, a 10-7 triumph over the Marlins...he was tough late, allowing just 6 earned runs in his last 21.0 innings for a 2.57 ERA...the season was interrupted for 15 days in June with a strained groin muscle forcing a stint on the D.L. 1992—His first full season of major league action, Olivares split 18 decisions working almost exclusively as a starter, coming out of the pen just twice in 32 outings...his first career complete game took place on April 24 as he defeated Montreal by scattering 8 hits and 3 runs in the victory...was slowed for nearly a month with a groin pull that occurred on May 16 at Houston, then after trying to come back 10 days later, he wound up on the D.L. until mid-June...he set an obscure club record with each of his 84 runs allowed on the year being earned, the most runs, all earned, surrendered in Redbird history. 1991—Season started in the St. Louis bullpen, but after a trio of relief stints, and a month of AAA seasoning at Louisville, he returned to the big league club to record the most wins by a Redbird rookie since Greg Mathews in 1986...Omar was 11-7 for a .611 winning pct., the 10th best pct. in the N.L...after August 1, he posted an 8-4 ledger and 2.54 ERA...he went 4-2 with a 2.13 ERA in August to win Cardinal-of-the-Month honors...during a 3-start stretch from Sept. 9-19, he carried shutouts into the 9th inning, only to be scored upon in the final frame each time...Olivares fanned a career-best 9 men in the season finale on October 6 at Chicago. 1990—Was acquired by St. Louis from San Diego in a 3-player swap in late-February prior to the opening of spring training due to the labor dispute...he spent the majority of the season at Louisville, working exclusively as a starter, going 10-11 in 23 starts with a 2.82 ERA, including 5 complete games and a pair of shutouts...he fanned a professional best 14 men in a July 7 win vs. Indianapolis...he was recalled by the big league club for the first time on August 17, and made major league debut the next day vs. Houston, allowing a run on 3 hits over 8.0 innings, in a game the Cards eventually lost in extra innings. 1989—His first stint at the AA level, he was named to the Texas League All-Star squad by going 12-11 at Wichita...during a 4-start stint in May, Olivares allowed just 1 earned run in 34.0 innings for a 0.26 ERA...on May 2 vs. El Paso, he tossed a 10-inning shutout on 5 hits with 8 K's in a victory. 1988—Turned around his first pro year, by going 13-6 at Charleston, posting the 2nd best ERA in the South Atlantic League at 2.23...he was promoted to Riverside late in the season. 1987—His first pro year witnessed a 4-14 campaign at Charleston after signing as a free agent with the San Diego chain the previous September.

PERSONAL: Omar Olivares...he and wife, Tracy, have a son, Omar, Jr. (4-5-93) and reside in Ballwin, MO...he was a graduate of Hostos High School in his native Mayaguez, PR, then attended Miami Dade Junior College in Miami, FL, for a year...when he was traded to the Cardinals prior to the '90 season, Omar continued a family tradition, playing for the same club that his father, Ed Olivares, played for in 1960-61.

34 Jayhawk Owens Catcher

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 200 B/T: R/R
Age: 26
Born: February 10, 1969 in Cincinnati, OH
Residence: Castle Rock, CO
M.L. Service: 107 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the twelfth pick in the first round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Minnesota Twins.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: Jayhawk spent the majority of the year on the AAA level, but was recalled to the Rockies for a brief stint on July 14, when Joe Girardi was disabled with an inflamed left knee...at the time of his recall, Owens was hitting .267 with 10 doubles, 7 triples, 6 HR and 44 RBI for Colorado Springs...he had an impressive first start on the 14th vs. St. Louis, tripling, walking twice and scoring 3 runs...wound up 3-for-12 during his 6-game stay with the Rockies then returned to AAA for the balance of the season...while with the Sky Sox, the majority of his offensive production took place prior to his recall, including a 2-double, 5-RBI affair at Phoenix on April 12...Jayhawk's best stretch at the dish was a 7-game hitting streak from May 23-June 1, when he hit .591 (13-for-22)...he combined May & June to hit .348 (39-for-112)...Owens was a .327 hitter (37-for-113) in Sky Sox Stadium, but compiled just a .222 mark (32-for-144) on the road in the PCL...his season ended abruptly when he missed the majority of the final month and the playoffs after having a bone spur removed from his left knee.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—His first year of experience above the AA level, Owens began the season in Colorado Springs and was hitting .325 with 28 RBI thru 37 games, when he was recalled to the big leagues for the first time due to a hand injury to Joe Girardi...his first big league at bat was on June 6 in Philly and resulted in a base hit off of Curt Schilling...that hit started a 6-game streak, in which he batted .474...he had a career-best 3 hits and 3 RBI on June 12 vs. Houston...hit his first big league homer on June 25 at Candlestick Park off the Giants' Bryan Hickerson...busted out of 0-for-21 slide with 2-homer game on July 25 vs. St. Louis...Jayhawk was optioned back to Colorado Springs on August 11 to complete the AAA season, then was recalled again on Sept. 6, batting just once the rest of the way. 1992—His first season as a catcher, after 2 years as an outfielder...caught at Orlando (AA) of the Southern League, hitting .267 in 102 games with 24 doubles...swiped 10 bases, marking the third straight year of double figure thefts...was hitting .303 on June 1, when he hit a slump that witnessed a .171 mark during the month...was hit by 11 pitches. 1991—His play was limited to just 65 games at Visalia (A) due to a broken left hand that occurred in a car accident prior to the start of the season...despite limited playing time, managed 17 doubles, 6 homers and 33 RBI. 1990—he was assigned to Kenosha (A)...batted .236 overall, however, was particularly effective at home, hitting .294 with 5 homers and 21 RBI...was hit by 13 pitches during initial season.

PERSONAL: Claude Jayhawk Owens...he and wife, Jennifer, were married last October and made the move from Ohio to Colorado, settling in Castle Rock, CO...Jayhawk was a 1987 graduate of Glen Este H.S. in Cincinnati, lettering in baseball, basketball and football, then attended Middle Tennessee State University...he was originally drafted by the Boston Red Sox out of high school, however, chose to attend college, then signed as a 2nd round pick of Minnesota's in 1990.

FASTEST TO THE CENTURY CLUB

When the Rockies defeated the Houston Astros on June 22, 1994, it was the club's 33rd win of the year, but also signified the fastest an expansion team had ever reached the 100-win mark in major league history. The 14-5 victory came in the 233rd game in club history, 6 games faster than the Los Angeles Angels, who hit a C-note in franchise game #239. The Florida Marlins were close behind the Rockies, reaching 100 wins in their 238th contest, 2nd fastest in big league annals.

Lance Painter

Lefthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-1

Wt: 195

B/T: L/L

Age: 27 (Turns 28 on July 21)

Born: July 21, 1967 in Bedford, England

Residence: Lakewood, CO

M.L. Service: 131 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the fourth pick in the second round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the San Diego Padres, November 17, 1992.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: For the second straight season, he had a pair of stints with the major league club, this time doubling his win total from the '93 season...for his efforts, he was named by the Colorado chapter of the BBWAA as the Rockies' Rookie-of-the-Year...he went 4-6 in 15 games (14 starts) with a 6.11 ERA...his season opened in Colorado Springs, then on May 17 he was promoted to the Rockies beginning a dizzying 3-week period...he dropped his first 2 starts after the initial recall (vs. Atlanta and at Montreal), then was optioned back to AAA, but that lasted for only a week before he returned to the big league club...after a pair of no decisions upon his return, Painter posted back-to-back wins on June 17 & 22, besting L.A. in Dodger Stadium, 13-5, then the Astros in Denver, 14-5...the win over Houston was his longest outing with the Rockies in '94, an 8-inning stint scattering 10 hits...Lance passed his '93 win total with victories #3 & #4, beating the Cardinals in Mile High on July 16, 15-4...he followed that with an 8-3 win on August 1 at Houston, his 2nd win of the year over the Astros...his lone relief appearance of the year took place just 3 days after his win in the Astrodome, working 2.0 innings...Paint's strikeout high for the year was 6 in a 5-2 loss at Florida on July 8...he surrendered only 2 homers in his first 34.0 innings of the year, but was tagged for 7 roundtrippers in his final 29.2 frames of big league duty...he made the start and absorbed the loss in what ended up being the final game of the year on August 11, a 13-0 shellacking by the Braves, then was optioned to AAA, finishing the year with the Sky Sox...Lance was 4-3 with a 4.79 ERA in 13 overall starts for Colorado Springs.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—A strong spring earned him a spot in the rotation at Colorado Springs, his first-ever stint in AAA...he was recalled to the majors for the first time on May 17 making his major league debut 2 days later against his former organization in San Diego, losing a 7-3 decision...on May 30, Painter retired 12 of the first 13 Phillies he faced, but gave up 3 homers in the 5th inning and wound up with a loss...he was optioned to AAA on June 2 after giving up 26 hits and 18 earned runs in 14.1 innings...his second stint with the Rockies began on August 27, with a different uniform number, caused by the acquisition of Bruce Hurst, who took the #47...this time around, with the #28 on his back, Painter earned his first major league victory on August 29 in New York, going the distance in a 6-1 win over Frank Tanana, scattering 5 hits...he then won a 10-4 decision vs. Pittsburgh...in his second stint with the Rox, Painter was 2-0 with a 2.96 ERA, allowing 8 earned in 24.1 innings...while with the Sky Sox, Painter made the AAA All-Star team that competed in Albuquerque, but he did not get in the game. 1992—Was 10-5 with a 3.53 ERA in 27 starts for Wichita (AA) of the Texas League...opened the season winning 5 of first 7...had season-high 11 K's on July 30 in win at Arkansas...tossed complete game shutout during playoff series against Shreveport. 1991—Posted a 14-8 record with a 2.30 ERA in 28 starts at Waterloo, leading all Class A pitchers with 4 shutouts...he fanned 201 hitters in 200.0 innings, with 7 complete games, placing him 2nd in the league in each category, while his win total ranked 4th...won M.V.P. honors for Waterloo, as well as a spot on the Midwest League All-Star team. 1990—Signed as a 25th round selection of the Padres in the June draft and spent the majority of the year at Spokane working in relief...he went 7-3 with a 1.51 ERA, striking out 104 men and holding the opposition to a .174 mark.

PERSONAL: Lance T. Painter...he and wife, Kelly, were married last October off-season and make their home in Lakewood, CO...Lance was a 1985 graduate of Nicolet (WI) H.S., where he tossed a perfect game during his senior season of baseball...he then attended the University of Wisconsin, pitching for the Badgers...born in Bedford, England, Lance was officially "Americanized" a year ago, going through the formality of becoming an American citizen.

Lloyd Peever

Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 5-11

Wt: 185

B/T: R/R

Age: 23 (Turns 24 on September 15)

Born: September 15, 1971 in Livermore, CA

Residence: Stonewall, OK

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a 4th round selection in the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: His first taste of AA ball, spending the entire season with New Haven...it started slowly for Lloyd, losing his first 3 decisions (4 starts), including a 1.2 inning stint on April 24, when he was tagged for 8 runs at Canton-Akron...he followed that contest with his first win, scattering just 3 hits over 6.0 innings while fanning 10 in a win over Trenton...that turned out to be his last outing for most of the month of May, as Peever spent the next 18 days on the D.L. with tendinitis in his right shoulder...following his recovery from the injury, he made a couple of relief appearances before returning to the starting rotation on June 7, working the 2nd game of a twinbill at Albany...he picked up the win, going 5.2 frames allowing no runs on 3 hits while recording 6 K's...that started a stretch in which Peever proved he had recovered from the shoulder injury, posting a 0.87 ERA over a 6-start stretch, allowing just 4 earned runs in 41.1 innings with 24 hits and 39 K's...opposing hitters managed just a .164 avg. during the 6 games (24-for-146)...he closed that period with back-to-back 3-hitters, going the distance each time, allowing no runs with 8 strikeouts on June 30 at New Britain, then following that on July 5 with an unearned run, no walk and 10-K performance at home over Bowie...his other shutout occurred on August 8 vs. Harrisburg, a 5-hitter where he fanned a season-high 11...Lloyd had 5 starts in which he K'd at least 10 men...he was tough on hitters late in games, working 20.2 frames after the 6th inning and permitting just a .181 mark by the opposition (13-for-72)...the righthanded hurler was also tough on lefties, allowing just a .197 mark on the year.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—Lloyd suffered a first degree sprain of his right elbow ligament during spring training that limited his work until the middle of the season...he was finally activated from the D.L. on June 15, spending the remainder of the season with Central Valley...he was 2-4 in 16 games, making just 7 starts, while throwing a shutout...he did pick up 4 saves during his 9-game stint out of the bullpen. 1992—The 4th pick by the Rockies in their original June draft, Peever was a late-sign and didn't make his professional debut until June 29...it was an impressive debut, working 5.0 innings vs. Eugene, allowing only 3 hits, while fanning 8...he managed 11 appearances (8 starts) for Bend (OR), going 3-2 with a 2.91 ERA, striking out 48 in 43.1 innings.

PERSONAL: Lloyd Charles Peever...he is single and resides in Stonewall, OK...he was a 1989 graduate of Ada (OK) High School, lettering for 4 years in baseball and 3 seasons in football...Lloyd then attended Seminole (OK) JUCO earning Junior College All-American honors, then took his skills to Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge for a year...his lone season of major college baseball produced a spectacular 14-0 record and 1.98 ERA for the Bayou Bengals...his efforts did not go unnoticed, as Peever was named Collegiate Baseball/Mizuno Player-of-the-Year, Baseball America 1st Team All-American, and ABCA 1st Team All-American.

B/T: R/R

Age: 29

Born: March 11, 1966 in Los Angeles, CA

Residence: Arvada, CO

M.L. Service: 1 year, 145 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the fourth pick in the third round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the San Francisco Giants, November 17, 1992.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: His first full year in the majors, Steve led MLB with 61 relief appearances, and has become the early all-time appearance leader in Rockies' history with 125 games in 2 seasons...the first 32 outings of '94 was his best work of the year, giving up just 11 ER in 35.1 IP for a 2.80 ERA...included was a 7-game, 9.2 scoreless inning stretch (April 27-May 13), where he scattered 6 hits and fanned 8...he followed that with a more impressive 10-game, 10.0 scoreless inning stretch (May 21-June 6), giving up 8 hits, with 10 K's...Reed's 3 saves matched his career-best established in '93...his 1st was on May 8, as he tossed the 9th inning to preserve David Nied's 1-0 win in San Diego...his 2nd rescue also occurred in San Diego, 2 1/2 months later, when he fanned Derek Bell on July 26 to hold a 7-6 Rockies' win with the tying run stationed at 3rd base...Steve also recorded the final save in the final win of '94, blanking the Braves in the 6th inning of a rain-shortened, 1-0 win in Mile High on August 10...had a season-high 4 K's on May 21 in a 2-inning stint vs. the Braves...Reed was the winning pitcher in the only win in club history at Riverfront Stadium in Cincinnati, working 2.0 shutout innings on June 12 to post a 3-2 win over the Reds and snap Colorado's 10-game losing streak in the Queen City...he was tagged for only 3 homers in his first 35.1 innings of action, then went through a tough stretch of surrendering 5 dingers over a 9.2 inning period, then became stingy with the long ball again, allowing just 1 homer over his final 18.0 frames of work.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—Steve spent the majority of '93 on the big league club, ranking 2nd on the Rox in wins (9) and appearances (64)...he totaled 75 overall outings, also appearing in 11 games for Colorado Springs...his initial win was on April 23 in Mile High in the first-ever meeting between the Rockies and Marlins, working 3.1 innings of 1-hit relief...even with that win, Reed had a 10.50 ERA through 11 games and was optioned to AAA on May 12...he made the most of his time with the Sky Sox, posting 7 saves and fanning 10 in 12.1 IP of relief while not allowing an earned run...he returned to the Rockies on June 14 and allowed just 3 ER in his first 24.0 IP back (June 14-July 19) for a 1.13 ERA...the stretch included 9.2 consecutive scoreless innings over a 7-game span...Reed posted his first big league save on July 11 vs. St. Louis...he twice pitched out of bases loaded, nobody out situations, with the Rockies posting a victory each time...7 of his 9 wins came in Mile High Stadium, but his road ERA was an impressive 1.60 (6 ER in 33.2 IP)...he inherited 42 baserunners, with 9 crossing the plate. 1992—Earned Rolaids Relief Man-of-the-Year honor for the 17-league National Association (minor leagues) with 129 points, earning a combined 43 saves...ranked 3rd in both the PCL and Texas League in saves, despite spending only half a season in each circuit...began at Shreveport (AA), earning 23 saves in 27 games with a 0.62 ERA (2 ER in 29.0 IP), while not walking a batter, and posting an average against of .175...promoted to Phoenix on June 15 and earned saves in 8 of first 10 outings...made major league debut on August 30 vs. Cubs...did not allow a run in first 6 big league outings...earned first major league win on October 2 at Cincinnati. 1991—Began at Shreveport, going 2-0 with a 0.83 ERA and 7 saves in 15 outings...was promoted to Phoenix on May 21...led the Firebirds in appearances with 41. 1990—Spent the entire year at Shreveport, leading the club in ERA (1.64) and ranking 3rd in appearances (45). 1989—Pitched the majority of the year for Clinton (A) appearing in 60 games, going 5-3 with a 1.05 ERA and 26 saves, while opposing hitters batted .171...named to league All-Star team...made a pair of relief appearances for San Jose at the end of the season. 1988—Signed as an undrafted free agent with the Giants on June 24 and reported to Pocatello (Rookie) for his pro debut...went 4-1 with a 2.54 ERA and 13 saves, earning Pioneer League Rolaids Relief Pitcher-of-the-Year honors...was also named to league All-Star team.

PERSONAL: Steven Vincent (Steve) Reed...he and wife, Terry, had their first child last spring with the birth of Dylan Austin on March 10...they have made their off-season home in Arvada, CO...Steve is a graduate of Chatsworth (CA) High School and attended Lewis & Clark (ID) College.

Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 196 B/T: R/R
Age: 28 (Turns 29 on May 1)
Born: May 1, 1966 in San Luis Potosi, MX
Residence: Jalisco, MX
M.L. Service: 2 years, 31 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the third pick in the third round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Atlanta Braves, November 17, 1992.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: Earned the honor as the Opening Day hurler for manager Don Baylor, going 6.0 innings in a no decision effort against the Phillies on April 4 in Mile High Stadium...he gave up just 5 hits and 2 runs, leaving the contest with a 4-2 advantage, but the Phils spoiled the festivities by scoring 8 times in the 8th inning en route to a 12-6 decision...Armando set the team standard in '93 with 30 starts, despite not opening the season on the roster, but in 1994 he was limited to only 9 starts after being forced to the shelf with an elbow injury that required surgery...the injury occurred on May 20 in a start at home against the Braves, and 6 days later in Birmingham, AL. Dr. James Andrews transplanted a ligament from Reynoso's left wrist into his right elbow to strengthen and add support to the injured area...following that procedure, Dr. Andrews also arthroscopically repaired Armando's right knee that had given him trouble in the early-going, even forcing him out of a game on April 20 vs. Florida after just 4.0 innings of work...prior to his disablement, Reynoso posted a 3-4 ledger in 9 starts, which included a complete game victory in Denver over the Cards, 10-1 on May 3...in that affair, he surrendered a game-opening homer to Ray Lankford, then stifled the Redbirds on just 4 hits the rest of the way, while recording a season-high 6 K's...in the start prior to that victory, Reynoso faced the Cardinals in St. Louis and also gave up a leadoff homer to Lankford in the 1st inning, only this time lost a 2-1 decision to Bob Tewksbury...Armando's next-to-last start prior to the arm injury was one of his top performances in a Rockies' uniform, working 7.0 shutout innings, scattering 7 hits, on May 15 in Houston, posting a 4-0 win over the Astros.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—He opened the year on the AAA roster, but by season's end, his 12 wins earned him club Pitcher-of-the-Year honors, while they tied him for the 2nd most victories by an expansion pitcher, only 1 shy of the all-time mark...he was recalled from Colorado Springs on April 30 and made an immediate impression, going the distance in Florida that night for his first career complete game in a 6-2 win...his 2-2 mark and 3.32 ERA in May earned him Rockie-of-the-Month honors, with each victory a complete game...in fact, his 4 complete games on the year came in his first 5 victories...he twice recorded a career-high 8 K's, each time in route-going efforts vs. the Giants (May 10 in Denver and June 26 at San Francisco)...he became the streak stopper of the starting staff, with 11 of his 12 wins coming after a Rockies loss, and of his 7 no decisions, the Rockies eventually won 6 of those contests...Reynoso's final win of '93 came in the last home game of the year vs. Cincinnati, as he defeated the Reds, 12-7, with 70,069 looking on...he was 7-3 in his 11 Mile High Stadium starts...he led the club with 8 pickoffs, the highest total by an N.L. RHP, with victims including Bip Roberts, Tony Gwynn, Brett Butler, Gregg Jefferies, Deion Sanders, Cory Snyder, Marquis Grissom and Juan Samuel...at the plate, Reynoso's first major league hit was a home run on May 10 in Denver off the Giants' Trevor Wilson...he hit a 2nd home run on August 28 in Shea Stadium off Bobby Jones, a 6th inning, 3-run shot, propelling the Rockies to a 7-5 win...on the hill, Reynoso surrendered 22 homers, the first 14 coming with no one aboard, and a total of 19 solo shots...prior to joining the big league club, he posted a 2-1 record in 4 starts for Colorado Springs. 1992—Spent 2nd full year on the AAA level, going 12-9 with a 2.66 ERA in 28 games (27 starts) at Richmond...combined June and July for a 7-0 mark in 11 starts, allowing just 12 earned runs in 73.2 innings for a 1.47 ERA...from July 18-28, went 3 consecutive starts without allowing an earned run, a span of 22.0 innings...was promoted for the 2nd straight year to Atlanta in September, going 1-0 with a 4.70 ERA in 3 games (1 start) for the N.L. Champs. 1991—Was 10-6 with a 2.61 ERA at Richmond earning a spot on the AAA All-Star team...made 19 starts in 22 outings, firing 3 complete game shutouts...had contract purchased from Richmond on August 8 and won major league debut 3 days later with 6.0 shutout innings of 2-hit ball against Houston...also won his next start on August 16 at San Diego (7.0 IP, 6 H, 2 ER, 5 K's)...the majors got their first look at his outstanding move to 1st base, evidenced by 6 pickoffs in 4 starts from August 16-31, with 5 coming in 1st inning. 1990—Was signed by the Braves as a free agent from the Mexican League on August 15...went 3-1 in 4 games (3 starts) for Richmond with a 2.25 ERA.

MEXICAN LEAGUE: Posted a 20-3 mark and 2.60 ERA in 27 starts for Saltillo in 1990...had 12 complete games, including 5 shutouts and fanned 170 batters in 200.2 innings...tossed a 7-inning no-hitter against Monterrey...in 3 seasons for Saltillo, was a combined 44-23 with 29 complete games and 9 shutouts...teamed for 2 seasons with current Rockies' infielder Vinny Castilla.

PERSONAL: Martin Armando Reynoso (Gutierrez)...he and wife, Yolanda, have a daughter, Alejandra (11-3-89), and son, J. Armando (3-16-93) and reside in Jalisco, MX...he spent a large portion of the past off-season residing in Denver, working daily with trainer Dave Cilladi as he rehabilitated his arm after surgery...he proceeded to the point where he began throwing from a mound in late-January...a 1984 graduate of Escuela Secundaria Mista del Estado in his native Lagos de Moreno, Jalisco, Mexico...upon graduation from high school, Armando played semi-pro baseball in Mexico until joining the Saltillo club in 1988.

Age: 29 (Turns 30 on June 8)

Born: June 8, 1965 in Eatontown, NJ

Residence: Byesville, OH

M.L. Service: 3 years, 82 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the tenth pick in the second round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Detroit Tigers, November 17, 1992.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: After missing all of '93 due to reconstructive surgery on his right elbow, Kevin attended spring training on the minor league side...assigned to AAA, he made 9 appearances for the Sky Sox, including 3 starts, and gave up just 5 ER in 35.0 IP for a 1.29 ERA, going 5-0 in that span, while issuing just 6 walks...his contract was purchased by the Rockies on May 25, making his N.L. debut that night with a 3-inning stint against Cincy in Mile High, allowing 2 runs on 6 hits in a no decision, a game the Rox eventually won, 3-2...his first win occurred on May 30 in Shea Stadium, a 12-2 defeat of the Mets, working 6.0 innings in posting his first major league triumph since July 24, 1992, while with the Detroit Tigers...Ritz then fell into a 4-game losing streak that spanned June 4-19...he followed that with a 3-game win string over 4 starts (July 5-25), working 6.0 innings in each triumph...the 6th inning was his achilles heel throughout his stint with the Rox, giving up 13 ER in what totaled 8.1 6th innings' of work, for a 14.05 ERA...he had a 4.55 ERA for the other innings in his starts (33 ER in 65.1 IP)...Kevin posted the Rockies final win of '94, going 5.2 innings in the club's only win ever over Atlanta in Mile High Stadium, a rain-shortened 1-0 triumph...he matched his season high with 6 K's, equaling his best set on July 5 in Chicago.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—Kevin went to spring training with the Rockies, but battled an arm problem that eventually led to having his right elbow surgically repaired...Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL, performed the operation and Ritz did not pitch during the entire '93 season. 1992—His season was cut short by the beginning of his elbow problems, suffering from tendinitis in late-July, and eventually winding up on the D.L. on August 4, and not pitching the remainder of the year...he opened the year in the pen, making 11 relief appearances, but by May 29, entered the rotation, starting 11 of his next 12 outings...a victory on June 3 in Milwaukee, was his first in the majors since the 1989 season, thus putting an end to a 10-game personal losing streak. 1991—He started the year with Toledo (AAA), then was recalled to the Tigers on May 31...he went 4-2 with a 2.36 ERA in 9 minor league starts prior to his promotion...Ritz went 0-3 in 5 starts and had an 18.00 ERA with the Tigers, thus was returned to AAA on June 23...he was recalled again in late-July, remaining with the big league club the rest of the year, making 6 relief appearances...Kevin finished 5th in the International League in ERA with a 3.28 mark. 1990—He opened the year on the big league roster, but after an 0-4 beginning, was optioned to Toledo on April 27...while pitching at AAA, Kevin went 3-6 in 20 games (18 starts). 1989—He started the year in Toledo, then after 16 starts in which he went 7-8 with a 3.16 ERA, his contract was purchased on July 13 for his first big league stint with the Tigers...his major league debut was 2 days later in Seattle, losing a 9-3 decision...his first big league win came on July 28 in the first game of a doubleheader vs. Minnesota, going 6.0 innings in a 6-4 triumph...his only major league complete game was on August 2, a 6-4 win over Texas in Tiger Stadium...he was tagged with a homer in his first game and last start, the only homers he surrendered in 74.0 innings...he earned Tiger Rookie-of-the-Year honors. 1988—Spent the entire season at Glens Falls, limiting opposing hitters to a .229 average, 5th lowest in the Eastern League. 1987—His first season at Glens Falls, he led the club in wins (8) and IP (152.1). 1986—His first year as a pro, Ritz split the season between Gastonia and Lakeland...he went 1-2 in 7 starts at Gastonia, limiting the opposing hitters to a .218 average...he went to Lakeland, going 3-9 in 18 games (15 starts).

PERSONAL: Kevin D. Ritz...he and wife, Sally, had their first son, Kyle Lucas on March 22, weighing in at 10 lb., 6 oz., joining their daughter, Molly (10-12-92)...Kevin was a 1983 graduate of Davis County (IA) High School, then attended Indian Hills Junior College, the same school that Rockies' scouting director Pat Daugherty coached for 17 years, and where current bullpen coach, Rick Mathews, spent 7 seasons.

18 Bruce Ruffin Lefthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 213 B/T: S/L
Age: 31 (Turns 32 on October 4)
Born: October 4, 1963 in Lubbock, TX
Residence: Austin, TX
M.L. Service: 7 years, 136 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent to a minor league contract, December 8, 1992.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: Bruce began the year in the same set-up role that had ended '93, but by May he became the closer, finishing with 16 saves, 8th best in the N.L....his 56 appearances were 6th most in the majors....his first save opportunity after being moved into the role resulted in a loss at San Diego on May 7, but Ruff made up for it by converting his next 9 save chances....the 2 runs that crossed the plate in the "L" at San Diego were the only blemishes in a 16-game stretch that covered 17.1 innings from April 14-May 23, posting a 1.04 ERA in that span....he entered '94 with 5 saves in 130 career relief appearances, but sped past that number with his 6th save of the season on June 1 in NY....Bruce was tagged for 3 homers in his first 47.0 innings of the year, each time handing the lefty a loss by snapping a tie game....after losing a save opportunity in Atlanta on June 16, he closed the year with rescues in 7 of his last 8 chances....the only time he faced a bases loaded situation was on July 6 in Wrigley Field, when he fanned Mark Parent to close the 8th inning, then recorded a pair of K's in the 9th to save a 2-1 Rox win....though the majority of his work takes place on natural grass, Ruffin excelled on the artificial variety, posting a 1.69 ERA in 14 games (3 ER in 16.0 IP), while limiting opposing averages to .135 on the fake stuff....he went 2-0 with 7 saves in 27 games at Mile High Stadium, and closed his Mile High experience with a 3-0, 8-save ledger in his final 37 outings there.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—Made the club as a non-roster invitee and started the 2nd game in club history at New York, losing a 6-1 decision....served dual roles in the early going, juggling time between starting and relief....he posted back-to-back wins on June 8 @ Pittsburgh and June 13 vs. Houston....the win over the Astros was his best performance as a starter, fanning the first 5 men he faced in the game, winding up with 8 K's over 6.2 innings in a 9-1 win....in July he became a full-time reliever, making 42 appearances, going 3-1 with 2 saves and a 2.40 ERA in that span, while limiting opposing hitters to a .208 average....a weird "break" made him almost unhittable after August 18....on that night, he was nailed on the left foot by a line drive off the bat of Philly's Darren Daulton....after suffering a fractured toe on the play, he finished the year by going 1-0 with 2 saves and a 1.25 ERA, fanning 43 in 36.0 IP....immediately following the injury, he retired 18 consecutive men and did not give up a hit in his next 10.0 innings of action....he established a club record with 16.0 consecutive scoreless innings from August 23-Sept. 9....his save on Sept. 11 vs. Pittsburgh was his 1st since July 31, 1988 vs. Chicago....his 2nd save was one of the most dominating pitching performances all year....in the 1st game of a doubleheader vs. Houston on Sept. 14 in Mile High, he went 4.0 innings, with 9 of the 12 outs coming via the strikeout....that relief stint established a club record for K's in a game and tied his all-time best that occurred twice previously as a starter....his 8.11 K's per 9-innings was the best ratio on the staff, setting a career-high with 126 strikeouts, breaking his previous best of 93 set in 1987 with Philly, despite pitching 65.0 fewer innings in '93....he did not allow an ER in 19 of his last 22 outings. 1992—His only A.L. duty witnessed a 1-6 mark and 6.67 ERA in 25 games (6 starts) with Milwaukee....the lone win was on April 8 over Minnesota....after 21 games with the Brewers, was 1-3 with 6.65 ERA then sent to Denver on July 24....pitched well for the Zephyrs, going 2-0 with a 1.25 ERA in 3 starts, including a streak of 16.0 straight shutout innings at the time of his recall on August 5 back to Milwaukee....his best outing for the Brewers came in a loss 7 days later in Anaheim, as he went all the way allowing 4 hits and 2 runs while tying a career best with 9 K's, losing a 2-1 decision....he was traded to the Brewers on December 11, 1991, in exchange for infielder Dale Sveum. 1991—He began the season at Scranton-Wilkes Barre, going 4-5 in 13 starts, with a complete game....was recalled to Philadelphia on June 8, making 5 straight relief appearances....had an emergency start on June 21 vs. Houston and went 8.0 innings allowing 3 hits and no runs for a combined shutout, earning 2 month stint in rotation....he tossed 3rd career shutout on July 20 at San Diego, allowing just 2 hits while fanning 6. 1990—Was used as a starter in 25 of 32 appearances....struggled through 6-game losing streak....established career-high with 9 strikeouts on June 5 at St. Louis. 1989—Made 23 starts (24 outings) for Phils, going 6-10 with a 4.44 ERA....was sent to Scranton-Wilkes Barre after just 2 starts, but went 5-1 in AAA and was recalled on June 2. 1988—Began the year in the starting rotation for Philly, but after 15 outings was moved to the bullpen....finished with a career-high 55 appearances and the first 3 saves of his pro career. 1987—Set career highs in wins (11), starts (35), innings (204.2) and K's (93). 1986—Was tied for the Eastern League lead in wins (8) and ranked 2nd in strikeouts (68) when he was brought up by the Phils on June 24 to replace Steve Carlton in the rotation....made major league debut 4 days later in St. Louis....first big league win came on July 3 vs. Cincinnati before a crowd of over 60,000 at The Vet....Phillies were 15-6 in his 21 starts....finished 9-4 with 6 complete games and was named the starting pitcher on TOPPS Rookie team. 1985—Signed as a 2nd round choice by the Phillies in the June draft....was a compensation pick for Pittsburgh's signing of Sixto Lezcano....went 5-5 in 14 starts at Clearwater with a 2.88 ERA.

PERSONAL: Bruce Wayne Ruffin....he and wife, Melissa, have two sons, Chance (9-8-88) and Hunter (7-8-91), and reside in Austin, TX....a graduate of J.M. Hanks H.S. in El Paso, TX, lettering in baseball and football....then attended the University of Texas (Austin), where he was a member of the 1983 College World Series champions, teaming with future major leaguers Roger Clemens and Calvin Schiraldi....he was also a member of the 1984 & '85 teams that also went to Omaha, but fell short of winning the title.

24 Tom Schmidt Infielder

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 200 B/T: R/R
Age: 22
Born: February 12, 1973 in Towson, MD
Residence: Perry Hall, MD
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as the 24th round selection in the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: His 2nd straight season at Central Valley, Tom was the everyday 3rd baseman for manager Bill Hayes, with his power numbers falling off from his previous season there, hitting just 9 homers in '94 following a 19-homer campaign the year before...though he didn't hit for average, batting an overall .243, he did have his moments at the plate...most of his offensive success came early in the year, with an 11-game span from April 24-May 6, hitting .343 (12-for-35) with 7 RBI...Schmidt followed that in mid-May with a 12-game stretch in which he was a .300 hitter (12-for-40), including homers in 3 consecutive games from May 19-21...his best production came after snapping an 0-for-15 slide on June 25 with a 3-hit, 2 RBI contest against San Jose that jump started a 10-game period in which Tom batted .486 (18-for-37) with 5 runs scored and 13 RBI, and peaking his season average at .256...included was a 4th of July affair against Lake Elsinore, going 3-for-4 with a pair of doubles and season-best 4 RBI...his season was halted abruptly after play on August 9 due to blood clots in his shoulder.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—Schmidt displayed the potential of a power hitting 3rd baseman, smacking 19 homers in 126 games at Central Valley, while driving in 62...overall, he batted .245, while adding 15 doubles. 1992—Tom reported to Bend (OR) with the majority of the first draft class in club history, hitting .257 in 68 games, tying for club-high honors with 7 home runs, and showing some speed on the bases with 17 thefts.

PERSONAL: Thomas William (Tom) Schmidt...he is single and makes his off-season home in Perry Hall, MD...he was a 1990 graduate of Loyola High School in Towson, MD, lettering in baseball and soccer...Tom then played JUCO baseball at Brevard Community College in Brevard, FL, earning his A.A. in 2 years there...his father, Tom, played minor league baseball in the '50's with the then-Toronto Maple Leafs.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, April 8, 1995

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: Bill led the Giants' starting staff in ERA for the 2nd straight year, posting a 3.38 mark, which was actually a bit misleading as to how he performed throughout the season...his final performance of '94 was a 3.1 inning stint on August 7, where he was tagged for 10 hits and 7 earned runs in Houston, raising his season ERA from the 2.89 mark entering that contest...his best work came in the first half of the season, going 8-5 with a 2.64 ERA through mid-June...Swift began the year extremely strong, allowing only 1 earned run in his first 3 starts, a span of 21.2 innings for a 0.42 ERA...including in that stretch was a pair of combined shutouts, 2-0 on April 5 vs. the Pirates, and 6-0 on Tax Day at Florida, when he came within an out of a complete game...he was cruising with a 6-3 record and 2.61 ERA through 9 starts, when his right side tightened during a start at Houston on May 17, forcing him to the D.L. for the first of 2 stints...his return to the hill on June 6 was a typical "Swift" performance, going 8.0 innings at Pittsburgh, allowing just a solo homer to Al Martin, and 3 hits total in what wound up a 4-3 victory...Bill and his sinker recorded 21 of 24 outs via the ground ball, with first baseman Todd Benzinger tying a N.L. record with 20 putouts, 2 shy of the major league standard...that victory put the wraps on a 4-game winning streak that had begun prior to the injury, posting a 1.57 ERA in that stretch, allowing just 5 earned runs in 28.2 innings...after 3 more starts, going 1-2 in those outings, Bill suffered from inflammation in the lat muscle on his right side and was shelved for a month...he made just 4 starts after his 2nd stint on the D.L., going 0-2 with a pair of no decisions...the ND's were his first of the year, posting a decision in his first 14 mound appearances, and in 15 of his 17 overall outings...the "Stick" was no problem, as Swift went 5-2 with a 1.98 ERA in 9 starts at home.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Since joining the National League prior to the 1992 season, Bill has posted a 39-19 ledger and 2.70 ERA...during his first 4 seasons of major league duty with the Mariners, he totaled a 23-34 ledger and a 4.78 ERA...in the last 5 seasons since that slow beginning, Swift has combined the years for an impressive 46-25 mark and 2.56 ERA in 725.0 innings...he has also been no slouch at the plate in his career, hitting .218 overall, including 3 doubles last year and 7 in his 3-year stint in the National League. 1993—Entering spring training as a question mark due to injuries, Bill removed any doubts with a 21-8 record and 2.82 ERA, combining with John Burkett as the winningest duo in the majors...with Burkett, who won 22 games for the Giants, the two became the first 20-win tandem for San Francisco since 1966 (Juan Marichal and Gaylord Perry)...Swift's performance earned him the 2nd place vote in the Cy Young Award balloting behind perennial winner Greg Maddux...Bill was dominant at times, posting winning streaks of 7, 6, 4 and 3 games...he gave up 2 earned runs or fewer in 20 of his 34 starts, including 8 starts with no earned runs...his wins, starts, innings pitched (232.2) and strikeouts (157) were all career bests...he wound up 3rd in the N.L. in wins, 4th in ERA, 5th in opponents batting average (.226) and 6th in winning pct. (.724)...during the 2nd half of the campaign, he suffered through an 0-3 stretch in 7 games, but finished strong, winning his last 4 starts with a 0.56 ERA, allowing just 2 earned runs in 32.0 innings...Swift formed his own 21-21 club, getting 21 hits at the plate, while earning the 21 victories...the 21 hits were one more than the previous club mark for a pitcher, when Marichal had 20 in 1968. 1992—Bill won the N.L. ERA crown with a 2.08 mark, the lowest title qualifier since '85 (Doc Gooden, 1.53), and the 2nd lowest in S.F. history (Bob Bolin, 1.98 in '68)...in 14 of his 22 starts, Swift allowed 1 or 0 earned runs, and had 3 or fewer in 19 of the 22 mound calls...in half of his 8 losses, he posted a 1.13 ERA, giving up just 3 earned runs in 24.0 innings, as the Giants were blanked in 3 of those games...from the "obscure record file", he tied a major league record on May 2 vs. the Phillies by recording all 3 putouts in an inning, just the 9th pitcher in history to do so...he had a whirlwind first month, winning as the opening day hurler on April 6 in Los Angeles, 8-1, then tossed a 6-hit shutout in Atlanta in his next start on April 11...from there, he flew to Washington to be with his wife, Michelle, who was expecting the couple's 2nd child, but when that did not occur, he returned to the club for his next start on April 16, going the distance in a 6-1 win over San Diego at The Stick, also wielding a stick, going 2-for-4 with a pair of doubles at the plate...he followed that by upping his record to 4-0 with a 6-1 win on April 21 in the Astrodome, then returned to Washington, where his daughter was born 2 days later...he went on the D.L. on May 23 with inflammation in his right shoulder, missing 26 games, with the Giants going 8-18 while he was out...upon his return, Swift was tagged with his first loss of the year in tough fashion, losing a 1-0 decision on July 2 vs. St. Louis, allowing an unearned run in 6.0 innings...he went back to the D.L. on August 25 with a strained right triceps muscle and switched to relief after his return in September. 1991—For the first time in his career, and final year with the Mariners, he was used exclusively in relief, leading the staff with 17 saves (18 opportunities) in 71 appearances...his 71 trips to the hill were the 4th most in the A.L., while setting a club mark for relievers with a 1.99 ERA...he didn't make his '91 debut until April 26, missing the first few weeks with a pulled right calf muscle...his first save came on May 6 in a Seattle win over the Yankees...had a stretch of 17.0 consecutive scoreless innings from June 25-July 30, then after giving up a pair of runs on July 31, he began a shutout streak of 15.1 straight frames...earned 11 saves with a 1.36 ERA after the All-Star break...he was named Seattle's Pitcher-of-the-Year by a vote of the area BBWAA chapter. 1990—Swift spent the majority of the season in the bullpen, making 8 starts in 55 appearances, totaling a 6-4 record with 8 saves...he led the club in ERA with a 2.39 mark, which included a 0.50 month of June...his first start was a success, going 8.0 scoreless innings, allowing just 3 hits at Cleveland on July 15...he was literally knocked out of a start on August 5, taking a Gary Gaetti line drive off his forehead...his stint as a starter was impressive, going 3-2 with a 2.10 ERA, but then returned to the pen for the remainder of the year...he excelled indoors, posting a 1.34 ERA in the Kingdome. 1989—Season started on the disabled list due to a pulled groin suffered in spring training...after a pair of rehab starts at San Bernardino, he was activated on April 27, making one relief appearance before going the rotation on May 1...was 7-3 in 37 games, making 16 starts...best outing was September 30, a complete game 4-hitter vs. Minnesota, allowing only one run...his first major league save occurred on July 29 vs. Oakland...he was 2-0 in relief and 5-3 as a starter. 1988—Swift opened the year in relief, but had a brief stint there, making just one bullpen appearance...tossed a complete game victory on May 28 in the Kingdome over the Yankees, 6-1, as the Mariners set a major league record with 22 infield assists...tossed his first major league shutout on June 26 vs. Kansas City...suffered through a 6-game losing streak, July 2 - August 16, and was returned to the bullpen. 1987—Had a very short season, starting the year in Calgary, making 5 starts, but injuring his elbow on April 21, spending the remainder of the campaign on the disabled list...he had bone spurs removed from the damaged elbow on June 11. 1986—Bill made 29 appearances (17 starts) for the Mariners, going 2-9 with a 5.46 ERA...he opened the year in relief, then moved to the rotation on June 1...after 4 starts, he was optioned to Calgary, then recalled back to the big league club on August 4, after splitting 8 decisions, including a trio of complete games for Calgary. 1985—He was invited to major league camp in his initial pro season, then was assigned to Chattanooga (AA) for his first taste of professional ball...went 2-1 in 7 starts for the Lookouts, and was recalled to the Mariners for his first major league duty after just 2 months in the minors...pitched 5.0 scoreless innings of relief to win his big league debut on June 7 in Cleveland...his first major league start was on June 11 vs. Chicago...he was victorious in 2 of his first 3 decisions, then suffered through a 5-game losing streak.

PERSONAL: William Charles (Bill) Swift...he and wife, Michelle, have two daughters, Aubrey (11-28-90) and MacKenzie (4-23-92), and they reside in Paradise Valley, AZ...he was a graduate of South Portland (ME) High School, then went 26-7 during a 4-year pitching career for the University of Maine, earning 2nd team All-American honors in both 1982 & '83...Bill pitched for Team USA at the World Championships in 1982, and the Pan Am games in '83, and also appeared in Dodger Stadium for the 1984 U.S. Olympic Team...Swift was inducted into the State of Maine's Hall-of-Fame after his Olympic appearance...he is one of 15 children in the Swift household which included sisters Helen (oldest sibling), Peggy, Alice, Nancy, Rosemary, Shirley, Cathleen, Mary and Arlene, and brothers Herbie, Jr., Bobby, Johnny, Mike and Peter (only sibling younger than Bill)...Bill was a spokesperson for Cystic Fibrosis while with the Giants...he was originally drafted by the Minnesota Twins in the 2nd round of the 1983 June draft, but chose to remain at the University of Maine...he was then a first round pick of the Mariners in the '84 draft, the 2nd overall player taken in that draft.

Jim Tatum

Catcher/Infielder

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 200 B/T: R/R

Age: 27 (Turns 28 on October 9)

Born: October 9, 1967 in San Diego, CA

Residence: Englewood, CO

M.L. Service: 1 year, 27 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the ninth pick in the second round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Milwaukee Brewers, November 17, 1992.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: Jimmy spent the entire year at AAA, establishing a Colorado Springs record with a .351 average, leading the club with 97 RBI and tying for team honors with 21 homers...he tied for 1st in the PCL in extra-base hits (65), was 2nd in doubles (43), 3rd in average and slugging pct. (.597) and was 5th in RBI...season didn't start that promising, as Tatum batted .212 (12-for-57) with no homers and 8 RBI during April...after April 25, he never went more than 2 games without a hit, posting 4-for-4 games on 4 occasions...he offset the slow start with a .411 mark in May (30-for-73) with 10 doubles, 2 homers and 13 RBI...hitting streaks followed Jim the rest of the season, beginning with a 16-gamer in June, batting .407 with 17 RBI in the skein...late-July witnessed the start of a 13-game streak, in which he was a .418 hitter...he saved the best for last, hitting safely in a season-best 17 straight in August, batting .431 with 8 doubles, 5 homers and 16 RBI...his 4-hit performance on June 14 vs. Albuquerque included 10 total bases, as he had his first of 4 multi-homer games...he had a season-high 5 RBI on September 2 vs. Phoenix...defensively, Jimmy made the transition from infielder to catcher, sharing the chores with Jayhawk Owens, but working exclusively behind the plate after Owens suffered a season-ending knee injury in August.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—After 7 full seasons in the minors, Tatum made the big league club out of spring training and was utilized almost exclusively as a righthanded pinch hitter...his 67 AB's off the bench ranked 2nd in the N.L. to St. Louis' Gerald Perry, who had 70 pinch AB's...Tatum finished 4th in the league with 17 pinch hits, hitting .254 with a homer and 11 RBI...he accomplished 3 different "firsts" on one swing of the bat on May 4 in Chicago, hitting a Jose Guzman pitch for a grand slam...it was his first career homer, the Rockies first-ever grand slam and first pinch-hit homer, as the club posted a wild 14-13 win...he made just 7 starts in the field, 4 at 1st base, 2 at 3rd base and 1 in leftfield...he was not quite as successful at the plate when in the lineup, going 3-for-21 with 1 RBI in a starting role...he was optioned to Colorado Springs on August 19, then returned to the Rockies upon the end of the AAA season, but closed the year going 0-for-14 in the last 20 games. 1992—Won the American Association M.V.P. award, while posting the top average in the league with a .329 mark...it was the 2nd straight year a Denver Zephyr won M.V.P. honors, with Jim Olander also securing the award in '91...Tatum also led the loop in hits (162), doubles (36), total bases (261) and sacrifice flies (11)...he was a .367 hitter in 67 homes games at Mile High Stadium. 1991—Spent the entire season at El Paso (AA), earning spots on both the mid-season and post-season All-Star squads...led the Texas League in sacrifice flies (20) and HBP (15), while ranking 2nd in RBI (128), 4th in batting (.320), hits (158) and extra-base hits (53). 1990—Started in the Cleveland chain, but hit just .179 in 30 games at Canton-Akron, and was released...signed a minor league contract with Milwaukee, and hit .262 in 70 games at Stockton, with 12 homers. 1989—Did not play professionally, but was signed by the Cleveland organization on September 14.

PERSONAL: Jimmy Ray (Jim) Tatum, Jr...he and wife, Laura, have a son, Trevor James (7-14-94), and reside in Englewood, CO...a 1985 graduate of Santee High School (CA), lettering in baseball, football and basketball...played Colt League baseball in California, winning the Colt World Series in 1984...following the '94 AAA season, Tatum played in the Arizona Fall League for Sun Cities, honing his skills as a catcher, while hitting .265 in 38 games, with 7 homers and 19 RBI...upon his return to Denver, he kept himself busy in the off-season selling cars at a local Cadillac dealer.

32 Mark Thompson Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 205 B/T: R/R
Age: 24
Born: April 7, 1971 in Russellville, KY
Residence: Russellville, KY
M.L. Service: 12 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as the 2nd round selection of the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: He began his 3rd year of pro ball where he wrapped his 2nd season, on the AAA level...coming off the injury-shortened campaign in '93, Mark didn't hit his stride until July, winning 3 straight starts, going the distance in a pair of them, allowing just 5 earned runs in 25.0 innings in that span for a 1.80 ERA...it was then that the organization decided to give him a shot at the majors, making Thompson the first amateur draftee of the Rockies to appear in a major league game...in joining the big league club, he became the 8th player who was selected in the '92 draft to make it to the big leagues, and 5th pitcher...Mark won his debut, taking a 6-5 decision at San Diego on July 26, giving up 3 runs in 5.2 innings of work...his 2nd and last major league start in '94 took place in Candlestick Park on July 31 against a fellow Kentucky Wildcat, as he went head-to-head with former college teammate William Van Landingham...Van Landingham got the best of this battle, defeating Thompson, 9-4, as Mark gave up 6 runs in 3.1 innings of action...he was optioned back to AAA on August 2, going 0-2 in his remaining outings with the Sky Sox.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—His season started at Central Valley, and progressed to the AAA level at Colorado Springs, but wound up being cut short by a shoulder injury...he went 3-2 in 11 starts in A-ball, dominating early by allowing just 3 ER in his first 5 starts, for a 0.96 ERA...he had a 1-0 record to show for his early work, but in none of his first 5 starts did he allow more than 4 hits, while limiting the opposition to just one hit twice...upon departing the California League, Mark had posted 72 K's in 69.2 innings...he was an immediate success at AAA, going 3-0 in 4 starts, then disaster hit on June 30 while warming up in the bullpen...he felt a twinge in his right shoulder, that resulted in having his shoulder scoped on July 26 by Dr. Wayne Gersoff at University Hospital in Denver, repairing some minor fraying of the labrum...prior to the injury, Thompson went the distance twice in 4 outings for the Sky Sox, including his AAA debut on June 8 at home vs. Edmonton, scattering 6 hits and 2 runs (1 earned) with a walk and 6 K's...though his time in Central Valley was brief, Baseball America selected him the 5th best major league prospect in the California League. 1992—The Rockies second choice in their initial June draft, he went to Bend (OR), and posted an 8-4 ledger in 16 starts...he started the historical first game in organizational history on June 16 in Bend, fanning 6 and allowing 5 hits and a run in 5.0 innings...he was not the pitcher of record that night, but Thompson went on to win 3 in a row to open his pro career...he led the Northwest League in strikeouts (102), innings (106.1), complete games (4) and tied for first in starts (16), and was named by Baseball America as the starting righthander on their All-Star squad.

PERSONAL: Mark Radford Thompson...he makes his off-season home in Russellville, KY, where he was a 1989 graduate of Logan County High School, lettering in baseball, football and basketball...he then attended the University of Kentucky in Lexington, where he was a 3-year letterman in baseball, teaming with current San Francisco Giant hurler, William Van Landingham.

35 John Vander Wal Infielder/Outfielder

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 190 B/T: L/L
Age: 28 (Turns 29 on April 29)
Born: April 29, 1966 in Grand Rapids, MI
Residence: Royal Palm Beach, FL
M.L. Service: 2 years, 162 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired with a player to be named (Ronnie Hall) from the Montreal Expos in exchange for cash considerations, March 31, 1994.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: After spending the majority of spring training with Montreal, John was acquired by the Rockies on March 31, and conveniently took the Expos' charter to Vancouver, BC, to join his new club for an exhibition series that included a game against his old club...once the regular season began, he appeared in 91 games, primarily in a pinch-hit role, but also had a handful of starts in the outfield and at first base...his pinch-hit (14) and pinch-at bat (58) totals led the majors...during April, he was 5-for-16 (.313), working exclusively as a pinch hitter...his first start came on May 14 at Houston in leftfield, going 0-for-2...Vandy's only pinch homer of the year was a big one, a 2-run blast in Mile High off Jose Rijo to knot the score at 2-2 in the 5th inning...Andres Galarraga snapped the tie with a solo blast off Rijo in the 6th to give the Rox a 3-2 win over Cincy...his long ball success vs. the Reds continued on June 10-11, going deep off John Roper on the 10th, then taking Kevin Jarvis over the wall the next night...despite spot duty, Vandy had a career-best 6-game hitting streak from July 29-August 3, going 8-for-14 (.571)...during the streak, he ruined Doug Drabek's run at the record book by breaking up his no-hit bid on August 2 with an 8th inning solo homer in the Astrodome...he was responsible for 4 pitching changes, getting as far as the on-deck circle before the opposing manager called on a southpaw after John was announced.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—His second full season on the major league roster with the Expos was similar to his '94 year with the Rox, working as a pinch hitter, extra outfielder, and filling in at first base...he was the starting leftfielder for Felipe Alou in the first Rockies' game ever played in Mile High Stadium, and scored the first run ever by an opponent in Denver, crossing the plate in the 9th inning...his biggest moment of the year came in Dodger Stadium when he hit a 2-out, 3-run, 9th inning homer off Los Angeles' Jim Gott to tie the game at 6-6...the Expos then scored 3 times in the 10th inning to get the win, 9-6, as Vandy also set a career-best with 4 RBI...he homered in consecutive games for the first time in his career on April 30 and May 1 off San Francisco's Bill Swift and Jeff Brantley, respectively...he repeated the feat on July 16 & 17 in L.A. against the Dodgers (Orel Hershiser and Gott). 1992—Worked off the bench in a pinch-hit capacity, in addition to spot starts in the outfield and at first base...he was Montreal's top lefty in a pinch role, posting a .383 on-base pct., getting 6 hits and 12 walks...he hit the first pinch homer of the year for the Expos on August 16, taking St. Louis' Mike Perez deep...it was Montreal's first pinch homer since Ivan Calderon on September 11, 1991...he had a pair of 5-game hitting streaks and from July 7-21, hit safely in 11 of 13 games at a .367 clip. 1991—John opened the season with Indianapolis (AAA), and by seasons end earned a spot on the American Association post-season All-Star team, and his first promotion to the majors...he was selected to play in the AAA All-Star Game in Louisville on July 10...he was the National Association Topps' Player-of-the-Month for July, hitting .339 with 4 homers and 25 RBI in 27 games...he had a 16-game hitting streak (July 6-25) in which he batted .400...was recalled on September 6, making his debut as a pinch hitter that night...he singled on the first pitch thrown by Cincy's Scott Scudder, tying the M.L. mark for fewest pitches seen for first hit (Jay Gainer also tied that record last year)...his first homer came on September 14 off Chicago's Shawn Boskie and fortunately he hit in Wrigley Field, where the fans throw the ball back and it's now safely on his mantle at home...spent only 3 days in Montreal, because shortly after his recall, went on the unscheduled 28-day road trip that was forced by the concrete collapse at Olympic Stadium.

PERSONAL: John Henry Vander Wal...he and wife, Deb, make their off-season home in Royal Palm Beach, FL, but also spend a portion of the winter in his native Michigan...he was a 1984 graduate of Hudsonville (MI) High School, lettering in baseball, basketball and football...from there he attended Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo for three years, where he studied civil way history...he was originally signed by the Expos as a 3rd round pick in the 1987 June draft.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as the 13th round selection of the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: Mark established himself as a closer in the system last year, but it was through trial and error before making his mark...his season began where the '93 campaign ended, with Central Valley, where Voisard made 18 appearances for those Rockies, the first 14 coming out of the bullpen...as a relief specialist, he did not allow an earned run in his first 16.2 frames of action, covering 9 games, going 2-1 with 2 saves...overall in a relief role for C.V., Mark went 3-1 with a 1.29

ERA, allowing just 4 earned runs in 28.0 innings...on May 19, he made his first of 4 consecutive starts for the Rox, and despite an 0-1 mark in those games, he gave up just 5 ER on 9 hits in 18.2 innings for a 2.41 ERA and opposing batting average of .127 while starting...Voisard was promoted to AA after a June 5 start in Central Valley, and was used in the same role in his first appearance for New Haven, working 5.0 innings in the 2nd game of a doubleheader at Albany, earning the victory...after that affair, he was moved to the bullpen, making 28 consecutive relief appearances to close the year...out of the pen, Mark was 2-2 with 15 saves and a 1.64 ERA for the Ravens...his best work came in a 16-game stretch from June 14-August 1, when he surrendered only 1 earned run in 20.2 frames for a 0.44 ERA, earning 8 saves...there was no margin for error for the young reliever, with the lone tally he gave up in that 16-game span resulting in a loss...after joining New Haven, Mark was scored on in just 6 of his 28 relief stints, and only once was he saddled with as many as 2 runs...the opposition was only 1-for-9 when Voisard was in a bases loaded situation.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—He spent the entire year at Central Valley and struggled to find a niche in the staff, making 21 appearances for the Rockies, with 14 coming as a starter...overall, he was 3-6 with a 6.12 ERA, posting 61 K's in 82.1 innings...his season was interrupted on the 4th of July with tendinitis in his right shoulder, keeping on the sidelines until August 10. 1992—Mark's first year as a pro, he made only 1 start in 26 games for Bend (OR)...he was 5-2 with a 4.42 ERA, while posting a couple of saves and recording 65 K's in just 53.0 innings.

PERSONAL: Mark Allen Voisard...he is single and makes his off-season home in his native Sidney, OH...he was a 1988 graduate of Lehman High School in Sidney, lettering in baseball, football and basketball...from there he attended Mt. Vernon Nazarene College, twice making the NAIA District Playoffs on the diamond...he had an excellent stint with Sun Cities in the Arizona Fall League upon completion of the '94 regular season, making 11 appearances for the Solar Sox, allowing just 2 earned runs in 16.2 innings for a 1.08 ERA.

REMEMBERING THE EARLY DAYS IN BEND

Despite moving their short-season A club to Portland in the Northwest League, the Rockies will always remember Bend, OR as the site of their first game in franchise history. On June 16, 1992, the Bend Rockies took the field against the Boise Hawks before a record crowd. Made up of signees from the first June draft, the Rockies entered the 8th inning trailing 4-1. Will Scalzitti, a catcher drafted in the 6th round, provided the heroics hammering a grand slam onto the Albertson's building beyond the leftfield fence and giving the lead and eventual victory to the Rockies by a final count of 6-4.

Mark Thompson, the 2nd selection in the draft, threw the first pitch in franchise history, but did not factor in the decision. He did, however, wind up leading the Northwest League in innings pitched (106.1), strikeouts (102) and complete games (4). In 1994, Thompson became the first ever draftee to make it to the big leagues, appearing in two games for the Rockies, winning his major league debut in San Diego against the Padres.

Upon conclusion of that first season, four players were among the top 10 prospects in a poll managers, as Jason Hutchins (#1), Thompson (#2), Roger Bailey (#5) and Jason Bates (#7) caught the eye of opposing mentors. Thompson, Bailey and Bates were all members of the Rockies' 40-man roster entering the spring camp of 1995.

33 Larry Walker Outfielder

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, April 8, 1995.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: A two-time Gold Glove winner as an outfielder, the native Canadian had to take his act to first base for a portion of the '94 season to take as much strain off his right shoulder as possible to survive the campaign...a hockey player as a youth, Walker leaned on that experience to play through the injury that eventually required surgery at the end of the season...it turned out to be a successful final season in a Montreal uniform, hitting .322 with 19 homers and 86 RBI...he wound up tied for the N.L. lead in doubles with 44, just 2 shy of the Montreal club record set during a full 1979 season by Warren Cromartie...his RBI total was 6th best in the league, and batting average finished 7th, while he was 2nd in extra-base hits (65), 7th in slugging pct. (.587) and 10th in on-base pct. (.394)...Walker tied a club record with 3 doubles on August 3 vs. St. Louis, the 2nd such game of his career...on June 20, also against the Cardinals, he tied a career best with 4 hits in a game, then accomplished it for the 7th and 8th times in his career on June 28 vs. Atlanta, and July 31 @ Florida...as if the Cardinals hadn't seen enough of him, Larry tied another best on August 4 in Olympic Stadium, with the 4th 2-homer game of his career, this time off the Redbirds' Bob Tewksbury...he had a pair of 9-game hitting streaks each time falling a game shy of his career best of 10 straight, set 3 times, the most recent in 1993...he was honored for his efforts in July, earning the Expos Player-of-the-Month award, hitting .355 with 9 doubles, 4 homers, 24 RBI, and doing all this while also visiting a pair of MDs regarding his shoulder...Larry had an MRI performed (Magnetic Resonance Imaging) in Montreal on June 23 by Dr. Larry Coughlin, which revealed a small rotator cuff tear that initially received a cortisone shot...a month later, he redefined the word "paradox", seeing two doctors in a 3-day span...on July 23, he was MRI'd again by Dr. Coughlin, who reported a significant reduction in inflammation, plus greater range of motion and less pain...then 2 days later, he flew to Birmingham, AL, to be examined by specialist Dr. James Andrews, whose diagnosis concurred with the previous MRI's...upon Walker's return to the starting lineup, he became the everyday first baseman in deference to the shoulder injury, playing 35 games on the corner and batting .364 (48-for-132) with 8 homers and 36 RBI...defensively, the only outfield work he received was a 2-inning stint in right on July 30 when Cliff Floyd suffered an injury... '94 was anything but dull for Walker when he played rightfield, continuing to show off his arm in a variety of ways...on April 19, he threw out pitcher John Burkett on what appeared to be a single to right in Candlestick Park, the 3rd time in his career that he zapped a potential baserunner...in 1992, Walker threw out San Diego's Tony Fernandez and Pittsburgh's Tim Wakefield, each time after what had appeared to be base hits...then there was the infamous evening in Dodger Stadium on April 24, a contest documented by ESPN as part of their Sunday Night package...Larry was tagged with a pair of "throwing" errors, each equaling a total distance of zero footage traveled...Brett Butler led off the bottom of the 1st with a double, which Walker fielded on the warning track, but when he turned to throw, the ball slipped out of his hand, bounced off his right shoulder and landed at his feet...just 2 innings later, Larry made a running catch of a foul fly for what he thought was the final out of the inning, but was only the 2nd...with Jose Offerman tagging on the play, Walker graciously handed the ball to 9-year old Sebastian Napier, sitting in the first row of seats in Dodger Stadium, again ringing up no distance on the "throwing" error...though the only assist he gained on that evening was to the young Napier, Walker did pick up 5 outfield assists during the season, and entered '95 with 53 total outfield assists...proud of his heritage, Walker entered 1995 as the third most prolific home run hitter among native Canadians with 99 major league dingers...his 99th on August 9 vs. the Pirates passed Pete Ward for the 3rd spot, ranking behind Jeff Heath (194) and George Selkirk (110)...Larry underwent surgery on October 4 at Queen Elizabeth Hospital in Montreal by Dr. Coughlin to repair the slightly torn rotator cuff and a labrum tear in the right shoulder.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—Larry had the first 20-20 season of his career, the 6th in Montreal club annals and first-ever in the majors by a Canadian born player...he accomplished the feat with 21 homers and 29 stolen bases despite playing in just 138 games due to various injuries that nagged him throughout the year...his 20-20 campaign made him just the 2nd Expo to achieve it, as Andre Dawson had 5 such seasons during his career in Montreal...Larry was the Expos' cleanup hitter in all 136 of his starts, making 132 of those in rightfield and 4 at 1st base...he had a pair of 10-game hitting streaks, matching his career high, and also put together a 9-game as the season wound down in September...he ranked 9th in the N.L. in walks with 80, 20 of which came intentionally...on a trio of occasions, Walker was part of consecutive homers by the Expos, going deep on June 29 vs. Pittsburgh to complete a back-to-back-to-back string with Moises Alou and Marquis Grissom...the next day he had the first of 2 in a row with Frank Bolick, and on September 6, he and Sean Berry accomplished it vs. the Rockies...that home run against the Rox was the first to clear the newly constructed bleachers in rightfield at Olympic Stadium, measuring out at 433 feet...he hit the first grand slam of his career on September 1 in Cincy off John Roper...defensively, Walker earned his 2nd consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove for defensive excellence in rightfield, teaming with Grissom for two-thirds of the N.L. Gold Glove outfield...since the award was initiated in 1957, the only teammates to win Gold Gloves in the outfield in the N.L. in the same season had been Pirates, Roberto Clemente and Bill Virdon (1962) and Barry Bonds and Andy Van Slyke (1990-91-92)...Larry and Grissom joined previous Montreal honorees Andre Dawson (6) and Ellis Valentine (1)...Walker had 13 outfield assists, 6th best in the N.L....all of this was accomplished with a variety of pains during the year, beginning with a hamstring pull that cost him a week of action in April...he then made a diving catch on May 19 in foul territory in Atlanta, played the next 6 days hurt, but was forced from a May 25 game with what turned out to be contused right-side ribs, and inflammation in rib cartilage and intercostal muscles, placing him on the D.L. from May 26-June 9...Walker was then hobbled with a foot injury during the final month which led to a 3-for-33 slump to close the year. 1992—Larry began the year as one of the best kept secrets in the N.L., but when it concluded, he was one of the best players in the game and most decorated in Canadian baseball history...he earned the first Rawlings Gold Glove of his career, a Silver Slugger for offensive performance, played in the All-Star Game in San Diego, was named to the AP and The Sporting News post-season all-star teams, was Montreal's Player-of-the-Month for Sept./Oct., was named Expos' Player-of-the-Year, finished 5th in the N.L. MVP balloting, named Canada's Baseball Man-of-the-Year and ranked 2nd only to Olympic swimmer Mark Tewksbury as Canada's male Athlete-of-the-Year...it didn't stop there, as he traveled to Japan with major league all-stars in November, then upon his return to Maple Ridge, BC, was honored with the dedication of "Larry Walker Field", a youth baseball field in his hometown...he was a .301 hitter with 23 homers and 93 RBI, leading all rightfielders in homers and RBI, while ranking 2nd only to Tony Gwynn in average...he set a Montreal club standard with a .993 fielding pct., breaking the mark of Dawson in 1986, finishing the year with 61 straight errorless games, while leading the N.L. rightfielders with 16 outfield assists...at the plate, he homered in 3 consecutive games, April 29-30, May 5, one shy of the club record...twice he homered twice in a game, and on May 5 vs. San Diego, became the first hitter to nail a speaker in fair territory at Olympic Stadium, good for a home run as per stadium ground rules...hottest stretch was an 8-game road trip through Atlanta, Houston and Cincinnati in late-August, going 15-for-32 (.469) with 2 homers and 11 RBI...in the 3-game set at Cincy, he was 9-for-13 (.692) with 3 doubles, a homer and 7 RBI...his All-Star Game visit witnessed a pinch-hit single in the 3rd inning off Toronto's Juan Guzman, the first hit of the game for the N.L...Walker homered 4 times the day previously in the home run derby on the workout day...his hit in the Midsummer Classic was the first by a Canadian in All-Star play since 1939, when George Selkirk had one representing the Yankees. 1991—Walker had a solid 2nd half of the campaign to salvage the season, finishing with a .291 mark and 16 homers...post All-Star break, put together the best numbers in the N.L., hitting .338 in 72 games with 21 doubles, 10 homers and 41 RBI...the season had a strange beginning, as he was slated to platoon in rightfield with another lefthanded hitter, Dave Martinez...as the season progressed, Larry won an everyday position, playing in right, center and first base...he earned Expos' Player-of-the-Month for August, hitting .376 with 4 homers and 12 RBI, establishing a career best with a 10-game hitting streak during the month...on May 28, he had to start at first base in place of the injured Andres Galarraga...using the Big Cat's glove for 39 games, Walker compiled a .988 fielding pct. at first, and recorded 16 putouts and an assist in Dennis Martinez's perfect game on July 28 at Los Angeles. 1990—Larry had an unusual "rookie" year, since it wasn't determined until the All-Star break that he was in fact a rookie...he began the year a rookie, then due to a technicality regarding his full year on the D.L. in 1988, he became a sophomore, until the BBWAA reinstated his rookie status in a vote at the All-Star Game in Chicago, clarifying and modifying the rookie rule to once again make Larry eligible for rookie honors...though he lost the Rookie-of-the-Year award to David Justice, Walker posted 19 homers and 21 stolen bases, matching Andre Dawson's numbers when he earned the league honor in 1977...Larry's 19th homer came on the final day of the season, October 3, to tie Dawson's club rookie mark. 1989—Walker returned to action after missing all of '88, sporting a knee brace during his season at Indy, hitting .270 in 114 games, with 18 doubles, 12 homers and 59 RBI, earning him a place on the post-season team...he was recalled to the majors for the first time on August 16, becoming the 5th Canadian to play for the Expos, joining pitchers Claude Raymond (1969-71), Bill Atkinson (1976-79) and Larry Landreth (1976-77) and outfielder Doug Fobel (1985)...his first big league game was memorable, walking 3 times and collecting a hit off SF's Mike LaCoss, and scoring twice in a 4-2 win over the Giants...he was eventually optioned back to Indy on August 29, but never left poolside in San Diego, remaining at the team hotel until September 1, when rosters expanded and he returned to the active big league roster. 1988—Walker was on the disabled list all season after suffering a serious right knee injury while playing winter ball at Hermosillo of the Mexican League...he was injured on January 16, and 3 days later underwent right knee surgery performed in Montreal by Dr. Larry Coughlin to repair a rupture and a tear of two ligaments...his leg was in a cast for 8 weeks and a 7-month rehabilitation ensued...he managed to report to Indianapolis in late-June to continue his fitness program and take batting practice...he served as a DH in the Florida Instructional League in the fall. 1987—He had an All-Star year at Jacksonville, batting .287 with 26 homers and 83 RBI, earning post-season honors...he was rated the 3rd best prospect in the Southern League by Baseball America, behind Ken Caminiti and teammate Randy Johnson...Walker won the prestigious James "Tip" O'Neill Award as the top baseball player in Canada in '87, named after the Canadian-born outfielder now in the Canadian Baseball Hall-of-Fame. 1986—As a 19-year old at Burlington, Walker slammed 29 homers in 95 games, leading the league with 74 RBI, when he was promoted to West Palm Beach in mid-July...he was named to the Midwest League All-Star team, despite not completing the season there, and was the 2nd best prospect in the league as named by Baseball America...was named the Expo's organizations' Player-of-the-Month for May, hitting .373 with 11 home runs. 1985—Signed as a non-drafted free agent, on November 14, 1984, Walker began his career in Utica, batting just .223 in 62 games.

PERSONAL: Larry Kenneth Robert Walker...a penchant for the #3, thus his uniform number (33), he and wife, Christa, were married on November 3, 1990, at 3:33 p.m....the Walker's have a daughter, Brittany Marie (7-15-93) and reside in West Palm Beach, FL...Larry graduated from Maple Ridge (B.C.) Senior Secondary School in 1984...he was raised a hockey goaltender, playing the game with Cam Neely, currently a Boston Bruin standout...Walker played baseball for the Canadian national junior team...his family includes brothers, Gary, Cary and Barry, and parents, Larry and Mary...Cary was drafted by the Montreal Canadiens as a goaltender in 1977...while with Montreal, Larry donated 33 tickets in section 333 at Olympic Stadium every Sunday last 2 years.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: After spending his entire career hitting at or near the bottom of the batting order, Walt spent the '94 season at the top of the Rockies' starting lineup, leading off in 74 games and batting in the #2 spot in 30 others...he opened the campaign as the leadoff man, starting the first 56 games in that slot, reaching base safely in 50 of those games and hitting .283...he had a season-high 8-game hitting streak from April 11-19, batting .333...not known as a long ball hitter throughout his career, Walt's only dinger of '94 came on April 23 in Mile High Stadium off Chicago's Blaise Ilesley...the switch-hitting shortstop entered the year with 10 career big league homers, but this was the first that he had hit from the right side of the plate...it was also his first since June 14, 1993, at Wrigley Field off Jose Guzman...injuries had followed Weiss through his career, but he played in 158 games for the Marlins in '93, and things were going smoothly in 1994 until July 31 at San Francisco, when he strained his right hamstring, forcing him to the bench for 7 games...he never really recovered from the injury, going just 1-for-15 upon his return through the early end to the season...May was his most potent month at the plate, and carried the most individual game highlights...he hit .316 for the month, raising his season mark to .296 at its conclusion...on May 17, the Rockies scored 3 times in the bottom of the 9th inning against the Dodgers to post a 7-6 win, and Walt singled then eventually scored the winning run...he posted his 5th career 4-hit game on May 24 vs. Cincinnati.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Spent the entire season with the other expansion club, appearing in a career-high 158 games for Florida, establishing career bests in hits (133) and walks (79)...his 2nd inning triple off L.A.'s Orel Hershiser in the franchise's first game, was the first extra-base hit and carried the first 2 RBI in Marlin history...he also had the Marlins first sacrifice fly on April 17 at Houston...he was the 5th toughest hitter to double up, hitting into just 5 DP's in 500 AB's...Jone homer came in Wrigley Field on June 14 vs. Jose Guzman...collected his 500th career hit on August 21, a single off the Giants' Scott Sanderson in Candlestick Park...defensively, he ranked 2nd behind Gold Glove winner Jay Bell of Pittsburgh in fielding pct. among shortstops with a .977 mark (15 errors in 650 total chances)...from June 22-Sept. 3, a stretch of 64 games, Weiss committed just 3 errors in 238 chances. 1992—Missed the first 51 games of the year with Oakland due to a strained rib cage muscle that occurred during an exhibition game in the final week of spring training...after a 4-game rehab stint at Tacoma, he tripled vs. Boston in his first big league at bat of the season...was a .300 hitter in first 40 at bats after his return, hitting safely in 8 of 10 games...ended up starting 96 of the A's final 111 games...had a 20-game errorless streak from June 22-July 16, a span of 92 total chances...was 1-for-6 (.167) with a run and 2 stolen bases in the ALCS vs. Toronto. 1991—Appeared in 40 games during the first 2+ months of the season, but on June 6, he tore ligaments in his left ankle while running out a ground ball in Oakland, sidelining Weiss for the remainder of the season...had a career-best 9-game hitting streak from May 7-16, batting .400. 1990—Appeared in 138 games for the Athletics, establishing then career highs in runs (50), hits (118), walks (46) and stolen bases (9)...his post-season activity was cut short, when in the 2nd game of the ALCS, he collided with current teammate, Ellis Burks, while attempting to turn a double play at Fenway Park...he suffered minor cartilage damage to his left knee that was arthroscopically repaired on October 22...on the year, Weiss committed just 12 errors in 137 games at shortstop, 3 fewer than his Rookie-of-the-Year season in 1988. 1989—As was the case the in '90, turning the double play caused his first career knee injury in 1989...he was injured on May 17 vs. the Yankees, forcing a June 2 operation to repair the problem...after missing 65 games due to the surgery, he returned to the lineup on July 31, and shared time at short with Mike Gallego...homered twice in a game on April 5 vs. Seattle...started 3 of the 5 games of the ALCS vs. Toronto, going 1-for-9...was the starting shortstop in all 4 World Series contests against the Giants, belting his 1st post-season homer in Game #1 in Oakland. 1988—Selected both the BBWAA and The Sporting News American League Rookie-of-the-Year...committed just 15 errors as the everyday shortstop, including 1 after July 8...had a streak of 58 consecutive errorless games from July 9-September 20...hit 1st big league homer on May 15 at Baltimore off Mark Williamson...added only career grand slam to date on July 10 at Detroit off Mike Trujillo...was a .250 hitter on the year, but .281 after August 1...was a .333 hitter (5-for-15) vs. Boston in his 1st ALCS, driving in the winning run with a single off Lee Smith at Fenway Park in Game #2...struggled in the World Series vs. the Dodgers, going 1-for-16. 1987—Opened the year at AA, but found himself in the majors on July 12, filling in for the injured Tony Phillips...made big league debut that day, but was caught stealing in a pinch running role...was returned to minors and remained until September roster expansion...picked up 1st big league hit on September 26 vs. Chicago...started the last 8 games of the season due to injury to Alfredo Griffin, committing 1 error in 39 chances...was hitting .285 with 23 stolen bases at Huntsville (AA) at the time of his brief recall to the majors...was optioned to Tacoma after quick big league visit, hitting .263 in 46 games. 1986—Opened the year at Madison (A), hitting .301 in 84 games, then was promoted to AA, and hit .250 in 46 games at Huntsville. 1985—Split the year at both Pocatello and Modesto after being the A's first selection in the June draft, the 11th overall player taken...hit .310 in 40 contests at Pocatello, but just .197 in 30 games at Modesto.

PERSONAL: Walter William (Walt) Weiss...he and wife, Terri, have two sons, Blake (12-18-86), and newest arrival, Brody, born last off-season, and the Weiss' have made their off-season home in Aurora, CO...Walt was a 1982 graduate of Suffern High (NY), then became a Tar Heel, playing baseball at the University of North Carolina...he switched his uniform number from #7 to #22, because he was a childhood fan of former Miami Dolphin, Mercury Morris...by joining the Rockies, he is the first player to play for the 2 most recent National League expansion entries.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the sixth choice in the first round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Los Angeles Dodgers, November 17, 1993.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: After beginning his Colorado career as the starting 2nd baseman in '93, he entered the new year as the 4th outfielder, but put up his best overall offensive numbers, hitting a career best .272 in 90 games with 7 homers, including a club-high 55 starts in leftfield...his 18 thefts were 2nd on the club to Dante Bichette, but E.Y. entered '95 as the club's all-time theft leader with 60...his year started in an 0-for-9 slide, but on April 15 vs. Montreal, he broke out with his first of 2 season-high 3-hit games...in 4 games from April 20-24, Young matched his entire '93 home run output with 3 dingers in that span...the 2nd homer in that stretch was the first inside-park-homer of his career, finding a remote area in the Mile High outfield off Chicago's Dan Plesac on April 23...he was a .350 hitter in June (21-for-60), closing the month with a 5-game hitting streak in which he hit .450 (9-for-20)...on July 4 in Chicago, E.Y. led off the 2nd game of a doubleheader with a home run off Jim Bullinger, marking the first game opening homer for the Rox since September 29, 1993, when Nelson Liriano homered in Candlestick Park...the Wrigley roundtripper was the only one he has hit outside Mile High Stadium since joining the Rockies...his August 8 dinger off Pedro Astacio of the Dodgers was E.Y.'s 7th of the shortened-season, shattering his previous best of 3 in '93.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—When looking through the Rockies' archives, Young's name appears next to many of the "firsts" in club history...he was the first batter ever, grounding out on a bunt attempt off the Mets' Dwight Gooden...just 4 days later in the first home game ever, he provided one of the most memorable moments of the first season of major league baseball in Denver...leading off the bottom of the first inning, Young hammered a 3-2 pitch off Montreal's Kent Bottenfield, over the fence in left-center to bring the record crowd of 80,227 to its feet...E.Y. was on base 5 times in the home opener, going 4-for-4 with a walk, and quickly established a club record with 4 runs scored in the 11-4 win over Montreal...oddly enough, he would not homer again until the final home game of the season, when on Sept. 26, he hit roundtrippers in consecutive at bats off Cincinnati's Johnny Ruffin and Scott Service...Young opened the year as the everyday 2nd baseman, but the emergence of rookie Roberto Mejia forced E.Y. to move to the outfield after the All-Star break, a position he played while at Rutgers University...he finished the season strong at the plate, hitting safely in 18 of the last 20 games at a .400 clip (30-for-75) with 17 runs scored and 13 RBI...he put together a career-best 12-game hitting streak from Sept. 9-22, hitting .449, including a 4-hit game vs. San Diego on Sept. 22, his first 4-hit effort since the home opener...he also reached base safely in 12 consecutive plate appearances (8 hits and 4 walks) from Sept. 19-24, with the streak ending on a sacrifice fly...his 42 stolen bases on the year marked the 3rd highest total by an expansion player behind the Marlins' Chuck Carr and former K.C. Royal Pat Kelly...he tied Charlie Hayes' club record with 3 steals in a game on Sept. 19 vs. Los Angeles...E.Y. was the 6th toughest hitter to strikeout in the N.L., fanning just once every 13.8 plate appearances...he started 8 games in centerfield and 39 in left.

1992—Started the year at Albuquerque, hitting .337 in 94 games with 61 runs scored and 28 stolen bases...in 4 minor league seasons, he totaled 215 stolen bases, an average of 53.8 per season...his first taste of major league action came on July 30, going 2-for-4 in his debut against San Diego, a 6-5 Dodger victory...posted first 3-hit game on August 15 vs. S.F....it was also against the Giants he hit the first home run of his career, a Sept. 18 clout off Buddy Black...Young was 6-for-7 in stolen bases after joining the Dodgers...he also proved to be a contact hitter, fanning 9 times in 132 AB's, or once in every 14.7 at bats...in 23 games during September, Eric batted .375 (21-for-56), including a 6-game streak in which he hit .524 (11-for-21).

1991—Had an excellent year at San Antonio, leading all of AA and the Dodger minor leaguers with 71 stolen bases, a total that was good for 4th among all minor league players...he led his club in runs scored (82) and hits (129), while tying for the lead in walks (67)...had an RBI single in the AA All-Star Game...after the AA season, he appeared in one game at Albuquerque, going 2-for-5.

1990—Set a Vero Beach record with 75 stolen bases in leading his club to the Florida State League title...finished the year with a .287 mark and 101 runs scored...he led the team in runs, hits (132), doubles (23) and triples (7).

1989—Batted .330 for Kissimmee and stole 41 bases in 56 games...was the team leader in stolen bases, hits (65) and walks (33).

PERSONAL: Eric Young...he has a son, Eric, Jr., though he spends much of his time traveling during the winter, E.Y. now calls Denver home...he is a graduate of Rutgers University, where he was an all-conference player and team MVP...E.Y. was also a member of the football team while attending Rutgers...Eric attended New Brunswick (NJ) H.S., earning all-state honors in baseball, football and basketball.

KCUV TO AIR HOME GAMES

For the third straight season, KCUV Radio (1150 AM) will broadcast each Rockies home game for the Latin community of Denver. The station began its play-by-play coverage of the Rockies in the latter half of the 1993 season, then was mikeside for every game in Mile High Stadium last year.

This year will be much more comfortable for the KCUV broadcast crew, with their viewpoint of the game improving immensely with the spacious and convenient broadcast booths in Coors Field.

Francisco Gamez will provide the play-by-play coverage for KCUV during the entire home schedule.

1995 Non-Roster Invitees

27
Jorge Brito
Catcher

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 190 B/T: R/R
Age: 28 (Turns 29 on June 22)
Born: June 22, 1966 in Moncion, Dominican Republic
Residence: Athens, AL
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Re-signed as a minor league free agent, November 5, 1994.

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: 1995 is his 2nd non-roster invitation to spring training with the Rockies, reporting to Tucson in a similar role last year...he was assigned to New Haven (AA), and through the first 3 weeks of action posted a .275 average...that stretch was climaxed on April 27 at Bowie, when Jorge went 3-for-4 with a double, 2 homers and 4 RBI...he then fell into an 18-for-109 tailspin (.165) that dropped his season average below the .200 mark...after that slide, he returned his average over the .200 level and in doing so was moved to AAA for the first time in Colorado's chain, as Jayhawk Owens was promoted to the majors...Brito went 10-for-27 (.370) during a 2-week stay with the Sky Sox, then was returned to New Haven, where the bat remained hot...in 12 games with the Ravens, Jorge hit .342 and made a 2nd trip to Colorado Springs to finish the season, this time due to an injury to Owens...Brito had a 9-game hitting streak during this tour with the Sky Sox, batting .462 (12-for-26) during the skein, with 2 homers and 10 RBI.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Jorge had a very brief stint with Huntsville (AA) in the Oakland chain in '93, missing the majority of the year with a broken hand...the injury occurred prior to the start of the season, and he did not see his first action until June 23...he was used primarily as a designated hitter, getting behind the plate late in one game...he wound up batting .278 (10-for-36) in 18 games...Brito has had a 9-year minor league playing career that encompassed virtually every stop in the Athletics' organization, except Oakland...it began in 1986 at Medford, where he played for 2 years, then traveled to Modesto, Tacoma, Huntsville, and Madison...his best overall year at the plate was the '90 season at Huntsville, where he batted .268 in 57 games.

PERSONAL: Jorge Manuel Brito...he and wife, Wendy, have a daughter, Ana (6/3/91) and reside in Athens, AL...a native of the Dominican Republic, he was a 1985 graduate of Academia La Trinitaria in Santo Domingo.

FROM NON-ROSTER INVITEE TO THE BIG LEAGUES

In the first two seasons the Rockies have invited 40 non-roster players to camp, 23 in the inaugural spring and 17 last year. On 13 occasions an invitee has made it to the big leagues over the course of the year and only 5 them have broken camp on the 25-man roster. Those players who have made the club as a non-roster invitee include:

Out of camp:

Bruce Ruffin	'93
Danny Sheaffer	'93
Bryn Smith	'93
Gerald Young	'93
Mike Kingery	'94

During season:

Chris Jones	'93 & '94
Mark Knudson	'93
Nelson Liriano	'93
Trenidad Hubbard	'94
Mark Thompson	'94
Ty Van Burkleo	'94
Bruce Walton	'94

3 Harold Reynolds Infielder

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 165 B/T: S/R
Age: 34 (Turns 35 on November 26)
Born: November 26, 1960 in Eugene, OR Residence: Corvallis, OR
M.L. Service: 9 years, 114 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a minor league free agent, February 6, 1995

1994 HIGHLIGHTS: Harold went to spring training as a non-roster invitee of the San Diego Padres, but on March 29, he was dealt to the Angels for southpaw hurler Hilly Hathaway...he was the Opening Day 2nd baseman for the Halos, going 2-for-5...his .232 average was his lowest output as a professional, but for the 6th straight season, he posted more walks (23) than strikeouts (18)...he was 10-for-17 in stolen bases, giving him double figure theft totals for each of his pro seasons...he had one of the Angels biggest hits of the year, a 2-out, 2-run double in the 9th inning on April 15 vs. Toronto, completing a 7-run inning to tie the score at 13-13, setting the stage for California's 14-13 win in 10 frames, equaling the largest deficit overcome in club history...defensively, Harold made 51 starts at 2nd base, most on the club, committing only one error in 247 chances, a fielding miscue at Toronto on May 29...still possessing excellent speed, he recorded a dozen infield hits.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Harold led American League 2nd basemen in double plays on 5 different occasions, including a stretch from 1986-88, where he was involved in 111 DP's in each season. 1993—After 12 years in the Seattle organization, the last 8 with the big league club, Reynolds signed as a free agent with Baltimore...he started 138 games at 2nd base, the most for the O's since 1988...he had the Orioles longest hitting streak of the year, a 15-gamer from June 24-July 8, hitting .323...all 4 of his homers came in the 2nd half of the campaign, the biggest a 9th inning, game-tying blast off Texas' Tom Henke on August 21, giving the Orioles a chance to win the game in the 11th inning...Harold hit .319 with runners in scoring position. 1992—He picked up his 1,000th career hit on June 12, a single off Milwaukee's Jaime Navarro...Reynolds was involved in his 5th career triple play as a 2nd baseman on August 30 vs. Baltimore. 1991—Played in a career high 161 games...he won the prestigious Roberto Clemente Award, which is presented annually to the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball on and off the field...Rockies' manager Don Baylor was the 1985 recipient. 1990—He led the A.L. in at bats (642) and ranked 3rd in runs scored (100)...he set a Mariner record by reaching base safely in 39 consecutive games (June 8-July 22)...he also earned his 3rd career Gold Glove. 1989—He batted .300 for the only time in his major league career, while ranking 3rd in the league in triples (9), and 9th in both runs scored (87) and hits (184), while not homering for the first time in his career...he was awarded his 2nd career Gold Glove for his defensive play. 1988—Harold tied for the league top spot in triples with 11...he established a Mariners' record by collecting 8 straight hits from June 3-5...he also earned his 2nd consecutive trip to the All-Star Game...he also won his first of 3 Gold Gloves. 1987—His first full season of major league duty, Harold led the A.L. with 60 stolen bases, and was named to his first of 2 straight All-Star Game appearances. 1986—He appeared in 126 games for the Mariners, hitting his first big league homer on September 16 off Chicago's Pete Filson...on August 27, he tied a major league record for single game assists by a 2nd baseman in a 9-inning game, collecting 12 vs. Baltimore. 1983—Harold made his first major league start on September 5 in Kansas City, going 2-for-5 with a double, triple and 2 runs.

PERSONAL: Harold Craig Reynolds...he is single and makes his off-season home in Corvallis, OR...Harold was an All-State receiver and defensive back, as well as an All-State infielder for Corvallis High School, graduating in 1979...he was originally a 5th round pick by San Diego in the 1979 June draft, but opted for college, attending San Diego State for a semester, then transferring to Canada (CA) Junior College...he was later a secondary phase choice of the Mariners in June, 1980...he is one of 8 children, with a pair of his brothers playing pro baseball, as Don spent time in both the Padres and Mariners' organizations, and Larry in the Rangers' chain...Harold has devoted an enormous amount of his off-field time to various charities, and in 1990 he received the Daily Point of Light Award from President George Bush, the first professional athlete to be so honored.

GOING, GOING, GONE...

Mile High Stadium ranked fourth in the majors, first in the National League, for home run frequency, with a total of 304 blasts departing the yard during its two years of major league competition. Tiger Stadium in Detroit was the biggest nightmare for pitchers in the majors, with 363 baseballs not returning to action.

Anaheim Stadium and Camden Yards ranked second and third, respectively, while the next closest park in the N.L. was Candlestick Park in San Francisco.

Of the 304 home runs hit in Mile High over the course of the initial season, just 41 (13%) of them landed in the South Stands, 11 by the Rockies and 30 by the opposition.

The complete totals for the past two seasons:

Championship season ended after play on August 11 due to players' strike.

NEW DIVISIONS TO TRY IT AGAIN

With the work stoppage last year bringing an abrupt end to the regular season, Major League Baseball will attempt this year to show off its new alignment established prior to the '94 campaign. It was the first change in the system since the advent of divisional play in 1969, when the National and American Leagues were divided into four divisions.

Each winner of its respective division is assured a post-season berth. Additionally a wild card team will qualify for post-season, determined by the best record among second place finishers. This change will institute an extra round of post-season activity, with the wild card team playing one of the division winners, and the remaining division champs taking on each other in best-of-five series'. The next tier of playoffs will decide the league champion, and will be a best-of-seven series, to be followed immediately by the World Series.

1994 June Draft Summary

The Colorado Rockies used the 7th pick in the country to acquire lefthanded pitcher Doug Million out of Sarasota, FL. He led Sarasota High School to the nation's number one ranking in his senior season and was named the Gatorade National High School Player of the Year. Million headed the list of 56 players selected, consisting of 27 pitchers (seven lefthanded), five catchers, 14 infielders and 10 outfielders.

The Rockies signed 30 players, including their top 16 selections and 27 of their first 30. The signees included all 20 four-year college selections, one of 12 junior college picks and nine of the 24 high school players chosen.

The position breakdown on the signees included 14 pitchers (four lefthanded), two catchers, seven infielders and seven outfielders.

Herb Hippauf

National Cross-Checker

Herb Hippauf is already in his fourth year with the Rockies, coming on board in 1992 after a three-year scouting stint with the Montreal Expos...he helped prepare the club for the first amateur draft in June, 1992, and has continued to supply the scouting department with mounds of information on potential professional baseball players...Hippauf, 55, is in his 28th season as a scout, working for five different organizations, beginning in 1968 with the Houston Astros...a former pitcher, his professional playing career spanned seven seasons, including a brief major league stint with the Atlanta Braves in 1966...during the 1980's, aside from his scouting duties, Hippauf also served the Braves' organization as a minor league pitching coach...a native of New York City, Herb and wife, Judy, have three daughters, Kathy, Karen and Kim, and reside in Sunnyvale, CA.

Jeff Schugel

National Cross-Checker

Jeff joined the Rockies in 1993 and works with Herb Hippauf as a national cross-checker...he came on board after a six and a half year stint in the scouting department of the Minnesota Twins, working from 1987-91 as the Florida scouting supervisor, then the last two seasons as their East Coast supervisor...a former player in the Twins' chain, Schugel played in 1983 at Elizabethton, then spent the 1984-85 seasons in Visalia, before going into scouting...at Elizabethton, he led his club with a .308 average, finishing 3rd in the league...his first professional home run was a grand slam...a native of New Ulm, MN, he graduated from Mankato State University, earning a B.S. in Municipal Recreation...he and wife, Tamera, have a son, A.J., and reside in Winter Haven, FL.

Minor League Field Staff

Gene Glynn

Coordinator of Instruction

Returns to the role of minor league coordinator of instruction after getting his first taste of big league coaching duty in '94, serving as first base coach...one of the original on-field hires for the Rockies, he managed the first club in franchise history, leading Bend (OR) to the playoffs of the Northwest League in 1992...the following season he moved to his current role, supervising the minor league operations...a former infielder, Gene managed at Spokane in the Northwest League for two seasons in the Padres' system before joining the Rockies...prior to his managerial work in the San Diego organization, Glynn had spent his entire 11-year pro career in the Montreal chain as a player, coach and minor league manager...he was signed as a non-drafted free agent in 1979, playing for seven seasons in the minors, including a trio of stops at the AAA level...he was a player/coach in '85 for Indianapolis, working with current Montreal manager, Felipe Alou...Gene is a graduate of Mankato State University, where he batted .384 during his senior season and stole 32 bases...he and wife, Julie, have two sons, Gino and Christopher and reside in Littleton, CO.

Clint Hurdle

Roving Hitting Instructor

Returns for his second season with the Rockies minor league field staff after spending two seasons managing at Tidewater, the AAA affiliate of the New York Mets...managed in the Mets' chain for six seasons, also working at St. Lucie (A), Jackson (AA) and Williamsport (AA)...originally selected in the 1st round (9th overall) in the 1975 June Draft by the Kansas City Royals...named American Association M.V.P. for Omaha in '77, and earned his first trip to the big leagues at the end of the season...played at the major league level in all, or parts of 10 seasons for Kansas City, Cincinnati, New York (NL) and St. Louis...a member of the 1980 American League Champion Kansas City Royals, hit .417 (5-for-12) in the World Series..."Clint Hurdle's Big League Experience" is a two session, one week instructional camp that he runs in the off-season...this winter in their 9th year of operation, the camp will move to Dogertown...he has one daughter, Ashley, and makes his off-season home in Palm City, FL.

Paul Zuvella

Manager

Became the first manager of the Rockies AA club in '94 and led the team to the playoffs in their inaugural season with a 77-63 record...lost all three of their post-season games to Binghamton, but went down by only one run in each contest...was named the Rockies Player Development Man of the Year in '93 for his outstanding efforts managing Central Valley (A) in the California League...A 12-year playing career ended following '91 season, then stepped into managing, serving the Rockies in '92 as the mentor of the short season rookie league club in Mesa, AZ...the 35-year old accumulated major league playing time with 3 different clubs including, Atlanta, the Yankees and Cleveland...was traded with Claudell Washington from the Braves in 1986 to New York for Ken Griffey...played 35 major league games in 2 years of pinstripes, then signed as a free agent in '88 with Colorado Springs, however, earned a pair of stints with Cleveland...was used as a part-time player in the majors, but made the most of minor league time, being selected to play in 5 different All-Star games, 3 times in the International League, and once each in the Pacific Coast League and American Association...was selected Minor League Player-of-the-Year in Braves' chain in 1984...a graduate of Stanford University, he and wife, Laurie, and sons, Shane and Kyle, reside in San Ramon, CA.

Chuck Estrada

Pitching Coach

Returns for his second season with the Rockies organization, making the jump to the AA staff this year after spending last season with Central Valley...brings over 36 years of professional baseball experience to the organization, serving as a pitching coach for the past 25 years...spent the 1993 season as pitching coach for the San Bernardino Spirit, an independent club in the California League...playing career consisted of nine years, including six seasons in the big leagues with the Baltimore Orioles, New York Mets and Chicago Cubs from 1960-65...made quite an impression in his first year of major league duty, leading the A.L. with 18 wins, earning a spot on the All-Star team and was named Rookie Pitcher-of-the-Year...his coaching career has made three stops in the majors, working as the pitching coach for the Texas Rangers, Cleveland Indians and San Diego Padres...he and wife, Rebecca, make their off-season home in Morgan Hill, CA.

Greg Gross

Batting Coach

Enters his first season as a professional coach...a former outfielder, he enjoyed a 17-year major league playing career for Houston, Chicago (NL) and Philadelphia...was named the Sporting News Rookie-of-the-Year after hitting .314 with a career high 185 hits in 156 games for the Astros in 1974...finished second behind Bake McBride in BBWAA balloting for the top rookie honor...played with the Cubs in 1977-78 and set a career high with 5 homers in the '77 campaign...spent 10-seasons with the Phillies from 1979-88, playing on the World Championship team in '80 and appeared in another fall classic in 1983...collected his 1,000th career hit on May 25, 1987 at San Diego off Lance McCullers...returned to the Astros for his final season in 1989 and finished his career with 143 pinch hits...originally a 4th round selection of the Astros in 1970, he and wife, Debbie have two children, Megan and Michael, and reside in Malvern, PA.

Bill Hayes

Manager

Returns for his second season with the Rockies staff after leading the Central Valley club to a nine game improvement over the last half of the season...joined the organization last year after spending the previous six seasons managing in the Chicago Cubs organization, '93 in Daytona Beach...managerial career began in 1988 at Geneva of the New York-Penn League where he stayed for three years before taking the helm at Peoria and Winston-Salem for a year apiece...a former catcher in the Cubs chain from 1978-85 and '87, with a brief stop in the Kansas City organization in '86...made stops at all levels including brief stints in the majors in '80 and '81 with Chicago...a '75 graduate of St. Patrick's (NE) H.S. and attended Indiana State University in Terre Haute, IN...he and wife, Kimberly, have two daughters, Kirstyn and Megan, and reside in Phoenix, AZ.

Billy Champion

Pitching Coach

The former righthanded pitcher returns for his third season with the Rockies minor league staff, last year serving as the pitching coach for the organization's first AA affiliate in New Haven...enjoyed great success with the Ravens staff last year, posting a Eastern League best 3.45 ERA and earned the Rockies' Player Development Man-of-the-Year award for his efforts...six of his pitchers made 20 or more starts and each compiled an ERA below 3.50...coached the Eastern League Pitcher-of-the-Year, Juan Acevedo, who also claimed the honor for the entire AA circuit...prior to joining the Rockies in '93, worked as a scout for the Chicago Cubs...playing career spanned 13 seasons from 1965-77, including all or parts of 7 seasons at the major league level with the Philadelphia Phillies and Milwaukee Brewers...he was the Phillies' 3rd selection in the 1965 June Draft out of Shelby (NC) H.S., and had the lowest ERA in the Northern League for Huron (SD) in his first year of professional ball...had one year of previous coaching experience in the minor leagues, serving as the pitching coach for Pikeville of the Appalachian League in 1983...he has one daughter, Ashley, and one son, Travis, and resides in Shelby, NC.

Tony Torchia

Batting Coach

Enters his second season with the Rockies and brings 32 years of professional baseball experience to the organization...served as the skipper of the Asheville club last year in their first season as a Rockies affiliate...finished the year with a 60-73 ledger, but closed out the campaign on a five game winning streak...prior to joining the club, spent four seasons as a coach for the San Diego Padres AAA affiliate in Las Vegas...originally signed by the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1962 and was named the Midwest League Player-of-the-Year after batting .338 and driving in 94 RBL...was acquired by the Red Sox at the end of the season and spent the next 24 years in the Boston organization as a player, coach and manager...playing career spanned 13 seasons, posting a lifetime .294 average in over 1,400 minor league games...first managerial duty came in 1976, guiding Winston-Salem to a Carolina League Championship and was named the league's Manager-of-the-Year...has managed a total of 13 seasons on the minor league level, while claiming five League Championships...has compiled a 19-7 post season record as a manager and has never lost a playoff series...he and wife, Nancy, have two sons, Todd and Troy, and reside in Cape Coral, FL.

Bill McGuire Manager

Enters his first season as a manager and his third overall season with the Rockies organization...spent last year as a coach for Asheville after initially serving in a similar capacity for the short-season club in Bend for the '93 campaign...playing career spanned eight seasons as a catcher, including a pair of stops with the Seattle Mariners...originally an '82 draft choice of the Cleveland Indians, he chose not to sign and attended the University of Nebraska, twice earning All-Big 8 and All-Academic honors...was then Seattle's 2nd selection in the '85 June draft, a compensation pick from Oakland after the A's signed free agent Steve Henderson...it was against Oakland that he picked up his first major league hit on August 7, 1988...only big league home run was a 3-run shot off Cleveland's Bud Black on June 11, 1989...spent the '91 season in Colorado Springs in the Indians' chain before signing as a free agent with the Cubs organization prior to the '92 campaign...he has two daughters, Emily and Katie, and makes his off-season home in Omaha, NE.

Jack Lamabe Pitching Coach

Returns for his third season in the Rockies organization and second straight year in Asheville...his '94 staff featured one of the youngest starting rotations in the league, with each pitcher being 20-years old or younger and the bullpen tied for the organizational lead with 39 saves...originally joined the club in '93, serving as pitching coach for Central Valley...prior to joining the Rockies, he spent nine seasons in the San Diego Padres' chain, working at Spokane of the Northwest League in 1991-92...for five seasons he worked on both the AA and AAA levels for the Padres, then served as a roving instructor in 1989-90...a former big league pitcher, he made the most of his one year with St. Louis, winning the World Championship over Boston in 1967...prior to joining the professional coaching ranks with San Diego, he was the head baseball coach at Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge, LA, compiling a 159-116 career mark for the Tigers...he and wife, Janet, have one son, John, and one daughter, Jennifer, and reside in Baton Rouge.

Joe Marchese Coach

Joins the Rockies organization after spending his entire 9-year professional career with the Boston Red Sox organization...worked the last two seasons as a coach for Lynchburg in the Carolina League after serving Winter Haven in 1991-92...was originally a 13th round selection of the Red Sox in the June 1986 Free Agent Draft and spent four seasons in Boston's minor league chain...primarily a second baseman, he also saw action at first base, shortstop and the outfield...enjoyed his best season in 1988, batting .268 in 132 games at Lynchburg with 24 doubles and 71 runs scored...led Carolina League second basemen with 669 total chances and 278 putouts...finished 2nd in the league with 530 at-bats and 5th with 142 hits...also ranked 2nd toughest to strikeout, averaging only 1 for every 13.2 plate appearances...Joe graduated from Mankato State University in Mankato, MN and resides in New Berlin, WI.

TUCSON, ARIZONA... SPRING HOME OF THE ROCKIES

The 1995 spring was unusual to say the least, as the Rockies held a pair of camps under the sunny skies of Tucson, AZ. It marked the third consecutive spring for the Rockies at the complex at Hi Corbett Field, first playing a full Cactus League schedule with the major leaguers on strike, then returning for 10 days of work, followed by four exhibition games.

In the first two springs, the club drew a total of 225,117 fans in 33 home games for an average of 6,822 per contest. The inaugural camp saw the Rockies capture the Cactus League crown, posting a 18-14-1 record. Last year, fans from the southern Arizona community and the faithful followers from Colorado helped pack Hi Corbett Field with seven sellout crowds.

Currently the summer home of the Tucson Toros of the Pacific Coast League, the Rockies were treated to a multi-million dollar facelift of Hi Corbett Field before they began their initial camp. The renovation included a new press facility, modern major league clubhouse along the first base side, and new administrative offices in the right-field corner. Prior to the start of spring training in '94, the new minor league clubhouse was expanded to hold another 60 lockers for future big league stars. The original facelift also included the upgrading of restrooms, concession stands and the addition of batting cages and pitching mounds.

This facility has been the home of major league spring training for 48 years, with the Cleveland Indians training here prior to the arrival of the Rockies. This is also where several movies have been filmed, including the 1988 production of "Major League".

*Led League.

MINOR LEAGUE ROCKIE-OF-THE-YEAR

The award goes to the minor league player who had the most outstanding season, not only from a statistical standpoint, but also acknowledging improvement, character and commitment to his ballclub. A pre-requisite for winning this award is to be named pitcher/player of the month at least one time during the year. The Rockie of the Year will earn an automatic invite to spring training for the following season. This honor is voted upon by the Rockies' Baseball Operations staff.

Each of the following winners are members of the Rockies' 40-man roster entering the 1995 season.

Mark Thompson
Righthanded Pitcher
Bend Rockies

1993

Quinton McCracken
Outfielder
Central Valley Rockies

1994

Juan Acevedo
Righthanded Pitcher
New Haven Ravens

Minor League Honor Roll

The Colorado Rockies began the tradition of honoring minor league players with monthly awards in 1992. Winners, as voted by the Rockies' Baseball Operations staff, receive a Colorado Rockies wristwatch.

The winners:

MONTH	PITCHER	PLAYER
May	Matt Connolly (Visalia)	Troy Ricker (Visalia)
June	Mark Thompson (Bend)	Will Scalzitti (Bend)
July	Roger Bailey (Bend)	Ryan Turner (Visalia)
August	Mike Eiffert (Bend)	Quinton McCracken (Bend)

1993

May	Mark Thompson (C.Valley)	Jay Gainer (Col. Spgs.)
June	Mark Thompson (Col. Spgs.)	Roberto Mejia (Col. Spgs.)
July	Phil Schneider (C.Valley)	Quinton McCracken (C.Valley)
August	Keith Barnes (Chandler)	Craig Counsell (C.Valley)

1994

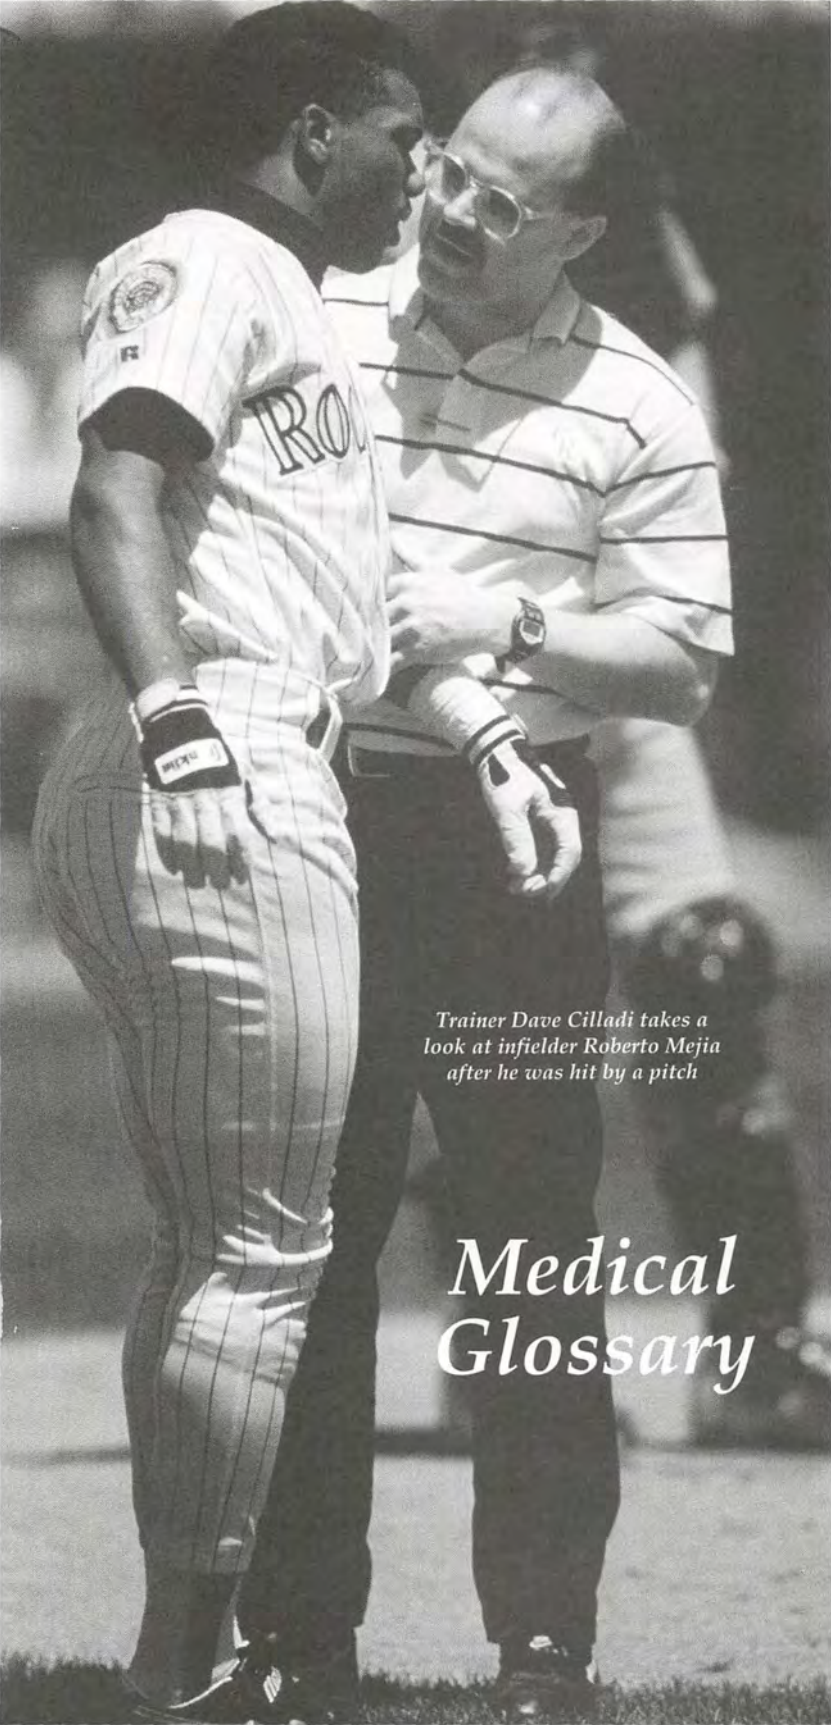

MONTH	PITCHER	PLAYER
May	Rod Pedraza (New Haven)	Trenidad Hubbard (Col. Spgs.)
June	Phil Schneider (New Haven)	Craig Counsell (New Haven)
July	Juan Acevedo (New Haven)	Derrick Gibson (Bend)
August	Mark Brownson (Chandler)	John Myrow (Central Valley)

THE ORIGINAL FIVE

When the Rockies' organization came into playing existence in 1992, the first team to take the field as a group was the Bend club, made up mainly of players from the original June draft. Did you know, that the Rockies did have five players participating in the California League in the early part of the '95 campaign?

Matt Connolly, Mike Ericson, Mark Morris, Troy Ricker and Ryan Turner, all played for the Visalia Oaks during 1995 as part of a working agreement that the Rockies had with that Minnesota Twins' Class A club.

Turner, the first player ever signed by the Rockies eventually retired from his minor league playing days during the summer of '94. Connolly will go down as the first trade in club history, going to the Montreal Expos in exchange for Travis Buckley. Ericson has remained in the Rockies' chain, serving as the pitching coach for the Mesa club in the Arizona League.

Medical Glossary

Glossary of Medical Terms

The following glossary provides definitions of terms that are used during the course of the season by medical staff members of the baseball organizations. This glossary is provided by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society. (The numbers 1-21 correspond with the charts on pages 197 and 198 representing common baseball injuries.)

A.T.,C—Athletic Trainer Certified: athletic trainers with this designation have passed the certification exam administered by the National Athletic Trainers' Association (N.A.T.A.).

1 AC Joint—Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abrasion—Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess—An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Adhesion—Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic—Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anabolic Steroids—Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

Anaerobic—Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome—Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.

2 Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL)—A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 month of rehabilitation.

3 Anterior Talofibular Ligament—A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (later ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.

Anti-Inflammatory—Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Arteriogram—A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram—X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope—An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy—A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Aspiration—The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.

Atrophy—To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis—Death of a part due to lack of circulation.

Avulsion—The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

4 Baker's Cyst—Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

5 Bennett's Fracture—A fracture and dislocation of the base of the first metacarpal, the thumb.

Bone Scan—An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labelled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Bruise—The discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.

Bursa—A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.

Calf—Large muscle located at the back of the shin that includes the gastrocnemius and the soleus muscles and is connected to the heel by the Achilles tendon. This is responsible for foot plantar-flexion and is instrumental in jumping.

Capsule—An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage—Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT Scan—Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

Cervical Vertebrae—Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck

Charley Horse—A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture—Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia—Roughening of the articular cartilage. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the patella, which can occur in any patellofemoral injury.

Clavicle—The collar bone.

Coccyx—The "tail bone"; a group of four vertebrae that are fused together, located at the terminal end of the spine.

Colles' Fracture—A fracture of the distal end of the radius with the lower end being displaced backward.

Computed Tomography (CT)—Method of visualizing the body's soft tissues. Using x-rays with the beam passing repeatedly through the body part, the CT scans while a computer calculates tissue absorption at each point scanned.

Concentric Muscle Contraction—A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.

Concussion—Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Congenital—Existing before birth; to be born with.

Conjunctivitis—Inflammation of the membrane lining the eyelids and covering the eyeball.

Contractures—Abnormal, usually permanent contraction of a muscle due to atrophy of muscle fibers, extensive scar tissue over a joint, or other factors.

Contusion—an injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Costochondral—Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

Cryotherapy—A treatment with use of cold.

Cyst—Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Debridement—Removal of non-healthy tissues and foreign material from a wound or burn to prevent infection and permit healing.

Degenerative Joint Disease—Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Deltoid Ligament—Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

6 Deltoid Muscle—Muscles at the top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.

Disc, Intervertebral—A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation—Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Eccentric Muscle Contraction—An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; of times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.

Ecchymosis—Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Edema—Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Effusion—Accumulation of fluid, or the fluid itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS)—An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electrolyte Drink—Fluid for replacing electrolytes.

Electromyogram (EMG)—Test to determine nerve function.

7 Epicondylitis—Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride—"Cold spray" or "freeze", a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

External Rotation—Lateral movement of a joint or extremity to the outside.

Fascia—A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissue.

Fat Percentage—The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness, or by analyzing electrical impedance.

Femur—Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula—Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Flexibility—The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Fracture—Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb—Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpophalangeal joint of the thumb.

8 Glenohumeral—The shoulder girdle; consists of the glenoid capsule, head of the humerus and labrum. The type of joint that allows 360-degree motion, a "ball and socket" joint.

Glenoid—Cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to form the shoulder girdle.

Grade One Injury—A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury—A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury—A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Groin—Junction of the thigh and abdomen; location of muscles that rotate, flex and adduct the hip.

Hammer Toe—Condition when the first digit of a toe is at a different angle than the remaining digits of the same toe.

- 9 Hamstring—Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.
Heat Cramps—Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.
Heat Exhaustion—Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.
Heat Stroke—Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.
Hematoma—Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.
- Hot Pack—Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.
- 10 Humerus—Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.
Hydrotherapy—Treatment using water.
Hyperextension—Extreme extension of a limb or body part.
Illiotalband—A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.
- 11 Impingement Syndrome—Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder. The most common (Throwing) arm injury, which represents many pathologies and generally involves supraspinatus overuse.
Inflammation—The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.
Intermittent Compression Pump—Therapeutic modality that uses an air pump to send air into a sleeve worn over an injury, on an intermittent basis, in order to disperse edema and break up swelling at the injury.
Internal Rotation—Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.
Interosseus Membrane—Uniting membrane between the tibia and fibula that forms a collagenous fibrous tissue. It has two functions: to serve as an origin for many of the muscles of the lower leg, and to transmit stress from the tibia to the fibula.
Isokinetic Exercise—Form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of limb movement is controlled by a pre-set limiting machine, such as Cybex or Biodex.
Isometric Contraction—Muscular contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done. There is no appreciable joint movement and the overall length of the muscle stays the same.
Isotonic Contraction—A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part, as in lifting a weight.
Labrum (Labrum Glenoidale)—The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edge or lip-like structure.
Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL)—Ligament of the knee along the lateral aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.
Ligament—Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone to bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.
Lumbar Vertebrae—Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.
Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI)—Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.
- 12 Malleolus—Rounded projection on either side of the ankle joint; the lateral malleolus is the fibula and the medial malleolus is the tibia.
Mallet Finger—Injury of the finger tip in which the extension tendon is avulsed off the distal phalanx.
Maximal Aerobic Power (MAX VO 2)—The maximal volume of oxygen consumed per unit of time.
- 13 Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL)—Ligament of knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the joint.
Meniscectomy—An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.
Meniscus—Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.
- 14 Metacarpals—Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.
- 15 Metatarsals—Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.
Morton's Neuroma—Involves the nerves and is usually the result of a trauma to the foot, causing inflammation and sharp pain, usually between the third and fourth toes.
Morton's Toe—A hereditary condition in which the second toe is longer than the first toe. This can cause mechanical imbalances which produce pain with weight bearing.
Myositis—Inflammation of the muscle.
Myositis Ossificans Traumatica—A benign ossification, usually following severe trauma to a large muscle mass.
N.A.T.A.—National Athletic Trainers' Association. The certifying and governing body of the athletic training profession.
Neuritis—Inflammation of a nerve.
- 16 Olecranon Process—Bony projection of the ulna at the tip of the elbow.
One Repetition Maximum—The maximum amount of weight that can be lifted by the player in a particular exercise at one time. This is used as a strength testing technique.

Orthotic—Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Osteochondritis Dessicans—A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.

Parasthesia—Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella—The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

17 Patella Tendinitis—Inflammation of the patellar ligament; also known as "jumper's knee."

PBATS—Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society; the governing body of athletic trainers in professional baseball.

18 Peroneal Muscles—Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for evert-ing the ankle. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phalanx—Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural in phalanges.

Phlebitis—Inflammation of a vein.

Phonophoresis—The technique of driving whole molecules of medication with ultrasound.

Plantar Fascia—the tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.

Plantar Fasciitis—Inflammation of the plantar fascia; associated with overuse of acute foot injury.

Plantarflexion—Ankle motion such that the toes are pointed toward the ground.

Plica—Fold of the tissue in the joint capsule and common result of knee injury.

Pneumothorax—A collection of air or gas in the pleural space causing the lungs to collapse.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL)—A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that pro-vides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Progressive Resistance Exercise (PRE)—An approach to exercise whereby the load or resis-tance to the muscle is applied by some mechanical means and is quantitatively and progres-sively increased over time.

Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation (PNF)—An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.

19 Quadracep Muscles "Quads"—A group of four muscles on the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radiography—Taking of x-rays.

Radium—Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Referred Pain—Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Rotator Cuff—Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

20 Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome—A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress. The four stages are: 1)tendinitis with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff, 2)fiber dissociation in the tendon with a permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation, 3)A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm, and 4)a complete tear of 1 cm or more.

SC Joint—Sternoclavicular joint; articulation of the collarbone with the sternum.

Sacroiliac—Junction of the sacrum with the hip bone.

Sacrum—Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.

Scapula—Shoulder blade.

Sciatica—Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve—Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint—A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Soft Corn—A corn, softened by moisture, that is found beneath the toes rather than on the upper surface of the toe.

Spleen—Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylitis—Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

Spondylolisthesis—Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis—Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain—Injury resulting from the stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum—The breast bone.

Strain—Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture—A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-Ray—A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maxi-mum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

Stretching—Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue struc-tures and thereby increase flexibility.

Subluxation—Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Synovial Fluid—Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or the inner lining of a joint.

Synovitis—Inflammation of the synovial lining of a joint.

Talus—The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Target Heart Rate—A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals—Group of six bones of the foot consisting of the calcaneus, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Tendinitis—Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon—Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tennis Elbow—General term for lateral elbow pain.

Tenosynovitis—Swelling of a tendon sheath caused by calcium deposits, repeated strain, or trauma.

Thoracic—Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulates with the twelve ribs.

Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome—A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.

Tibia—Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Tomograph—A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.

Trachea—The windpipe.

Transcutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS)—An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.

Transverse Process—Small lateral projection off the right and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Trapezius—Flat, triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps—Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Ulna—Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve—Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

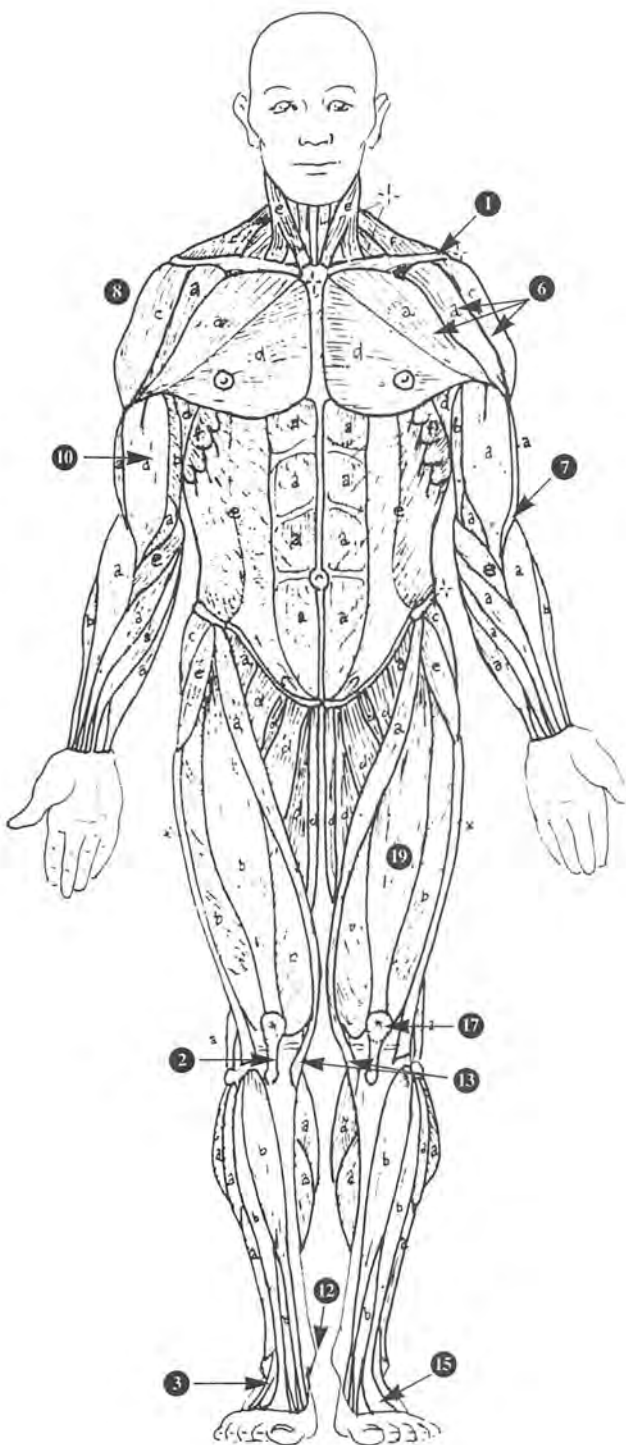

Ultrasound—An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

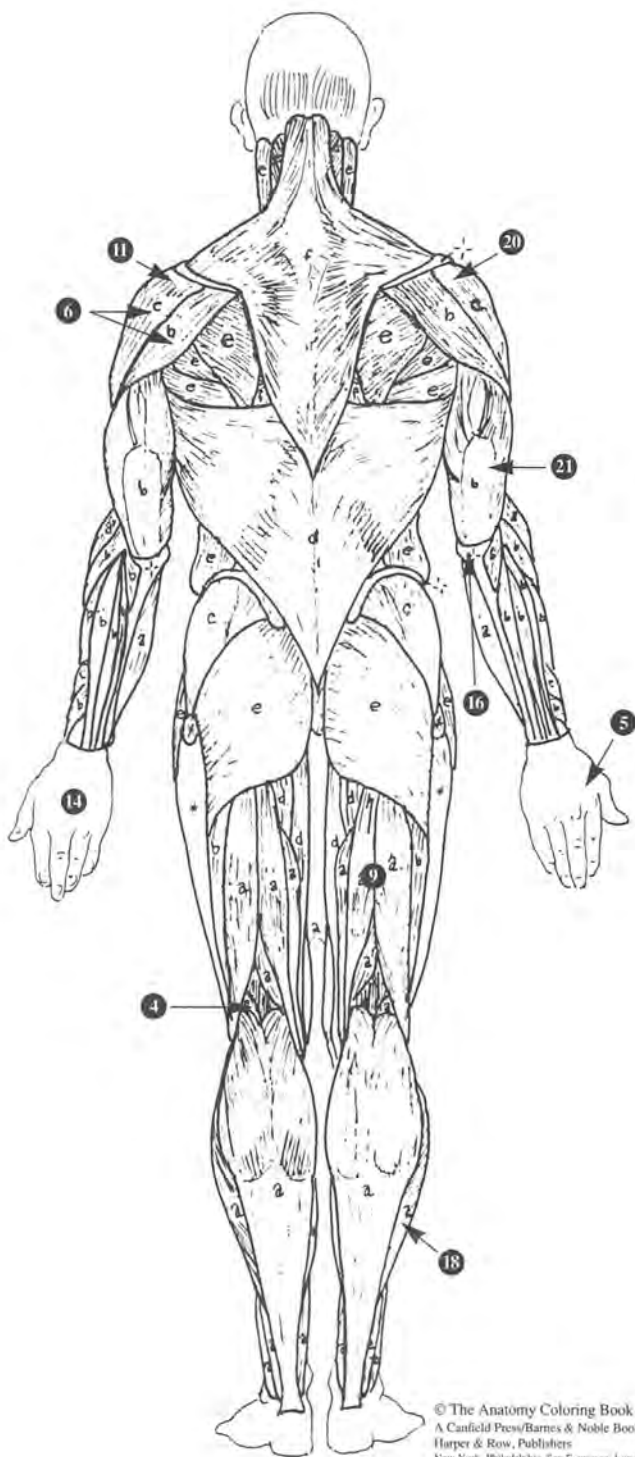

Whirlpool—Water bath in which the water is propelled by air to produce a massaging therapeutic action.

"Wind Knocked Out"—Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve trunk, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

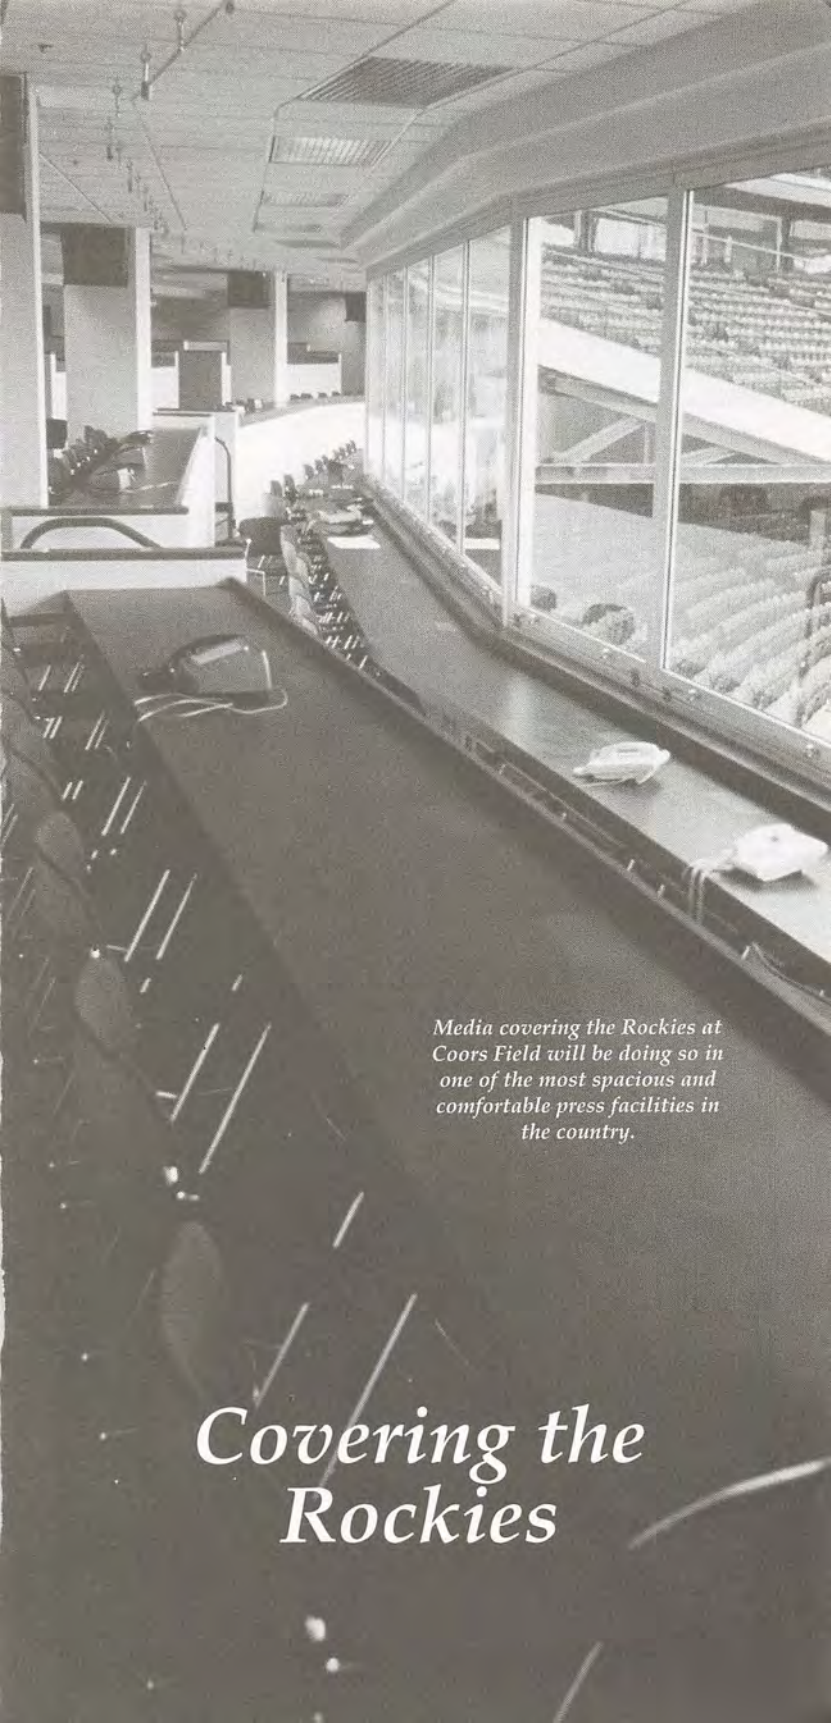

Wrist—The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetrum, lunate and scaphoid).

Zygoma—The cheekbone.

Covering the Rockies

Rockies on Radio

Wayne Hagin

Radio Broadcaster

Wayne is in his third year of providing the play-by-play call of Rockies' baseball on 85/KOA radio and along the network. A native of Denver, he is in his 13th season of major league baseball broadcasting, a career that began with the Oakland A's. He then remained in the bay area, working the games of the San Francisco Giants, then moved to the midwest for duty with the Chicago White Sox.

A former collegiate baseball player at San Diego State University, Hagin's playing career as a youth also included a trip to the American Legion World Series in 1974.

His broadcasting career has included work with ESPN's college basketball coverage, Big 10 basketball and Pac-10 hoops. One of the original SportsCenter anchors for ESPN when they opened their doors in Bristol, CT, in 1979, Wayne has also done some duty locally for Prime Network.

Hagin, 39, was raised in San Jose, CA. He and his wife, Valerie, have two sons, Austin and Taylor and make their home in Highlands Ranch.

Jeff Kingery

Radio Broadcaster

Teaming up with Wayne Hagin for a third season, Jeff's voice is a familiar one to sports fans in the area, joining the Rockies after an 11-year stint at the play-by-play announcer of the Denver Nuggets on 85/KOA. Though a staple on Nuggets' games for those 11 years, it was a lifelong dream achieved when he was named one of the play-by-play voices of the Rockies.

He originally came to Colorado to broadcast baseball, and was behind the mike when the Denver Bears won the league championship in 1981. In 14 years at KOA, Jeff still looks back at the inaugural season for his most memorable sports moments, listing Eric Young's Mile High Stadium opening day and season-ending heroics at the top of his memories.

Besides his work in baseball and basketball, Kingery is also an auto racing enthusiast, and has covered events for ESPN and Prime Network.

Away from the booth, he spends his "off" time working with Easter Seals and the Denver Dumb Friends League. He and wife, Meryl, and two dogs and cat, make their home in Englewood.

NETWORKING ON RADIO AND TELEVISION

The Rockies on radio has expanded to 53 network stations for the 1995 season, with Newsradio 85/KOA once again serving as the flagship. The network encompasses 10 states, including 12 stations in the homestate of Colorado, and other network stops in Arkansas (1), Idaho (1), Kansas (2), Montana (12), Nebraska (4), New Mexico (3), South Dakota (2), Utah (3), and Wyoming (13).

The television network will once again be led by KWGN-TV, Denver's 2, providing the flagship responsibilities. The TV network includes seven states and 15 different stations, including six stations in Colorado.

A complete list of both the radio and television networks is on page 202.

Rockies on Television

Charlie Jones

Television Broadcaster

Charlie is in his third year behind the microphone on the TV side of Rockies' baseball. The veteran sportscaster has had an illustrious broadcasting career, working virtually every major event, while just completing his 35th season of NFL football, the 30th at NBC Sports. Known for his gridiron work, Jones also spent 16 years on NBC's Baseball Game-of-the-Week, and worked for a couple of seasons with the Cincinnati Reds and a year with the California Angels.

Aside from providing Rockies' fans with Mile High memories over the first two seasons of the club's existence, Charlie's broadcasting credentials include all phases of amateur and professional sports, including the Summer Olympics, nine different collegiate bowl games, college basketball, Wimbledon, golf, track and field, and boxing to name only a few.

Charlie was also part of the announce crew of the first Super Bowl between Green Bay and Kansas City in 1967, the first AFL Championship, the first Senior Skins Game, the first NBC Sports World, the first World Cup Gymnastics, and the first multi-national athletic event in China, the 1980 Beijing Invitational Track and Field meet. His familiar voice has been most recently heard on various info-commercials on television.

Dave Campbell

Television Broadcaster

Dave enters his second season in the Rockies' television booth alongside Charlie Jones. A former major league infielder, Campbell made the move to Colorado after spending four seasons as an analyst on nationally televised games for ESPN. Aside from his regular weeknight game assignments, he filled in on occasion on the Sunday Night Baseball package, and made the trek to Bristol, CT, on a weekly basis to work on the set of the "Baseball Tonight" studio show. He was also assigned to provide on the scene coverage of both the League Championship Series and the World Series. He continues to work for ESPN, both as a play-by-play man and analyst, and has periodical studio assignments when his Rockies' schedule permits.

His baseball broadcasting career began in 1978, when he left the field as a minor league manager, and joined Jerry Coleman in the radio booth with the San Diego Padres. He and Coleman provided the play-by-play call for the Padres for 11 seasons, including the 1984 campaign that culminated in a National League Championship for San Diego. Campbell left the Padres after the '88 season and joined ESPN shortly thereafter.

He had an eight-year major league playing career that started in 1967 with the Detroit Tigers and ended in 1974 with Houston. He also played for four seasons with the Padres and had a brief stint with St. Louis.

An alum of the University of Michigan, he captained the 1964 team and was a member of the '62 NCAA Championship club. He and wife, Diane, have two married daughters, Courtney and Shelby, and now call Colorado Springs home.

COLORADO ROCKIES

Public Relations Department

DIRECTOR - PUBLIC RELATIONS — Mike Swanson

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR - PUBLIC RELATIONS — Coley Brannon

STAFF ASSISTANTS - PUBLIC RELATIONS — John Kehl & Raili Mood

The staff of the Colorado Rockies are proud to welcome you to the newest facility in major league baseball, Coors Field. We thank you for your tremendous coverage during our first two seasons and look forward to accommodating your needs in the years to come. Following are the Public Relations policies for the 1995 season. If there are any requests or questions, do not hesitate to ask any member of our staff and will make every effort to fulfill your needs.

DAILY CREDENTIALS: These will be issued to those who do not qualify for season credentials. These consist of freelance writers, weekly and monthly publications for special coverage. Daily credentials will also be issued to area Radio & TV stations when the need arises for extra pre-game personnel (i.e. live shots, etc.), and daily newspapers who have had last-minute changes in coverage. These requests may be made via FAX on letterhead, only if that news source is already on file with the P.R. office. All daily requests must be made at least 48 hours in advance of the game to be covered.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS: These will be issued to those photographers on assignment for legitimate newsgathering organizations and those representatives of companies licensed by Major League Baseball. Photographers for licensees will only be granted daily passes. Priority in all photo areas will be granted to news organizations on nightly deadlines. No freelance photographers will be granted credentials. All photographs taken are to be used for news-gathering purposes or officially licensed products. Any other use of photographs taken will be considered a violation of existing trademark and copyright restrictions.

AUTOGRAPH POLICY: Credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the playing field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Should the need arise for an autograph request, notify the Public Relations Department and we will attempt to accommodate. Any violation of these guidelines will result in immediate revocation of the credential and future access.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: All credentials will list specific locations in the stadium where access is permitted. Members of the media must have a specific reason for clubhouse access to gain admittance. All media will be required to sign in at the clubhouse entrance. The clubhouse will close 50 minutes prior to first pitch each day, and there may be times where the clubhouse must close earlier for team meetings. Generally, no more than a 10-minute "cooling off" period is applied after games. Manager Don Baylor will be available for a brief period of time between games of any doubleheaders. Access to the visiting clubhouse will be determined by the visiting club's policies.

FIELD ACCESS: All members of the media with field access provided on their credential will be allowed to conduct interviews during specified times prior to game time. The field must be clear of media at the same time the clubhouses are closed, 50 minutes prior to the beginning of the game. At no time is the media permitted in fair territory and must stay behind the first and third base bags. These precautions are for the safety of all involved while batting practice is in progress. Members of the media may enter the field via either dugout tunnel, or behind home plate, but if departing inside the 50-minute time limit, must do so through the home plate door, or the visiting dugout.

LIVE TRANSMISSIONS: Non-rightsholders are permitted to transmit live reports from Coors Field prior to and after every game. No live reports are permitted from inside the Rockies' clubhouse, all must be done either on the warning track, or from the interview room on the service level of the stadium. Live television reports by non-rightsholders are prohibited while the rightsholder is on the air or the game is in progress. Radio stations and assigned correspondents for out of town reports are allowed to give the score of the game during the half innings, however, at no time can they file reports once an inning is underway. Any violations of these policies will result in revocation of credentials.

ROVING CAMERAS: At no time will local television stations be permitted to use a camera light in the seating area of the stadium. Should a light come on, the game will be stopped by the umpiring crew. Separate credentials will be available for "roving" the stands prior to and during games. Interviews are to be conducted either on the concourse, or between innings, not while the game is in progress.

WORKING PRESS BOX: The two-level press box in Coors Field is directly behind home plate. The lower level seating will be prioritized by daily print media requiring space to cover games, visiting beat writers, and area radio and television staff not on the air during games. The upper level of the press box consists of two television booths and four radio booths for all live broadcasts originating from Coors Field. At no time will guests be permitted in the press box.

PRESS DINING: The press dining room is located behind the main press box. Pre-game meals for the media will be served from 2 hours prior to game time through the first inning. Snacks and soft drinks will be provided in the press club throughout the game. Media members must be properly credentialed for admittance to the dining room.

PHONES FOR MEDIA: The Colorado Rockies provide a limited number of Charge Call phones in each press box. Should media members feel there are not enough lines available, they should investigate installing their own line for use during the season.

To order your own press box phone for the season or your visit to Coors Field, the US West Representative is Joanne DeRosa (800) 301-9220 or (612) 399-7639.

What, When and Where

Coors Field Baseball's Newest Diamond

After two seasons in Mile High Stadium the Colorado Rockies have now taken up residence in their permanent home at 20th and Blake, Coors Field. The newest facility in major league baseball is the first baseball only stadium built in the National League since Dodger Stadium was opened in 1962, and the first newly constructed stadium in the league since Montreal moved into Olympic Stadium for the 1977 season. Since that time, the American League has opened stadiums specifically designed for baseball in Texas, Kansas City, Chicago, Cleveland, Baltimore and refurbished Yankee Stadium.

The Coors Field dream began on August 14, 1990, when voters from the six-county district passed a 0.1% sales tax to finance the construction of a new baseball facility if a National League franchise was awarded. On July 5, 1991, 11 months after passage of the tax proposal, the Colorado Rockies came into existence by virtue of unanimous approval of major league owners.

The first shovels of dirt were turned on October 16, 1992, and a scant 29 1/2 months later, Coors Field is ready for action. The 50,200 seat venue was originally voted to be a 43,800 seat ballpark, but due to the tremendous attendance for the first two seasons of Rockies' baseball, club ownership added nearly 7,000 seats at their expense to bring the capacity to its present total.

Details of the Rockies new home:

Location

Coors Field is built on the corner of 20th and Blake in the lower downtown district of Denver. It has an immediate "Denver" identity with building materials ranging from a red brick facade that matches the lower downtown warehouses, to the natural sandstone from a Colorado quarry, to the structural steel that reflects the site's rail yard heritage, to the terra cotta columbines (Colorado's state flower). There is also a remarkable view of the Rocky Mountain range from the first base and right field side of the seating bowl.

The Structure

The land Coors Field occupies 76 acres, including three acres for the playing field. There were 181,000 cubic yards of excavation, and an additional 86,000 cubic yards of backfill. The structure required 8,975 tons of steel, including 4,500 tons of rebar, and 558,300 square feet of concrete paving. The construction consists 1,400,000 red bricks, or 177 miles, and an equal 177 miles of concrete masonry blocks, totaling 700,000. There are 10 miles of handrails throughout the ballpark, and the outside of the facility is decorated with 40 terra cotta columbine tiles, representing the Colorado state flower. The upperdeck screens surrounding the ballpark is 95 feet above Blake Street, while the light towers are 140 feet above Blake.

Seating Area

Coors Field has a seating capacity of 50,200, which covers three levels in the main frame of the stadium, and the Rockpile located in centerfield. The seats, green throughout the stadium, measure 19 to 19.5 inches in width on the lower and upper levels, while seats on the club level will be 22 inches wide. Each row is marked by a Rockies' logo and its row number. The configuration of the stadium allows fans to walk the perimeter of the field level seats without losing sight of the playing field, thanks to the concessions and restrooms located on the outside portion of the level.

Club Level—This is the premium seating area in Coors Field, with padded wider seats (22"), more leg room between rows and individual waitress/waiter service. It's location is directly above the field box seats running from the leftfield corner to the rightfield corner. Behind the seating area is a climate controlled private lounge that will feature luxury furnishings, lounges, television viewing and upscale concessions.

Rockpile—One tradition carried over from Mile High Stadium will be the continuation of Rockpile seating. The isolated upper level seating in straightaway centerfield at Coors Field has been designated as the Rockpile with varying degrees of pricing, but still carrying the original premise of bringing baseball to the fans with a day of game ticket available at a low price. The price policy for the Rockpile is a $1.00 cost for youngsters 12 years of age and under, and the same price for senior fans 55 years of age and older. There will be a two ticket limit on those purchases, with all other ages being charged $4.00 for that seat. Tickets for the Rockpile will go on sale two and a half hours before every game.

Suites—There are 52 luxury suites across the upper portion of the club level, and an additional four party suites that possess the capability to expand to six. All but two of the suites have 12 seats stationed outside to view the game, with the remaining suites with seating for 20 outside. The party suites are sold on a per game basis to various individuals or groups.

Handicap Seating—There are over 500 wheelchair seats available daily, including companion seating, and disabled seating consisting of armless chairs. Handicapped seating is in premier locations around Coors Field, including in the front row directly behind the screen, the front row of the leftfield seating and below the manual scoreboard in rightfield.

Mile High Row—The 21st row of the upper deck in Coors Field are purple seats running from end-to-end signifying 5,280 feet above sea level.

Conveniences—There are 74 restrooms scattered throughout the facility, including 35 womens restrooms, 31 mens and eight family toilets. The stadium has low grade ramps to take fans from the lower to upper levels, in addition to nine escalators and 11 passenger elevators.

Breakdown of Seating Areas

Lower Bowl, Rightfield Box and Pavilion	21,339
Lower Reserved and Rightfield Lower Reserved	4,683
Upper Reserved and Rightfield Upper Reserved	13,102
Club and Rightfield Mezzanine	7,039
Luxury Suites	797
Rockpile	2,283
Wheelchair, Companion, Convertible	957
Total Capacity	50,200

Scoreboards

The scoreboard system at Coors Field will rank at the top in professional sports. The boards include a Sony JumboTron video screen in leftfield, four matrix boards supplied by Daktronics and a manually operated out-of-town scoreboard that is in the field of play in rightfield.

Sony JumboTron—The Sony JumboTron System JTS-35 is the latest technology available in the industry. The first such board in Colorado, similar boards are used at Jacobs Field, Camden Yards, Candlestick Park, The Ballpark in Arlington, Anaheim Stadium and Three Rivers Stadium. The board will feature full color capabilities, provide replays of exciting action and various features and music videos.

Matrix Boards—The main board in leftfield will provide fans with all in-game information, including lineups, linescore of the game in progress, and all pertinent statistics of players. There are three side matrix boards attached to the upper deck, with two on the third base side and one above first base. Two of those boards will provide fans with a linescore and count, while the other will be for out-of-town scores.

Manual Scoreboard—One of the distinguishing features in Coors Field will be the Out-of-Town scoreboard in the rightfield fence. In the field of play, this board will be manually operated and provide fans with up to the minute updates of all games in major league baseball.

Dimensions

Leftfield line	347 feet
Power alley to left-center	390 feet
Straightaway centerfield	415 feet
Power alley to right-center	375 feet
Rightfield line	350 feet
Height of wall	8 feet (from leftfield corner to right-center) 14 feet (at the manual scoreboard in rightfield)
Distance from front row to home plate	56' 4" (3rd closest in the National League)
Depth of playing field below Blake Street	21 feet

Designers and Builders

Coors Field was designed by HOK Sports of Kansas City, MO, the same designers of Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Jacobs Field in Cleveland, the new home of the Indians, and Hong Kong Stadium, a phenomenal new facility in Japan just to scratch the surface. For the second straight year, HOK Sports has been honored by the American Institute of Architects for their work in stadium design for the above mentioned facilities.

The general contractors for the project were Mortenson/Barton Malow.

Other Features

Ballpark Club—A six tiered structure in the rightfield corner, it will be available to members for lunch on non-game days, and prior to and during games both day and night. The club will feature an upscale menu, while fans will have the opportunity to watch the game either outdoors, or from the climate controlled indoor dining room, which will also have televisions for easier viewing.

Student Movers Building—The only building on the stadium property to remain, the old Student Movers Building has been renovated to house a variety of items, including the kitchen for the Ballpark Club, private dining rooms, and the Sandlot Brewery which will make its own brand of Coors Beer.

Brick Paver Program—As many as 5,000 fans jumped at the opportunity to purchase bricks that will be placed at the Wynkoop pedestrian plaza. Fans were permitted to have three lines inscribed on their personal brick purchase for a fee of $75.00, with the proceeds from the sales earmarked to help fund the public art and other celebrational elements that will become a permanent part of the ballpark.

Concessions—There are 28 full-service concession stands in Coors Field, and numerous other vending and novelty areas around the ballpark. Included is a concession stand built specifically for children in the leftfield corner of Coors Field, where a play area has been constructed.

Mark Razum

Head Groundskeeper

Mark joined the Rockies last October after a six-year stint as the headman of the Oakland Athletics' grounds crew at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. Acclaimed as one of the best fields in baseball, Razum joined the A's and began work at the Coliseum after seven seasons of preparing the spring training complex for the A's in Arizona.

His grounds keeping career began in 1978 with the Cleveland Indians, prior to joining the Oakland franchise. Mark's field at the Oakland Coliseum was voted by the players as the best playing surface in the American League from 1992-94. His responsibilities with the Rockies began immediately upon joining the organization, preparing the various dirt mixtures, hiring a crew and getting the field in game condition for the arrival of the club from spring training. Razum has already been selected as a member of George Toma's ground crew for the 1996 Super Bowl, which will be played at Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe, AZ.

A graduate of St. Joseph High School in his native Cleveland, OH, Mark and his wife, Katherine, make their home in Aurora.

Playing Field

Natural Grass—The playing surface at Coors Field consists of 120,000 square feet of sod that was grown at the Graff Turf Farms in Fort Morgan, CO, and is a mixture of four strains of bluegrass and two strains of rye grass. The Graff Turf Farms was selected by RBI (Randall & Blake, Inc.), the contractor chosen to provide the Coors Field playing surface. Known as Gravi-Turf, a natural turf athletic system, the field has 10,000 feet of drainage pipes, 3,000 tons of pea gravel for drainage and 6,000 tons of sand in an organic peat growing mixture. These ingredients provide for a drainage rate of five inches of precipitation per hour, virtually eliminating the cancellation of games unless the rain is ongoing. The first piece of sod was put in place during a ceremony on October 25, 1994, with the field completely in place by mid-November.

Heating System—The playing field houses 45 miles of wire to provide Coors Field with the only underground heating system in major league baseball to prevent field freezing or any surprise early and late-season snow storms than could interrupt play.

Dirt and Warning Track—The infield dirt is a combination of Colorado clay and sand, built to over three inches deep. The warning track is 90 percent crushed lava and 10 percent red clay, both materials coming from Colorado.

Sod Farm—In front of the batter's eye in centerfield is a piece of land appropriately called the sod farm. The grass, grown with the actual playing surface at Graff Turf Farms, will be maintained in the same manner of the playing surface, and should grass wear out during the season, replacements pieces are just beyond the outfield wall.

Bullpens—The Rockies and visiting team bullpens are back-to-back in right-centerfield. The Rockies' pen is nearest the manually operated scoreboard, with the "dugout" located underneath the board, while the opposition is stationed on the centerfield side, with their "dugout" just beyond the outfield fence.

Colorado Rockies Chronology

1985

Aug. 8 - Baseball's new Basic Agreement permits the National League to expand by two teams to match the American League's 14 teams.

1987

Oct. 31 - U.S. Senators from eight states, including Colorado Sen. Tim Wirth, announce they have formed a Congressional Task Force to investigate baseball expansion.

1989

June 15 - Baseball says it will announce a timetable for N.L. expansion within 90 days after the completion of a new Basic Agreement between the players and owners.

1990

Aug. 14 - Denver area voters pass a 0.1% sales tax to finance construction of a new baseball stadium if a franchise is awarded.

Aug. 23 - Colorado Governor Roy Romer's Baseball Advisory Committee designates Colorado Baseball Partnership to spearhead the formation of the ownership entity to acquire Denver's National League franchise.

Sept. 18 - The N.L. Expansion Committee hears presentation from the Denver.

Dec. 18 - The N.L. unveils its short list of six potential sites: Denver, South Florida, Tampa-St. Petersburg, Orlando, Buffalo, and Washington, D.C.

1991

Jan. 25 - Denver's baseball ownership group launches season ticket drive, requiring a refundable deposit of $50 per seat.

March 13 - The Denver Metropolitan Major League Baseball Stadium District formally chooses a site at 20th and Blake Streets for a traditional major league ballpark if Denver is awarded a team.

March 15 - Colorado Baseball Partnership announces that the proposed baseball park will be named Coors Field. Eleven days later the N.L. Expansion Committee visits Denver.

June 6 - Commissioner Fay Vincent announces that both leagues will share the $190 million expansion fee and that both will contribute players in the expansion draft.

June 10 - Vincent announces Denver and South Florida are the two applicants chosen by the N.L. Expansion Committee.

June 28 - The two leagues and the Major League Baseball Players Association compromise: A.L. teams will protect extra players in each draft round. Only eight A.L. teams will have to give up three players; the other six will give up players only in the first two rounds. With the agreement, a final expansion vote, via telephone conference call, is scheduled for July 5.

July 5 - Major league owners unanimously approve Denver and South Florida as baseball's two newest franchises. Colorado Baseball Partnership announces that the team will be called the Colorado Rockies and unveils the team logo.

Feb. 14 - KOA Radio (850 AM) signs a five-year broadcasting agreement to become the radio voice of the Rockies.

March 2 - Tucson, Arizona is selected as the Rockies' official spring training home starting in 1993. The agreement between the Rockies and the Pima County Sports Authority calls for the club to play its spring training games at Hi Corbett Field, the former Cactus League home of the Cleveland Indians.

March 19 - The club announces its 1993 ticket prices, seating locations, and season ticket packages. Also announced is the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation commitment to provide a minimum of 150,000 tickets free of charge in 1993 to children and families within the region involved in activities aligned with the Foundation's objectives.

April 16 - KWGN-TV (Channel 2) in Denver signs a five-year agreement to become the exclusive over-the-air television broadcaster of Rockies games.

April 22 - Rockies announce that baseball fans throughout the Rocky Mountain Region have committed to buy 24,168 season tickets for the club's 1993 inaugural season, placing the club fourth among all MLB teams for 81-game season ticket plans.

June 1 - John Burke, a pitcher from the University of Florida and a native of Englewood, Colo., is selected by the Rockies in the first round of the MLB Free Agent Draft, making him the club's first-ever draft selection. The 6-4, 220-pound righthander, the 27th player selected overall in the draft, signs a contract with the Rockies that day.

June 6 - Rockies conduct a tryout camp at the University of Denver baseball field.

June 16 - The first game in the history of the Rockies organization is played in Bend, Oregon, between the Bend Rockies and Boise Hawks (Class A, Northwest League). With the Rockies trailing 4-1 in the bottom of the eighth inning, Bend catcher Will Scalzitti hits a grand-slam to propel his club to a dramatic 6-4 win.

July 4 - The Rockies unveil their traditional-style 1993 uniforms (home, away, and Sunday alternate) at the Team USA-Team Cuba baseball game at Mile High Stadium before 61,165 fans. Included on the home uniform is purple pinstripes, making the Rockies the first team in major league history to feature purple stripes. The club's road uniform is gray and the Sunday alternate jersey is black. The Rockies also announce that the team's logo has been refined. The arc of the logo is switched from silver to black to emphasize the word "COLORADO".

July 13 - The Rockies announce that the club has signed 40 of the 50 players selected in the June Free Agent Draft. The 40 signees represent the highest total among the 28 MLB clubs which participated in the draft. The Rockies are also the only club in the majors to sign all of their first 25 draft selections.

Sept. 2 - Jerry McMorris, Oren Benton and Charles Monfort acquire 100% of the interests in the Rockies previously owned by non-Coloradoans and assume control.

Oct. 16 - Groundbreaking for Coors Field takes place at 20th & Blake Streets.

Oct. 27 - Don Baylor named the first manager in Rockies history.

Nov. 9 - Colorado Baseball Partnership completes acquisition of franchise by the paying of a $95 million franchise fee. Shortly thereafter, the Rockies acquire pitcher Travis Buckley from the Montreal Expos in exchange for "Player to be Named" (Matt Connolly) in first trade in club history.

Nov. 16 - The Rockies sign free agent first baseman Andres Galarraga to a contract.

Nov. 17 - The Rockies select David Nied from the Atlanta Braves to open the MLB Expansion Draft in New York City. At the same time, over 20,000 fans fill Curragan Hall in Denver to watch the building of a major league franchise. After the draft, Colorado trades Kevin Reimer and Jody Reed for outfielder Dante Bichette and pitcher Rudy Seanez, respectively.

1993

Jan. 26 - The Rockies announce a restructuring of the front office, with Jerry McMorris taking over the roles of Chairman, President and C.E.O. of the ballclub, Oren Benton and Charles Monfort are named Vice Chairmen.

Feb. 18 - Pitchers and catchers reported to Tucson, AZ for spring training and worked out the following day. Position players worked out for the first time five days later.

March 6 - The Rockies won their first spring training game, 7-2 over San Francisco. David Nied gets the start and pitches out of a jam in the 1st inning by striking out Barry Bonds. The club's first selection in the Expansion Draft pitched 3.0 innings and earned the win in the Rockies' debut.

April 5 - The first regular season game in Colorado Rockies' history is played at Shea Stadium in New York. The Mets and Dwight Gooden are too much for the Rockies, however, nothing could dampen the excitement of the historic day.

April 9 - Major League Baseball is finally a reality in the Rocky Mountain Region as the Rox host the Montreal in the home opener. Eric Young led off the bottom of the 1st inning with a dramatic home run off Kent Bottenfield, bringing the record setting crowd of 80,227 to their feet. Colorado cruised to an 11-4 victory and 37-year old Bryn Smith records the first win in franchise history, throwing 7.0 innings of shutout ball.

May 9 - Lydia McKee is identified as the 1,000,000th fan through the gates at Mile High Stadium. Ironically, the mother of two is recognized on Mother's Day. The Rockies reach the million mark in attendance in just 17 home dates, breaking the previous best of 21 set by the '92 Toronto Blue Jays.

May 14 - Jay Gainer homers on the first pitch of his first major league at bat, becoming only the 12th player in history and 5th in the National League to do so.

May 27 - Dale Murphy retires from baseball after a 17-year career. The Rockies saluted him with a pre-game ceremony five days later in Denver presenting him with a framed jersey that he wore with the Rockies, a bronzed statue of a boy and his ball glove and a Stetson 30X cowboy hat to always remind him of the time he spent in the Rocky Mountains. His teammates presented him with a Colorado Rockies leather jacket.

June 3 - David Nied has to leave an exhibition game against AAA Colorado Springs with a torn ulnar collateral ligament in his right elbow. He is forced to sit out the next 91 games.

June 6 - Andres Galarraga is named National League Player-of-the-Week.

June 13 - The Rockies beat the Houston Astros 9-1 to take all three games of the series, completing the first sweep in franchise history.

June 20 - Given that the 1,000,000 mark in attendance was surpassed on Mother's Day, it is only appropriate that on Father's Day, the 36th home date, the 2,000,000 plateau would be passed. The Rockies also reach this mark faster than any team in history, again breaking the '92 Blue Jays old mark of 41 dates.

July 1 - Andres Galarraga is named National League Player-of-the-Month for June.

July 25 - Andres Galarraga strains his right knee in a collision going after a foul ball. The Rockies lose the game in 11 innings and begin a 13-game losing streak, the longest skid in club history.

July 28 - The Rockies surpass the 3,000,000 mark in attendance in only 53 home dates. Once again, the club is the fastest to reach the milestone, breaking the '92 Blue Jays mark of 61 dates.

Aug. 8 - The Rockies beat the San Diego Padres 5-2, ending the losing skid at 13 games. From this day forward, the Rockies would play the third best baseball in the National League, going 31-21 in the final 52 games.

Aug. 12 - The Rockies complete a four game sweep of the Dodgers in Los Angeles. It marks the 1st time in history that an expansion club has swept a 4-game series at an established club's ballpark.

Aug. 13 - Charlie Hayes hits a 3-run homer in the 9th inning to give the Rockies a 5-3 victory in Houston and extend their winning streak to a club record 6 games.

Aug. 21 - Andres Galarraga returns to the lineup for the first game of a doubleheader after missing 24 games due to injury. The Rockies swept a pair from the Mets, marking the first doubleheader victory in franchise history.

Sept. 13 - Following a 91 degree day for the Broncos on Sunday, a cold front moved in overnight and the Monday night Rockies game with the Houston Astros was officially snowed out.

Sept. 17 - The Rockies surpass the 4,000,000 mark in attendance and break the all-time single season attendance record in 71 home dates. David Nied gets his first win in almost 5 months, 12-3 over the Dodgers.

Sept. 19 - Rockies third baseman Charlie Hayes is named National League Player-of-the-Week.

Sept. 26 - The final attendance tally is 4,483,350, shattering the previous single season attendance record. The Rockies give their fans a going away present, beating the Cincinnati Reds 12-7. Eric Young had not hit a home run since he led off the home opener, but finds away to hit two more in the home finale.

Oct. 1 - Andres Galarraga earns his 2nd National League Player-of-the-Month award, taking top honors for September.

Oct. 3 - The Rockies fall to the Western Division champion Atlanta Braves on the final day of their inaugural year, but finish with the most wins ever by a National League expansion club. Andres Galarraga wins the batting title becoming the first expansion player to accomplish the feat. He is also the first Venezuelan native to claim a league batting title.

Nov. 2 - The Rockies and Denver Stadium District agree to expand Coors Field to seat approximately 50,000.

Dec. 1 - Free agent outfielder Ellis Burks agrees to a three-year contract.

Dec. 6 - The Rockies re-sign first baseman Andres Galarraga to a four-year deal.

1994

Jan. 7 - Free agent shortstop Walt Weiss agrees to a two-year deal and becomes the first player to appear on the roster of both '93 expansion teams.

Jan. 13 - The Rockies announce a slight change in the uniforms. Responding to fans' wishes, players names are placed on the back of the home jerseys. The road uniform goes to a solid purple "Rockies" across the front.

Jan. 31 - The Rockies establish a 1.5 million dollar after-school program for Denver's middle schools.

Feb. 8 - The Rockies announce they have signed outfielder Dante Bichette to a one-year pact, avoiding a salary arbitration hearing scheduled for February 15.

Feb. 25 - The Rockies announce that they will exercise the '95 option on manager Don Baylor's contract.

April 14 - David Nied worked 7.0 scoreless innings, while Darren Holmes and Bruce Ruffin throw an inning each to record the first shutout in club history, 5-0 at Philadelphia.

April 16 - A mysterious egg found at the Coors Field construction site hatches before the game at Mile High into a purple triceratops. The dinosaur is adopted by the Rockies and the children of Denver as the team mascot, named Dinger.

May 4 - For the third time in their seven months of baseball, a Rockies player is named National League Player-of-the-Month. Ellis Burks earns the award, batting .413 (33-for-80) with 9 homers and 17 RBI in April.

May 26 - Armando Reynoso undergoes successful elbow and knee surgery. Reynoso tore a ligament in his elbow six days earlier and had recurring tendinitis in his knee.

June 21 - David Nied allows only 4 hits in an 8-0 victory over Houston and collects the first complete game shutout in club history.

June 26 - The Rockies claim one of the few major league attendance records not yet in their possession, with 217,009 fans attending the three-game series vs. SF.

July 4 - The Rockies play the longest day of baseball in their history against the Chicago Cubs. The teams play a doubleheader to make up a previous rainout on April 30. The first game starts at 12:09 p.m. (CDT) and game two ends almost 11 hours later. The second game includes three rain delays and went 15-innings.

July 17 - The Rockies push their major league attendance record for a four-game series even higher with 259,113 on hand for the St. Louis series. The previous record set by Colorado also involved the Cardinals in the inaugural season.

July 18 - Dante Bichette earns the N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors for the four games after the All-Star break, batting .632 (12-for-19) with 2 homers, including a grand slam and 12 RBI.

Aug. 7 - The 3,000,000th fan of the season enters Mile High Stadium in the 52nd date, breaking the major league record of 53 dates originally set by the Rockies in 1993.

Aug. 11 - The final games of the season are played prior to the midnight strike deadline set by the Major League Baseball Players Association.

Sept. 14 - Portland, OR becomes the new home of the Rockies Short-Season A entry in the Northwest League, replacing Bend.

Sept. 15 - A two-year agreement is reached with Class A Salem of the Carolina League. After a name the team contest, the club is named the Salem Avalanche.

Sept. 30 - The Colorado Rockies, City of Denver and the Feed the Children program announce an innovative literacy program called "Hitting Home." The program, which will run through the end of the 1995-96 school year, will distribute two books to 2,300 students for them to take home.

Oct. 5 - Former major league manager Art Howe becomes the third batting coach in as many years for the Colorado Rockies.

Oct. 31 - The Rockies Baseball Operations department is restructured as Dick Balderson is named Vice President/Player Personnel and Tony Siegle is hired to replace Walt Jocketty as Assistant General Manager.

Nov. 2 - The Rockies announce they will be a major sponsor of the 1995 National Beep Ball Association World Series, to be held in Denver August 7-13, 1995.

Nov. 24 - 6,000 pounds of food and over $700, collected at the Rockies Wives Food Drive held in April, is distributed on Thanksgiving Day through COMPA Food Ministries.

Dec. 20 - After leading the N.L. with a .833 winning percentage, Marvin Freeman signs a two-year deal with the Rockies.

Rockies in the Community

The Colorado Rockies organization has never lost sight of the importance of the off-field impact it has on the surrounding community. Throughout the year, both the front-office staff and the players and their families have made valuable contributions through donations, benefits and their time.

Three particular programs emphasized the wide-ranging involvement of the entire organization. The Project S.O.A.R. program of the Denver Parks and Recreation Department (Special/social events, educational Opportunity, Arts and Recreation) became a integral part of the club's community involvement in 1994. The on-field talent also increased their efforts, with nine players and their wives involved in the Player Ticket Giveaway program and the Rockies wives organized their own charity events to benefit the homeless children and underprivileged families in the area.

The organization has continually stated that their major focus of community participation involves youth activities, more specifically youth baseball, literacy, and addressing alcohol and drug abuse. There are a number of programs which extend directly to the schools, including the Project S.O.A.R. program.

The Rockies realize that children need positive alternatives to gang membership or after-school idleness. By investing $1.5 million in funding over a five year period, the Rockies help fill the void for constructive activities during the after school hours.

The donation has enabled the expansion of youth programs at Baker, Cole, Martín Luther King, Smiley and Henry middle schools. The various S.O.A.R. offerings include interpersonal skills development, special events, communications, experiential education activities and computer science.

The Player Ticket Giveaway program was designed to allow the donation of tickets to a Rockies home game to nonprofit organizations. More specifically, the Rockies wanted to reach at-risk, disadvantaged and disabled youth. The nine participants in the program included Dante and Marianna Bichette, Ellis and Dori Burks, Andres and Eneyda Galarraga, Joe and Kim Girardi, Mike and Nichole Harkey, Greg Harris, Charlie and Gelinda Hayes, Howard and Kim Johnson, and Walt and Terri Weiss. These participants donated $175,000 to purchase more than 40,000 tickets for underprivileged, at-risk youth last season.

The Rockies wives organized a food drive on April 3 last year during the Rockies open workout at Mile High Stadium. The drive was hosted to benefit COMPA Food Ministries, which feeds approximately 5,000 families a week throughout the six county Denver metro area. The wives accepted non-perishable food items or cash donations outside gate entrances and raised nearly $700 and 6,000 pounds of food.

Later in the season the wives were at it again, this time holding a "Hitting For the Homeless" charity softball game on June 26 to benefit the Lighthouse Homeless Children Mission. Lighthouse is a shelter that feeds approximately 5,000 families a week, including 75 to 100 homeless children each night in the Capitol Hill area. A few of the players were on hand to coach or umpire the event and signed autographs for a donation.

These are just a few examples of how the Rockies organization recognizes the importance community involvement, from the front office staff to the players on the field. The ballclub will continually find new ways to make a positive contribution to the community, more specifically to benefit the underprivileged and at-risk youth.

Rockies Charities

Over the winter, the organization named Roger Kinney Executive Director of Rockies' Charities. The ballclub has two charities, The Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation and the Colorado Rockies Charity Fund, a fund of the Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation.

The Foundation was formed in 1991 as a public charitable organization with emphasis toward underprivileged and at-risk youth. Kinney is responsible for fundraising and grantmaking activities in the areas of youth baseball, education and literacy and drug/alcohol awareness.

Within these guidelines, the Foundation formed the School Assembly Program which emphasizes the importance of staying in school and off drugs. Area sports personality, Irv Brown, and former major league pitcher, Mark Knudson, conduct the assembly programs throughout the area. It is an instructional and motivational experience for the children. This program benefitted 170 schools and reached approximately 16,500 children. Each student was also given a coupon redeemable for tickets to a designated home game.

Another successful program under the guidance of the Foundation was the "Catch-A-Kid" program in 1993. It was designed to allow kids, kindergarten through eighth grade in the six county Denver metro area, to participate in the excitement of major league baseball. Students are encouraged to write essays entitled, "What Major League Baseball Means to Me." The students are then awarded baseball gloves in school assembly programs, where the importance of staying in school and off drugs is stressed by a speaker for the Foundation.

In addition to the focal points of the Foundation, the Charity Fund targets certain limited health and medical programs.

In 1993, the Charity Fund, in conjunction with Children's Hospital, held a celebrity golf tournament. The successful event, with the assistance of the Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation, raised more than $73,000 for the Hospital and the Fund. In March of '94, a new tournament was held in Tucson in cooperation with the Pima County Sports Authority to benefit Southern Arizona and the surrounding community of the Rockies' spring training home.

The Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation and the Colorado Rockies Charity Fund will strive for the development of innovative programs through which the Rockies will continue to make a lasting impact in the Rocky Mountain region.

Rockies outfielder, Dante Bichette, is surrounded by one of the many groups to receive free tickets as part of the Player Ticket Giveaway Program. The nine players involved donated $175,000 to purchase over 40,000 tickets for underprivileged and at-risk youth.

History

On January 22, 1994, construction worker's at the Coors Field construction site unearthed a large purple egg in what is now the Rockpile section of the ballpark. The National Guard was called to recover the egg, which was then incubated at Denver's Museum of Natural History.

On April 16, 1994, in Mile High Stadium, the egg was hatched in centerfield as a crowd of better than 50,000 witnessed the birth of Dinger.

Distinctive Features

Dinger's main color is purple, but he does possess various prehistoric spots about his body, which also consists of three horns and a huge tail that has been known to whip any unsuspecting predators.

Mile High Memories

The opening of Coors Field in 1995 also closes the curtain on a brief, but very memorable two-year stint in Mile High Stadium. The use of Mile High afforded the Rockies the opportunity to gain instant respect around major league baseball, as fans poured through the turnstiles in record setting proportions. In 135 dates played at Mile High Stadium, the Rockies totaled 7,701,861 customers, a per game average of 57,051.

After drawing an unprecedented 4,483,350 fans in the inaugural year of 1993, the Rockies were on a pace to shatter that mark in '94, averaging 58,598 through 56 home dates, which would have put the season ending mark at 4,687,840. Despite the abrupt end to the year, in two seasons the Rockies had 52 occasions when better than 60,000 paid to watch baseball, and 21 times the crowd peaked over 70,000.

Though last year ended early, the Rockies still managed to break four attendance marks that had belonged to them at one point during the previous season. Following is the complete list of attendance records set by the Rockies in Mile High Stadium:

Rockies Attendance Records

All-time major league season - 4,483,350 (1993)

(Previous record — 4,028,318 by Toronto, 1982)

National League single season - 4,483,350 (1993)

(Previous record — 3,608,881 by Los Angeles, 1982)

Fastest to 4,000,000 - 71 dates (1993)

(Previous record — 81 dates by Toronto, 1991 & 1992)

Fastest to 3,000,000 - 52 dates (1994)

(Previous record — 61 dates by Toronto, 1992)

Fastest to 2,000,000 - 36 dates (1993)

(Previous record — 41 dates by Toronto, 1992)

Fastest to 1,000,000 - 17 dates (1993)

(Previous record — 21 dates by Toronto, 1992)

Opening Day - 80,227 (April 9, 1993 vs. Montreal)

(Previous record — 78,672 at Los Angeles vs. San Francisco, April 18, 1958)

Items of Interest

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: To win a batting title a player must have 502 or more actual plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: To win the ERA title a pitcher must have at least as many innings pitched as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season and have the lowest ERA.

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: The individual field champions shall be the fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

- (1) A catcher must have participated as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.
- (2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.
- (3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION—If another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

(NOTE)—These figures DO NOT determine the Gold Glove winners at the end of the season. Those are selected by a vote of managers and coaches.)

PINCH HITTING: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around in the inning and a pinch hitter comes up a second time, he will not be considered a pinch hitter the second time.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has:

- (1) Exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues, or
- (2) Accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-man roster (excluding time in military service).

SAVE RULE: A pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

- (1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
- (2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
- (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 - (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches at least one inning, or
 - (b) He enters the game regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
 - (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

SUSPENDED GAMES: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on original date of this game.

How to Figure

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at bats into the number of hits.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, take that number and divide it by the total innings pitched.

FIELDING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.
